GAME DAY

69,029 fans watched Temple take on #25 Penn State on November 10, 2007, setting a new school and MAC record.

Temple is one of six Bowl Subdivision programs to share its venue with an NFL franchise. Built at a cost of $512 million, Lincoln Financial Field opened in 2003 and boasts a natural grass surface that is ranked as the best among Northern stadiums by the NFLPA.

THE CAMPUS

A comprehensive transit system (right) and state-of-the-art subway (below) provide students access to the entire Philadelphia area.

Founded in 1884 by Dr. Russell Conwell, Temple University enrolls more than 39,000 students and is the 27th largest university in America.

Nearly 12,000 students live on or near the Main Campus—more than twice than in 2002. The Main Campus spans 115 acres.

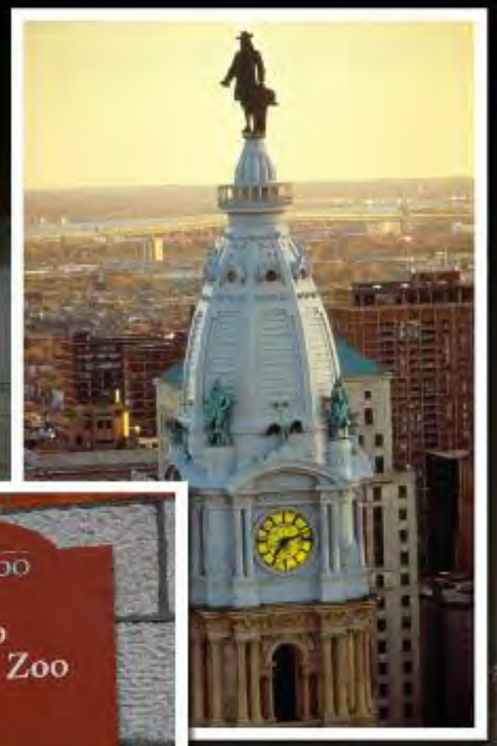
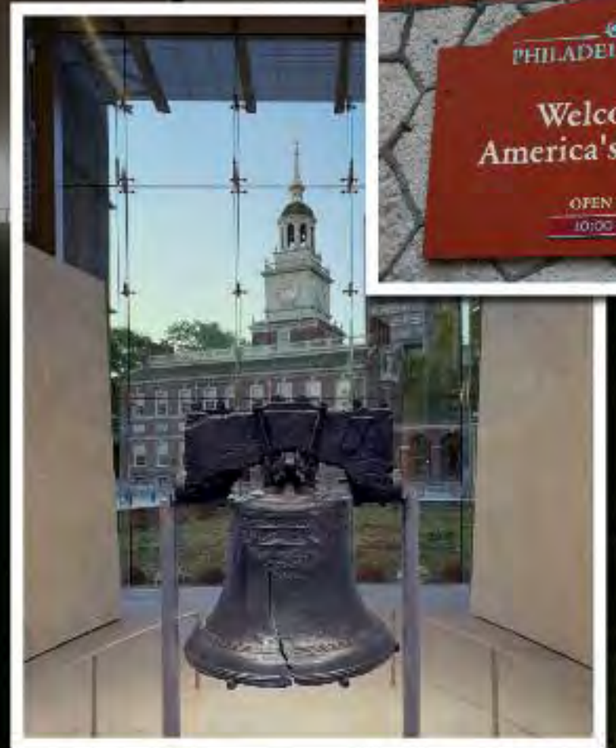
PHILADELPHIA - TEMPLE'S HOMETOWN

The Philadelphia Phillies made back-to-back appearances in the World Series, winning it in 2008 and appearing again in 2009.





Philadelphia is home of the nation's first hospital, law school, library company, zoo, voluntary fire company, medical college, pharmacy school, and cancer treatment center.

The birthplace of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, Philadelphia is the sixth-largest city in the country. Forty percent of the U.S. population lives within a four-hour drive.

With 88 institutions of higher learning and approximately 360,000 university students, Philadelphia blends the vast resources of a world-class city with the friendly atmosphere of a college town.

HOME OF THE OWLS

Edberg-Olson Hall, Temple's state-of-the-art on-campus football complex, will be undergoing a $10 million upgrade and expansion in 2011.

Receptionist Area

Edberg-Olson Hall is the home of the Temple University football program. Officially dedicated on December 9, 2000, the facility was designed by AP3C Architects of Philadelphia. The building was engineered to not only support the football team's functional requirements, but to enhance the experience through innovative design concepts. It provides the perfect atmosphere to develop a bond in football, family and Philly. During the season, approximately 250 people will pass through its doors on a daily basis.

Entrance Lobby

Team Auditorium

Thanks to a fundraising effort managed by the Owl Club and spearheaded by Dr. Peter Chodoff, Temple practices on the $800,000 SprinTurf surface of namesake Chodoff Field (background).

Lobby

HOME OF THE OWLS

Edberg-Olson Hall contains team and coaches locker rooms, a weight room, a training room, equipment facilities, coaches offices, observation balcony, a players lounge, computer lab, individual position meeting rooms, and a theater-style team meeting room. It is the perfect complement to a gridiron landscape outside featuring 130,000 square feet of SprinTurf.

Head athletic trainer Dwight Stansbury

Temple has a team physician, a head athletic trainer, four assistant trainers and four graduate extern trainers to handle any injuries that may occur to Owl student-athletes. Additionally, with its internationally-recognized hospital two miles north of Main Campus, medical treatment is never far away.

TOTAL CARE

STADIUM FACILITIES

Temple's game day facilities at Lincoln Financial Field, which includes a players locker room, training room, assistant coaches locker room, equipment room and a head coach's locker room, comprise approximately 6,000 square feet of space. The players locker area, bathroom facilities and shower area alone encompass 2,600 square feet.

Russell's Rock

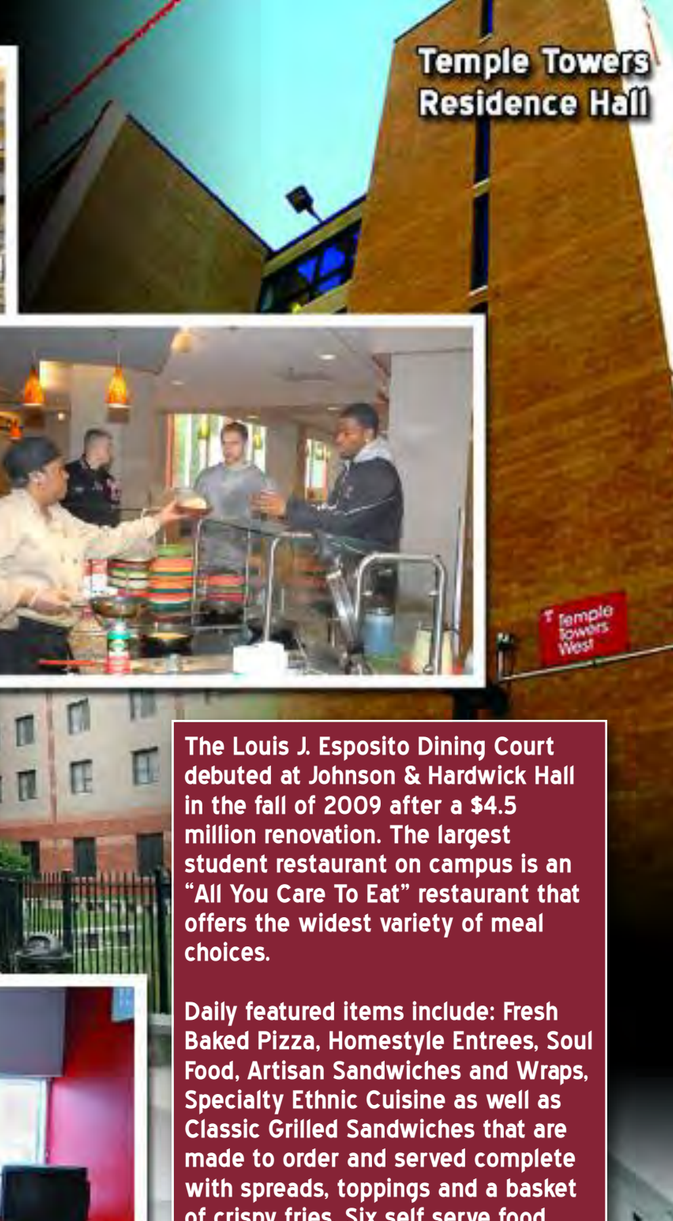
STUDENT-ATHLETE LIVING

More than 12,000 students live on or near the Main Campus—more than twice the number who lived on or near campus in 2002.

In the past 15 years, Temple has spent over $100 million on residence halls and spent $32 million to renovate the Temple Towers in 2009.



The Louis J. Esposito Dining Court debuted at Johnson & Hardwick Hall in the fall of 2009 after a $4.5 million renovation. The largest student restaurant on campus is an "All You Care To Eat" restaurant that offers the widest variety of meal choices.

Daily featured items include: Fresh Baked Pizza, Homestyle Entrees, Soul Food, Artisan Sandwiches and Wraps, Specialty Ethnic Cuisine as well as Classic Grilled Sandwiches that are made to order and served complete with spreads, toppings and a basket of crispy fries. Six self serve food stations are also present so diners can compose their own meals.

The Temple staff boasts youth and successful experience. With 68 bowl games among them, their average age on opening night vs. Villanova will be 37.4 years. All of the Owls' coaches are former college football players. The Temple staff has extremely strong ties to the Northeast region, the heart of the team's recruiting base. Four coaches hail from Ohio, two are native from Connecticut, and one calls Pennsylvania home. The rest of the staff hails from New Jersey, Indiana, and Maryland.

MID-AMERICAN CONFERENCE

Temple joined the Mid-American Conference as an affiliate league member beginning with the 2007 season. This year, for the first time in its 64-year history, the MAC will have five bowl relationships —three (3) primary and two (2) secondary — for the next four football seasons (2010-2013).

The MAC's three primary bowl agreements are with the Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl (Detroit, Mich.), GMAC Bowl (Mobile, Ala.) and Roady's Humanitarian Bowl (Boise, Ida.). The Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl will have the MAC's No. 1 selection in 2010 and 2012, with the GMAC Bowl having the No. 1 selection in 2011 and 2013. The Roady's Humanitarian Bowl will own the MAC's third selection of bowl eligible teams all four years.

The MAC's regionally syndicated football television package will bring the Temple brand to 34 markets and 23.2 million households. The nationally-televised Temple-Miami contest (ESPNU) will reach 105 million households in all 50 states, providing unprecedented exposure for the University.

Each year, Temple hosts Pro Day at the Edberg Olson Complex, showcasing the Owls' senior class to professional scouts and representatives from NFL teams. The goal is to provide each and every Cherry & White player every opportunity to display their wares prior to the NFL Draft and rookie free agent signing period.

To assist the seniors in their preparation, three team combines are conducted to measure strength, speed and agility (225 Rep Test, 40 yd Trial, Three Cone Drill, 20 Yd Shuttle and Broad Jump).

An agent seminar, held for seniors and their families in the spring prior to their senior season, is also provided to give our players an in-depth perspective of what it really takes to take their game to the next level.

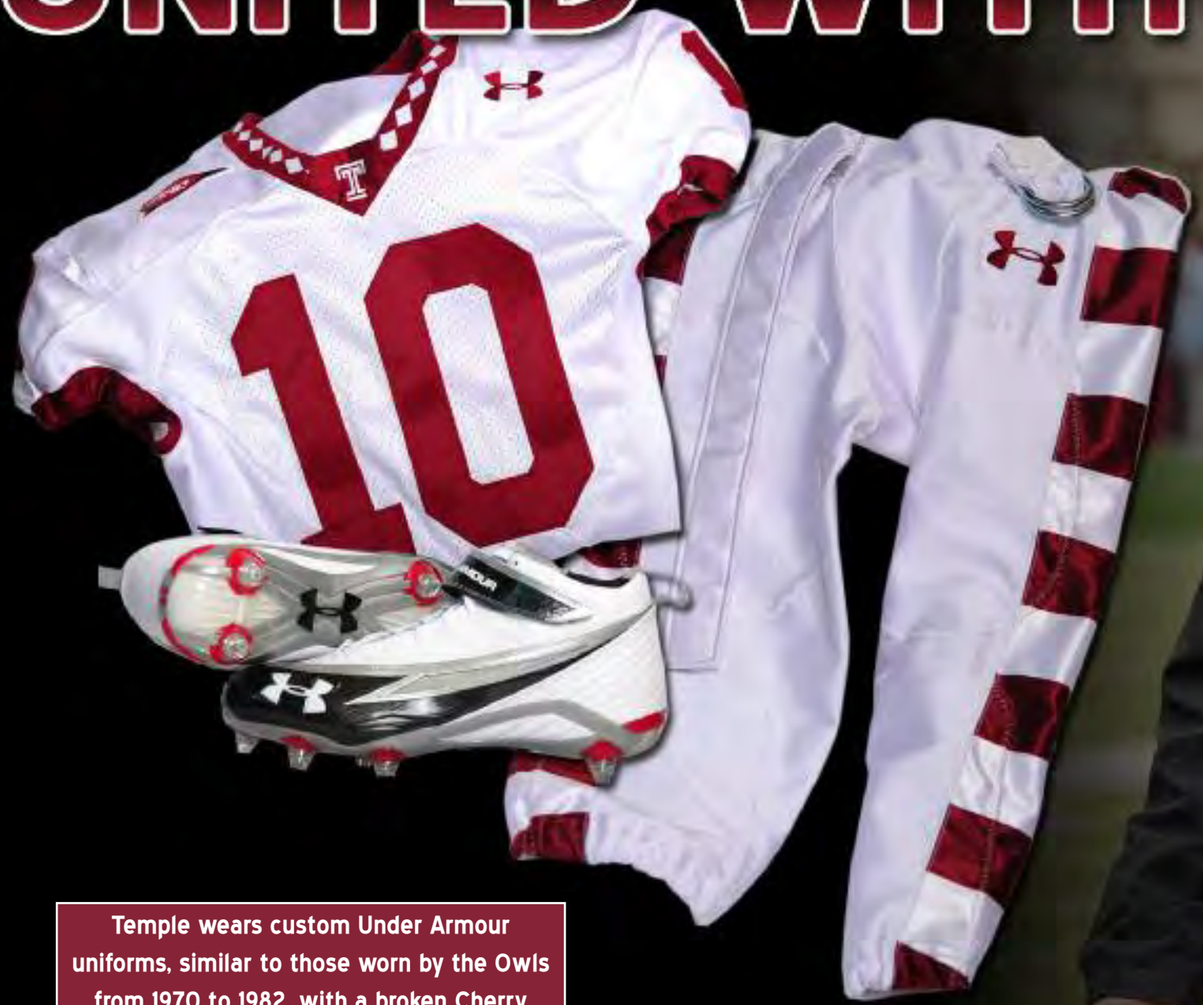
Philadelphia is the fourth-largest media and telecommunications market in the United States. The region boasts many major telecommunications and media outlets including a major cable sports network, NFL Films, and many independent film and video production and post-production houses, radio and television stations, casting agencies, and advertising and public relations agencies. Temple had eight television appearances in 2010.

UNITED WITH



Temple wears custom Under Armour uniforms, similar to those worn by the Owls from 1970 to 1982, with a broken Cherry stripe down the legs and the Temple "T" on the helmet. Under Armour became the team's official outfitter in 2010, joining Auburn, Boston College, Maryland, South Carolina and Texas Tech in the Under Armour football family.

Dear Coach Addazio,

Thanks to you and to all the football players who volunteered their time and talent on Thursday, April 28, 2011, at the Philadelphia Ronald McDonald House.

The football players always act in a professional manner and go out of their way to make sure everything is just right.

Thanks so much for partnering with us. You and the Temple football players are the best!

Frank Piraino
Head Strength &
Conditioning Coach

Temple Strength & Conditioning is an integral part of the football program. Each player is placed on a year-round, comprehensive program, designed to improve them as football players. The off-season program is mentally and physically based. The mental goals are to improve toughness, discipline, attitude, work ethic, and responses to adversity. The physical goals are to improve speed, strength, conditioning levels, body composition, and football specific skills. The program is designed to train the players for a 14-game football season.

Temple had two players at the Big 33 All-Star Game between Pennsylvania and Ohio in 2011. Jalen Fitzpatrick and Daquan Cooper both played in the game for Pennsylvania.

A record of 1,400 players participated in the 2011 Steve Addazio Football Camp. Athletes from 11 states, the District of Columbia and Canada journeyed to North Philadelphia for the camp.

More than 1,000 coaches visit Temple University annually to watch practice or attend clinics. Temple Football brings more than 6,000 visitors to campus annually via camps, clinics, and recruiting events.

Much like the unions that support the great city of Philadelphia, Local 215 represents the tough, disciplined and blue-collar student-athletes who believe they have what it takes to play Division I football and promote the concept of Temple Tuff. In 2010, 12 current or former Local 215 members saw game action for the Owls, with four earning starts.

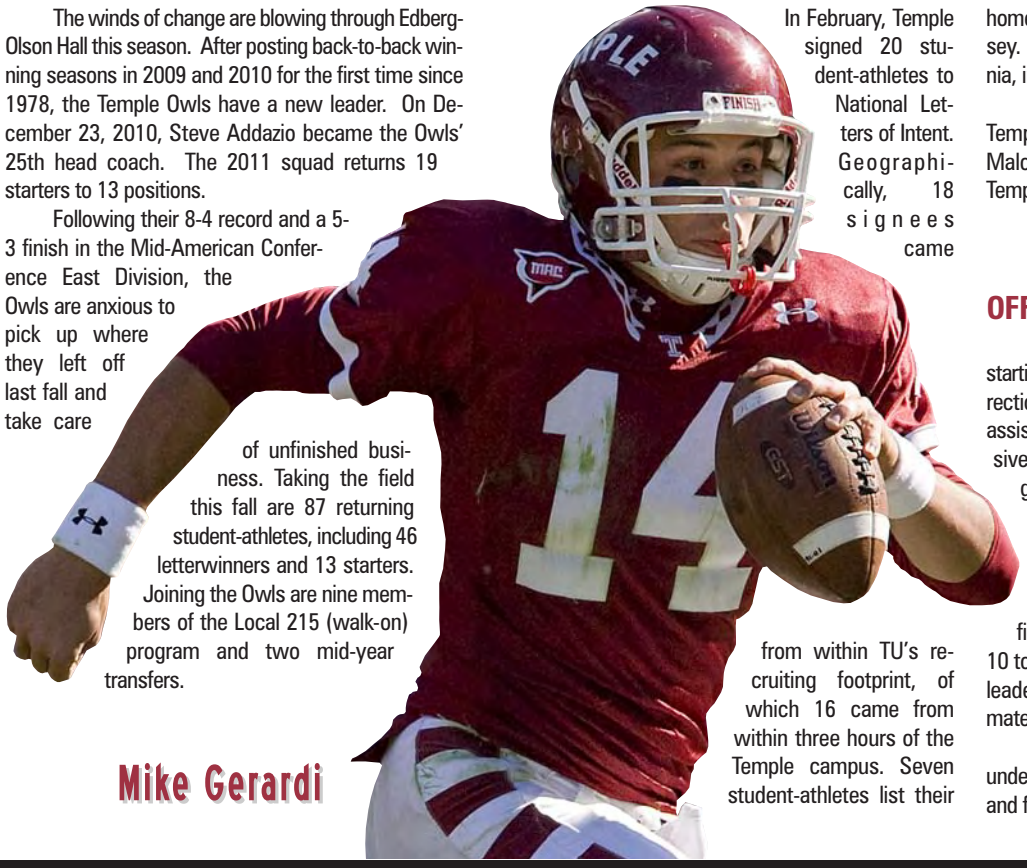
Temple Owls Take the Field Under New Leadership in 2011

The winds of change are blowing through Edberg-Olson Hall this season. After posting back-to-back winning seasons in 2009 and 2010 for the first time since 1978, the Temple Owls have a new leader. On December 23, 2010, Steve Addazio became the Owls' 25th head coach. The 2011 squad returns 19 starters to 13 positions.

Following their 8-4 record and a 5-3 finish in the Mid-American Conference East Division, the Owls are anxious to pick up where they left off last fall and take care of unfinished business. Taking the field this fall are 87 returning student-athletes, including 46 letterwinners and 13 starters. Joining the Owls are nine members of the Local 215 (walk-on) program and two mid-year transfers.



Mike Gerardi

In February, Temple signed 20 student-athletes to National Letters of Intent. Geographically, 18 signees came from within TU's recruiting footprint, of which 16 came from within three hours of the Temple campus. Seven student-athletes list their hometown in Pennsylvania and six hail from New Jersey. Five signees hail from Southeastern Pennsylvania, including four from the Philadelphia metro area.

Eleven of the 18 high school signees attended the Temple Football Camp (61%). Two of the signees—Malcolm Eugene and Hershey Walton— enrolled at Temple in January and participated in spring drills.

OFFENSE

The Temple offense returns 12 players to eight starting positions among the 27 lettermen. Under the direction of first-year offensive coordinator Scot Loeffler, assisted by Matt Rhule, TU will utilize a multiple offensive system designed to create a balanced running game and passing game.

Directing the offense are two experienced quarterbacks-- junior Mike Gerardi and senior Chester Stewart.

A walk-on turned starter in 2010, Gerardi finished the season 93-of-156 for 1,290 yards and 10 touchdowns in five starts. He is a tough, unselfish leader who has earned the confidence of his teammates.

As junior, Stewart started the first seven games under center last fall. He went 72-of-135 for 842 yards and four touchdowns.

In addition to the two starters, Loeffler will guide sophomore Chris Coyer and redshirt freshman Connor Reilly. Coyer also saw limited action in five games in 2010, while Reilly redshirted the season.

Newcomers Clinton Granger and Jalen Fitzpatrick will provide depth. Granger, a junior college transfer, was an All-Pacific Conference selection at Pierce College last season. He could compete for the starting nod.

In his first season with the offensive line, coach Justin Frye will guide an experienced troop. The o-line returns 13 players, including six starters.

On the left side, senior Derek Dennis will compete to regain his starting position at guard. Last fall, he took over the starting duties for an injured Steve Caputo, finishing 2010 with seven starts across the line. Sophomore Evan Regas poses a serious threat.

At tackle, senior Pat Boyle is favored to receive a starting role. In 2010, Boyle saw action in every game with five starts at left guard. Sophomore Darryl Pringle, who played in all 12 games with two starts at left tackle, will challenge for the starting nod.

At center, senior John Palumbo will compete with fellow senior Jeremy Schonbrunner. The duo shared the spot last fall with Palumbo starting nine of the 12 games.

There are big shoes to fill on the right side, replacing two-time first-team All-MAC selections Colin Madison and Darius Morris. Expect senior Wayne Tribue and junior Sean Boyle to compete for starting roles at guard. Tribue saw action at center last fall, while Boyle missed the 2010 season with an injury.

At tackle, junior Martin Wallace is expected to take over fulltime starting duties. He played in all 12 games with two starts at left tackle. Redshirt freshman Joe Cenatiempo will provide relief.

Sophomore Scott Roorda, freshman Hershey Walton, and junior Stephen Yuan will provide serious competition at all spots. Others competing for time are redshirt freshmen Elijah Grant, Jake Lane, and Adam Metz. Freshmen Zach Hooks, Eric Lofton, Jacob Quinn, and Will Rathbone will provide depth.

In his first season with the tight ends, coach Matt Rhule has a veteran list of candidates. Seniors Evan Rodriguez and Matt Balasavage are expected to receive tough competition for their starting roles. A first-team All-MAC honoree, Rodriguez started nine games last fall, finishing as the top TE in receiving and third overall with 247 yards and two touchdowns on 21 receptions. A three-year starter, Balasavage played in 10 games with four starts last fall.

Also competing for time will sophomores Cody Booth, Matt Brookhart, Alex Jackson, and Chris Parthemore. All saw significant playing time at tight end in 2010.

Fifth-year coach Tyree Foreman returns a youthful but experienced backfield heading into 2011. The junior tandem of Matt Brown and Bernard Pierce anchors the speedy runners. A second-team All-MAC selection, Brown led the Owls with 830 yards and seven touchdowns on 162 carries a year ago in seven starts. A first-team All-MAC honoree, Pierce followed with 728 yards and a team-best 10 touchdowns on 154 carries.

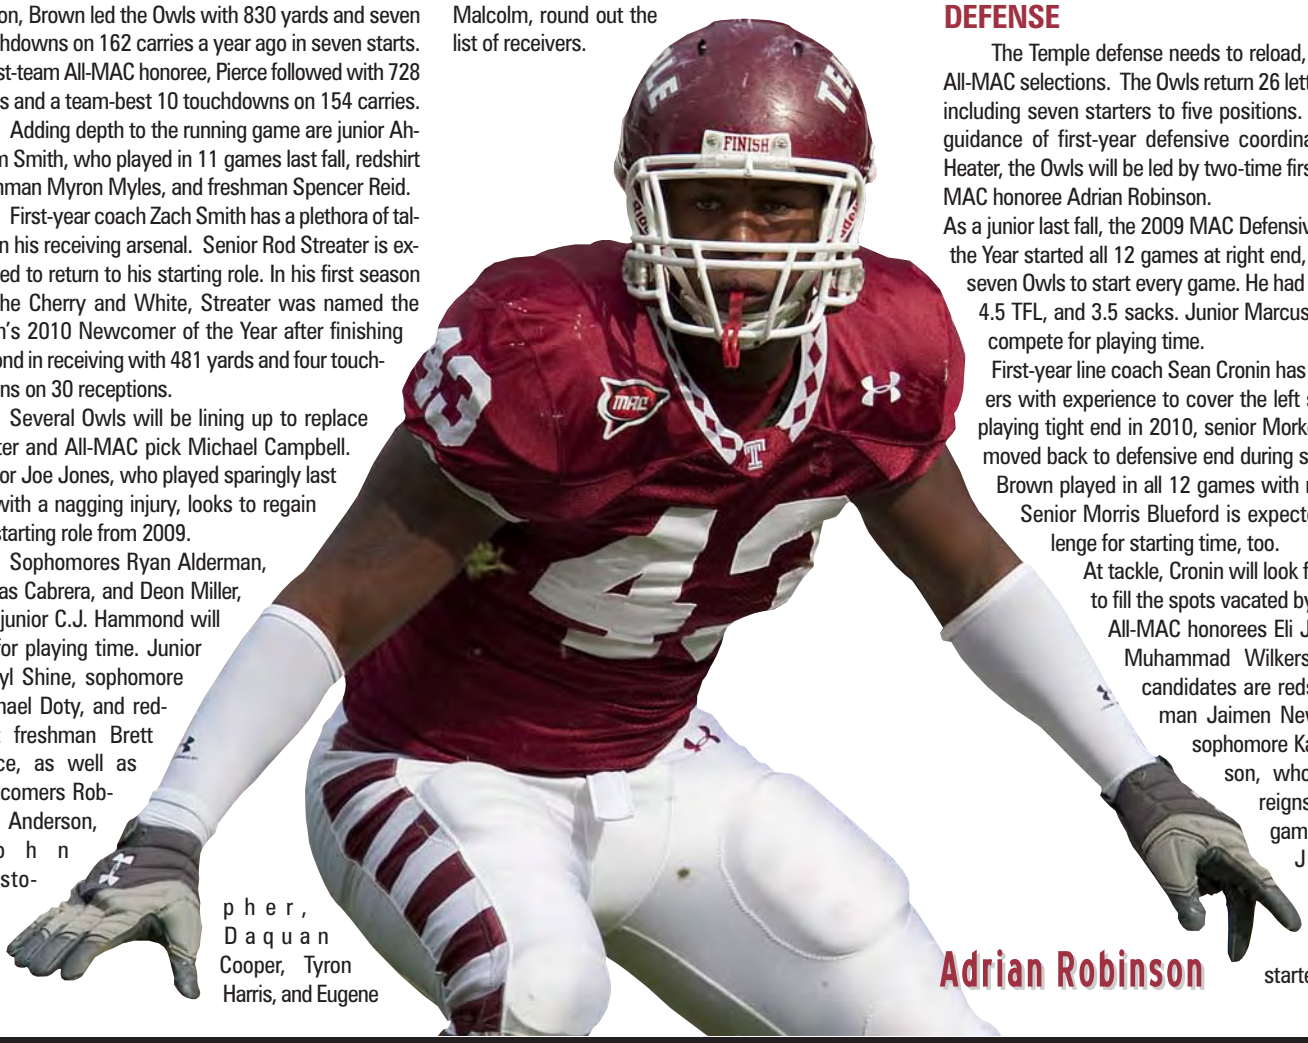
Adding depth to the running game are junior Ahkeem Smith, who played in 11 games last fall, redshirt freshman Myron Myles, and freshman Spencer Reid.

First-year coach Zach Smith has a plethora of talent in his receiving arsenal. Senior Rod Streater is expected to return to his starting role. In his first season for the Cherry and White, Streater was named the team's 2010 Newcomer of the Year after finishing second in receiving with 481 yards and four touchdowns on 30 receptions.

Several Owls will be lining up to replace starter and All-MAC pick Michael Campbell. Senior Joe Jones, who played sparingly last fall with a nagging injury, looks to regain his starting role from 2009.

Sophomores Ryan Alderman, Tomas Cabrera, and Deon Miller, and junior C.J. Hammond will vie for playing time. Junior Darryl Shine, sophomore Michael Doty, and redshirt freshman Brett Pierce, as well as newcomers Robbie Anderson, John Christopher, Daquan Cooper, Tyron Harris, and Eugene Malcolm, round out the list of receivers.



Adrian Robinson

DEFENSE

The Temple defense needs to reload, losing four All-MAC selections. The Owls return 26 letterwinners, including seven starters to five positions. Under the guidance of first-year defensive coordinator Chuck Heater, the Owls will be led by two-time first-team All-MAC honoree Adrian Robinson.

As a junior last fall, the 2009 MAC Defensive Player of the Year started all 12 games at right end, one of just seven Owls to start every game. He had 38 tackles, 4.5 TFL, and 3.5 sacks. Junior Marcus Green will compete for playing time.

First-year line coach Sean Cronin has three players with experience to cover the left side. After playing tight end in 2010, senior Morkeith Brown moved back to defensive end during spring drills. Brown played in all 12 games with nine starts. Senior Morris Blueford is expected to challenge for starting time, too.

At tackle, Cronin will look for strength to fill the spots vacated by first-team All-MAC honorees Eli Joseph and Muhammad Wilkerson. Prime candidates are redshirt freshman Jaimen Newman and sophomore Kamal Johnson, who took the reigns in two games last fall. Junior Kadeem Custis, who started four games a year ago, will likely take over at nose tackle. Following significant action last fall, sophomore Levi Brown will also compete for playing time.

Looking for playing time are redshirt freshmen Taray Carey, Jaimen Newman, Wanemi Omuso, and Dante Weaver, junior Byron Rutherford, sophomore Dan Van Norton, and sophomores Sean Daniels, Shahid Paulhill, and Jeff Whittingham. Freshmen Ari Nwobi and Khadeem Wilson will add depth.

Taking over the linebacking corps this year are Ben Albert (outside) and Sean McGowan (inside). Strong in numbers, the linebackers also return tremendous game experience.

On the outside, seniors Tahir Whitehead and Quinten White, Jr., are expected to move into starting roles. Whitehead saw action in every game with eight starts in 2010, racking up 56 tackles, including 7.5 TFL. White saw action in 11 contests with two starts and will look to replace four-year starter Amara Kamara.

In the middle, senior Stephen Johnson could regain his starting role. The walk-on played in every game last fall with three starts.

Expected to compete for time will be sophomores Olaniyi Adewole, Wyatt Benson, Blaze Caponegro, Matt Falcone, and Gary Onuekwusi, and junior Marcus Green. Newcomers Brandon Chudnoff, Tom Long, Praise Martin-Oguike, and Nate Smith will provide depth.

The secondary, under the guidance of Heater, is stacked with experience.

At strong safety junior Justin Gildea is expected to resume his starting role. Gildea started eight games, had 58 tackles and two fumble recoveries. Redshirt freshmen Brian Burns should challenge for playing time.

Heater will have to fill the starting role at free safety vacated by first-team All-MAC pick Jaiquawn Jarrett. Senior Kevin Kroboth, who started six games at strong safety last fall, is expected to take over. He racked up 31 tackles in 2010. Junior Vaughn Carraway is expected to challenge for the starting nod.

At corner, senior Kee-ayre Griffin and junior Maurice Jones are expected to lead the pack. Griffin saw action in all 12 games in 2010, starting 10 games. He had 51 tackles and three break-ups. Jones played in 10 games.

Sophomore Zamel Johnson and senior Anthony Robey will compete for starting roles in the secondary.

Providing depth to the defensive backs will be seniors David Abror, Shane Howell, James Nixon, and Deonte Parker, and sophomore Abdul Smith, as well as freshmen Kenneth Harper and Chris Hutton.

SPECIAL TEAMS

In addition to coaching the wide receivers, Zach Smith will coordinate the Owls' special teams.

Returning for his junior season is placekicker Brandon McManus. The Owls' scoring leader each of the last two seasons, McManus handled the Owls' field goals, extra points, and kickoffs.

Smith will need to replace four-year punter Jeff Wathne who graduated. Freshmen kickers Christian Guinan, Nick Holland, and Tyler Mayes are expected to help with the Owls' kicking game.

Senior James Nixon is expected to regain the kickoff return duties. Additional help could come from Kee-ayre Griffin, Joe Jones, and Maurice Jones.

2011 SCHEDULE

Temple enters its fifth season of MAC play with seven home games and a school record seven nationally televised contests. TU opens the 2011 season with Villanova in the third annual Mayor's Cup at Lincoln Financial Field on Sept. 1.

The Owls travel to Akron (Sept. 10) for the MAC opener for both teams.

Temple returns to Lincoln Financial Field for a showdown with perennial powerhouse and intra-state rival Penn State (Sept. 17) before hitting the road for a game at Maryland (Sept. 24).

TU hosts Toledo (Oct. 1) before traveling to Ball State (Oct. 8). Buffalo comes to Philadelphia for the Owls' annual Homecoming game (Oct. 15).

Temple then takes to the road for two games. In the first stop, the Owls visit Bowling Green (Oct. 22). TU opens November with a pair of Wednesday night games, first traveling to Ohio (Nov. 2) for a mid-week clash at 8 p.m. on ESPN2.

The Owls close the regular-season with three home games. Temple entertains Miami (Ohio) on Wednesday, Nov. 9 at 8 p.m. on ESPN2 before hosting Army (Nov. 19) in its last non-conference battle.

TU hosts Kent State on Senior Day on Friday, Nov. 25.

The 2011 Marathon MAC Championship game will take place at Ford Field in Detroit on Friday, Dec. 2 at 7 p.m. on ESPN2.

OFF THE FIELD

In addition to taking classes and training for the season, the Temple Owls are enthusiastically involved with several community service projects throughout the year. The Owls have helped clean up recreation centers around the city and fed the homeless at area shelters.

Temple once again participated in the Southwest Airlines Ronald McDonald House Plane Pull, the Race for the Cure, and the Diamond Street Cleanup during the spring of 2011.

Steve ADDAZIO

Head Coach

First Season at Temple •
Central Connecticut State '81

Steve Addazio, who helped the University of Florida win two BCS National Championships in the last five years, was named Temple University's 25th head football coach on December 23, 2010. He most recently served as the associate head coach and offensive coordinator for the Gators during the 2010 season.

The Farmington, Conn., native has a quarter-century of coaching experience and 11 postseason bowl games, including six BCS games in the last 15 years, on his resume.

"This is truly a great day for Temple Football as Steve Addazio is the perfect coach to take the program to the next level," Temple University Director of Athletics Bill Bradshaw said. "Steve brings a wealth of experience with some of the nation's best programs. As one of the top recruiters in the country, Steve will be able to bring talented players to Temple, and with his vision and passion for the game, he will be able to lead them to success on the field.

"That success will also translate to the classroom, as Steve truly understands the mission of Temple University in putting the 'student' first in student-athlete."

"It's great to be back in the Northeast. I'd like to thank Bill Bradshaw and Dr. Ann Weaver Hart for giving me the opportunity to be here," Addazio said. "I am honored. I am humbled to be here as the head football coach at Temple University. I will give everything I have to make Philadelphia and the University community proud."

The 52-year old Addazio spent six seasons at Florida under head coach Urban Meyer, serving as associate head coach and offensive coordinator in 2010. The Gators won BCS National Championships in 2006 and 2008, while capturing two Southeastern Conference championships.

He completed his tenure at Florida on Jan. 1, 2011, coaching Florida to a 37-24 win over Penn State in the Outback Bowl. The offensive line paved the way for an SEC-best 8,506 net rushing yards since 2008, an average of 207.5 per game, and a league-leading 5.3 yards per carry and 103 touchdowns. Florida scored 35 touchdowns and six field goals on 58 red zone trips in 2010. The Gators scored on 15 consecutive red zone possessions, including 14 touchdowns. Addazio saw three of his linemen drafted into the NFL-- center Mike Pouncey (Dolphins), Marcus Golbert (Steelers), and Maurice Hurt (Redskins).

Addazio took over the reins of the offense in 2009 and finished the season ranked first in the SEC in total offense and second in rushing offense, passing offense and scoring offense. UF finished in the Top 10 nationally in passing efficiency (1st), total offense (6th), rushing offense (10th) and scoring offense (10th).

The Gators were the only team in the nation in 2009 to rush for over 3,000 yards and pass for more than 3,000 yards. UF was one of seven teams in the nation to have at least 25 rushing touchdowns and 25 passing touchdowns on the season. Florida averaged 5.6 yards per rush in 2009, the third-best average in the nation. The offense totaled 3,105 rushing yards (6th in the nation) and 30 rushing touchdowns (11th in the nation).

Center Maurkice Pouncey was named a first-team All-American in 2009 and became the first Rimington Trophy winner in Florida's school history.

Addazio coached one of the most prominent offensive lines in UF history in 2008 that allowed Florida to rush for 3,236 yards, averaging a school-record 5.9 yards per carry, improving from a 5.3 average in 2007. The offensive line allowed the Gators to pass for 33 touchdowns and run for 42 touchdowns in 2008, as Heisman Trophy quarterback Tim Tebow passed Emmitt Smith for first-place all-time in rushing touchdowns. The 2008 offensive line only allowed 16 sacks during the season and contributed to one of the most balanced teams in school history that ranked fourth in both scoring offense and defense.

"I am humbled to be here as the head football coach at Temple University. I will give everything I have to make Philadelphia and the University community proud."

– Steve Addazio

In 2007, Addazio coached an offensive line that blocked for an offense that rushed for 2,602 yards, for an average of 5.3 yards per carry, a jump from the 2006 average of 4.7 yards, and also helped the offense to run for 39 touchdowns. The OL allowed just 13 sacks in 2007, a drop of 10 sacks from 2006.

Addazio worked with the offensive line, which allowed only 23 sacks and gave up one or less in a game seven times in 2006 after the group allowed 35 sacks in 2005. The unit also paved the way for the UF run game that increased from 3.9 yards per carry and 146.8 yards per game in 2005 to 4.7 yards per carry and 160.0 yards per game in 2006.

Joseph V. Labolito

Addazio went to Indiana (2002-04) after spending the previous three seasons at the University of Notre Dame, where he served as the offensive line, tight ends and special teams' coach between 1999-2001.

Prior to his tenure at Notre Dame, Addazio served on the staff at Syracuse University for four seasons (1995-98). The Orange won three consecutive Big East crowns during Addazio's four seasons and appeared in four bowl games.

Prior to Addazio's Division I collegiate coaching career, he served as one of the nation's top high school coaches at Cheshire High School in Cheshire, Conn. He placed over 20 student-athletes in Division I-A, I-AA, II, and III programs in his seven years. His teams were nationally ranked in 1992 and 1994. During one stretch, his team won 34 consecutive games, the second-longest string in the nation. His teams also won three state titles in a row.

Addazio began his coaching career at Western Connecticut State University, where he served as an assistant coach under Paul Pasqualoni from 1984-87. The Colonials claimed the New England Football Conference title in 1985 and advanced to the NCAA Division III playoffs for the first time in school history.

A graduate of Central Connecticut State University, Addazio earned a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1981. A four-year starter for the Blue Devils on the offensive and defensive lines, Addazio completed a master's degree in 1985. Addazio earned tryouts with the NFL's New England Patriots, USFL's Jacksonville Bulls, and CFL's Ottawa Roughriders.

Born June 1, 1959, Addazio is married to the former Kathy Donoghue. They have three children– Nicole (24), Jessica (21), and Louie (18). Louis is a freshman at Syracuse where he plays tight end.

What They're Saying About Steve Addazio . . .

"Steve Addazio is the perfect coach to take the program to the next level. Steve brings a wealth of experience with some of the nation's best programs. As one of the top recruiters in the country, Steve will be able to bring talented players to Temple, and with his vision and passion for the game, he will be able to lead them to success on the field."

— Bill Bradshaw,
Temple Director of Athletics

"I'm happy for Steve Addazio and his family. Steve has been extremely loyal to me and the University of Florida, and I will be forever thankful for his unwavering commitment. His energy and passion have been well documented and he is a tremendous recruiter and motivator. He is well respected by his peers and his players and I wish him nothing but the best."

— Urban Meyer,
former Florida Head Coach

"Steve has been a big part of our success the last six years at the University of Florida. Everyone that knows Steve knows what a loyal and passionate coach he is. He cares deeply about the players he coaches, and he was a great motivator in the locker room. He has the ability to relate to players, but still maintains their respect. He was one of our top recruiters and his ties to the Northeast will be a good fit for Temple. More than anything, Coach Addazio is a good man with a good family. We wish him the best of luck."

— Jeremy Foley,
Florida Director of Athletics

"He knows how to lead a team and get a team going. We love Coach Addazio to death."

— Maurkice Pouncey, former Florida center and current Pittsburgh Steelers' center

What They're Saying About Steve Addazio . . .

"Without a doubt, Steve Addazio is one of the most talented coaches I've ever been around. I can't imagine a better fit in the country for Temple University and the city of Philadelphia than Steve Addazio. He is a star."

— Bob Davie,
College football analyst
for ESPN and ABC

"One of the best men you will ever meet. Steve is a great person."

— Teryl Austin,
Florida Defensive Coordinator /
Cornerbacks Coach

"Steve Addazio helped the Gators weather the greatest of storms and landed several of the top prospects in what is the best recruiting class on paper over the past five recruiting cycles. For this, he is the 2010 national recruiter of the year."

— J.C. Shurburtt,
ESPN.com

"If you took that same poll among the players, their parents and his fellow coaches, Addazio would be the most popular in a landslide. Addazio's loyalty, sincerity, and frankness are admirable, but his inner toughness has been his most valuable commodity."

— Buddy Martin,
Gator Country

Chuck HEATER

Defensive Coordinator / Defensive Backs • First Season at Temple • Michigan '75

Chuck Heater, who served as the co-defensive coordinator at the University of Florida and has three national championship titles under his belt, enters his first season as the defensive coordinator at Temple.

Heater brings 35 years of coaching experience, including stints at Florida, Colorado, Northern Arizona, Notre Dame, Ohio State, Toledo, Utah, Washington, and Wisconsin. The defensive coordinator at Florida in 2010, he has coached in 24 bowl games, including eight on New Year's Day, and the 2007 and 2009 BCS National Championship Games, where Florida captured two national titles, and the 1988 national championship with Notre Dame.

Heater has been associated with six National Coaches of the Year in his playing and coaching career (Barry Alvarez, Earle Bruce, Lou Holtz, Urban Meyer, Bill McCartney and Bo Schembechler) while mentoring 20 NFL Draft selections and 24 NFL players as well as numerous all-conference picks, including Jim Thorpe Award winner Chris Hudson (Colorado).

Under his guidance, since 2005, the Florida Gators recorded 116 interceptions, the most in the SEC and the second-best total in the nation during that time frame. In 2010, Heater led the Gator secondary to a No. 3 ranking in SEC pass defense and SEC pass defense efficiency, while ranking second in the conference with 17 interceptions. Safety Ahmad Black was named a second-team All-American in 2010.

In 2009, Heater helped guide a Florida secondary that ranked first in the SEC, the first time since 1988, and second in the nation in pass defense, allowing just 152.8 yards per game. Four opponents failed to crack the 100-yard mark in passing offense against the Gators and six completed fewer than 50 percent of their pass attempts. Heater helped turn around a defensive secondary that was one of the nation's worst in 2007 to rank among the best in 2008. The UF pass efficiency defense ranked third in the nation in 2008 (up from 71st in 2007) and the pass defense improved to rank 20th in the nation in 2008 (up from 98th in 2007). Sophomore Ahmad Black was named second-team All-SEC by the coaches and honorable mention All-American honors from Sports Illustrated. Black was a second-team All-Sophomore selection by College Football News, while sophomore Major Wright earned honorable mention recognition for the All-Sophomore team. Will Hill was selected to the SEC All-Freshman team and was named a second-team All-Freshman performer by College Football News. Black tied for the national lead with seven interceptions in 2008, totaling 191 interception return yards, the second-most in the country, and two touchdowns.

Heater served as the recruiting coordinator for the 2006 and 2007 Florida classes that each ranked among the Top-two nationally, including No. 1 by several services. The 2008 class was ranked in the top five by several services.

The Gator secondary led the SEC in interceptions in 2005 and 2006 with 16 in 2005 (tied with Georgia) and 21 in 2006. UF's 2006 total tied for the fourth-highest in school history. Florida's 2006 pass defense efficiency (98.3) ranked fourth nationally and second in the SEC. UF surrendered only 10 passing touchdowns in 2006 (tied for eighth nationally). The unit also ranked second in scoring defense in the league and sixth nationally (13.5).

Heater guided All-SEC first-team selection Ryan Smith, whose total of eight interceptions led the league and was seventh nationally in 2006. The total was also the second-highest by a

Gator in school history. He tutored the 2005 cornerbacks at Florida that were part of a secondary that allowed just 52.3 percent of passes to be complete – the 16th-best percentage nationally. A member of the UF secondary had a sack in five of the 12 games on the year. He coached All-SEC performer Dee Webb in 2005 (First Team by AP and Second Team by coaches), who led the SEC in pass deflections and team MVP Vernell Brown who ranked second in the SEC in interceptions.

Heater worked alongside former Florida head coach Urban Meyer at four different Division I programs. In 1986, Heater coached the secondary at Ohio State when Meyer was a graduate assistant. They coached together again at Colorado State from 1991-92 where Heater was the defensive coordinator and inside linebackers coach and Meyer as the receivers coach. Heater was also a member of the Utah coaching staff in 2004.

During the 2004 campaign, Heater served as the cornerbacks coach and recruiting coordinator at Utah as the Utes completed a perfect 12-0 season.

He spent five years at the University of Washington as either the cornerbacks or running backs coach between 1999-2003 and also served as the Huskies' recruiting coordinator. Heater was credited with helping the school sign three recruiting classes rated in the Top 15. Three of his recruiting classes produced a Freshman All-American. In 2002, he switched from the corners to the running backs. He also oversaw the Huskies' punt and kick return teams.

During his first season at Notre Dame, Heater was a member of the coaching staff that led the Irish to a 12-0 record and the 1988 national championship.

He also served as the secondary coach at Notre Dame (1988-90), Ohio State (1985-87) and Wisconsin (1982-84). Heater coached the running backs from 1977-78 and the secondary at Toledo from 1979-81. He began his collegiate coaching career in 1976 at Northern Arizona, coaching the running backs.

A native of Tiffin, Ohio, Heater received his bachelor's degree in education from Michigan in 1975. A three-year letterwinner at running back, Heater earned second-team All-Big Ten honors as a junior and was named honorable mention as a senior. Finishing his playing career as UM's fifth-leading rusher all-time with 1,981 yards on 406 carries (a 4.9-yard per carry average), he received the school's Fielding Yost Award in 1975 for the most outstanding academic and athletic performance by a senior. During his tenure at Michigan, the Wolverines went 41-3-1 and won outright or shared the Big Ten title every season.

Heater was drafted by the New Orleans Saints in the 10th round with the 241st overall selection in the 1975 NFL Draft.

Heater is married to the former Deborah Dariano. The couple has three children: Emily, Andy, and Adam, and a granddaughter Grace. Andy was a defensive tackle at the University of Washington in 2005 and is now an Airborne Army Ranger, while Adam played tight end at UCLA.

Scot LOEFFLER

Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks • First Season at Temple • Michigan '98

Scot Loeffler, who has 13 years of coaching experience on the collegiate and NFL levels, enters his first season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Temple University.

Loeffler spent the last two seasons at the University of Florida as the quarterbacks coach. In 2010, Florida scored 35 touchdowns and six field goals on 58 red zone trips. The Gators scored on 15 consecutive red zone possessions, including 14 touchdowns, Loeffler led a Florida quarterback unit that led the nation in pass efficiency (167.3) in 2009. They passed for 3,305 yards for 28 touchdowns with just five interceptions. Florida ranked second in the SEC in passing offense with an average of 236.1 yards per game. Loeffler guided Tim Tebow in his final season at Florida, during which he passed for 2,895 yards and 21 touchdowns, finishing his senior year with a passing efficiency of 164.17. The quarterback left Florida with five NCAA, 14 SEC and 28 UF records.

Loeffler spent one season in the NFL with the Detroit Lions, where he guided a quarterback unit that threw for 2,960 yards in 2008.

Prior to joining the Lions, Loeffler coached the quarterbacks at his alma mater, the University of Michigan, for six seasons, guiding second-round draft pick Chad Henne. Under the tutelage of Loeffler, Henne became the first true freshman QB to lead his team to a Big Ten title and start in a BCS bowl game. Henne set school marks in career passing yards (9,715), touchdowns (87), completions (828) and attempts (1,387). He helped develop John Navarre into the team's first All-Big Ten first-team quarterback since 1997.

A Barberton, Ohio, native, Loeffler served as Central Michigan's quarterbacks' coach for two seasons in 2000-01.

A quarterback for the Wolverines from 1993-96, Loeffler received his bachelor's degree in history in 1996. He helped guide two NFL quarterbacks in Tom Brady and Brian Griese as a graduate and student assistant at Michigan and was a part of the Wolverine staff during the 1997 undefeated season and National Championship title. He has seen the quarterbacks he coached at Michigan go on to play in 219 regular-season NFL games, including 196 starts. In addition, those players have garnered a combined four Super Bowl rings as pros.

Born Nov. 1, 1974, Loeffler and his wife Amie have two children, son Luke (7) and daughter Alexis (1).

Matt RHULE

Assistant Offensive Coordinator / Tight Ends / Recruiting Coordinator • Sixth Season at Temple • Penn State '97

Matt Rhule, who played four seasons at Penn State and has 13 seasons of collegiate coaching experience, is in his sixth season as an assistant coach at Temple University. Beginning in 2011, Rhule will serve as the assistant offensive coordinator and tight ends coach as well as the recruiting coordinator.

His role has changed several times during his tenure at Temple. In the spring of 2008, Rhule was promoted to offensive coordinator. He also coached the TU quarterbacks. He coached the defensive line in 2006 and served as the quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator during the 2006 and 2007 seasons. For three consecutive years, Temple's recruiting class was ranked No. 1 in the MAC [2006, 2007, 2008].

In 2010, Rhule guided the offense to the largest margin of victory in a MAC game. Helping the team to an 8-4 regular-season record, the Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79, including their first win over a BCS team. The Owls recorded the largest margin of victory (42 points) in a MAC game against Buffalo. A school record six offensive players earned All-MAC honors, including repeat first-team honorees OL Colin Madison, OL Darius Morris, and RB Bernard Pierce as well as first-time honoree TE Evan Rodriguez.

In 2009, Rhule's offense helped TU win a single-season record nine consecutive games en route to a 9-4 overall record and first-place tie in the MAC East. Under Rhule's guidance, the Owls set the Temple single-season rushing yardage record. A school record five offensive players were named All-MAC, including three on the first team. All-American Bernard Pierce rushed his way into the Temple record book, re-writing all records for a rookie en route to 2009 MAC Freshman of the Year honors.

In 2008, Rhule took the reigns as offensive coordinator, helping the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades. The Owls out-scored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990. Rhule coached All-MAC honorees C Alex Derenthal and school record holder WR Bruce Francis, while QB Adam DiMichele set the school record for passing touchdowns with six in the 55-52 win over Eastern Michigan. WR Bruce Francis set the school records for career receiving TDs (23) and consecutive games with a reception (38).

Rhule arrived in Owl Country after spending four seasons as an assistant coach at Western Carolina, including three as assistant head coach.

From 2002 to 2005, Rhule was an assistant at Western Carolina under head coach Kent Briggs, serving as assistant head coach during his last three seasons. In 2005, he was offensive line coach and run game coordinator after directing the linebackers his first three years. Rhule was special teams coordinator during his tenure in Cullowhee (N.C.). In 2005, the Catamounts led Division I-AA in kickoff returns, averaging 27.44 yards per return. Sophomore Mike Malone earned first team All-Southern Conference honors with a 31.29 yards per kickoff return average, ranking second nationally. Two offensive linemen and the team's punter captured second team all-league accolades.

In 2004, WCU ranked 12th nationally in total defense and 15th in pass defense, largely due to the production of Rhule's linebacker corps. The team's top five tacklers were linebackers in its eight man front scheme. In 2003, the Catamounts led the SoCon in rush defense for the first time in school history.

Rhule arrived at Western Carolina after serving as assistant defensive line coach at UCLA in 2001. He assisted in coaching five Bruins that earned All Pac-10 honors as the team posted a 7-4 record under head coach Bob Toledo.

From 1999 to 2000, Rhule served as an assistant coach at Mid-American Conference member Buffalo, directing the Bulls defensive line in 2000 and working as assistant defensive line coach in 1999. In 2000, the team's sack total increased from 12 to 27 utilizing a 3-4 alignment. Buffalo also earned its first two Division I-A victories that season.

Rhule began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Penn State in the spring of 1998 before working at Albright College in Reading, Pa. for the 1998 season. At Albright, he coached the linebackers in a 4-3 scheme and recruited western and central Pennsylvania.

Outside Linebackers

First Season at Temple • Massachusetts '95

Ben Albert, who returns to collegiate coaching after a year in the NFL, is in his first season as the outside linebackers coach at Temple University.

After spending 14 seasons as a coach on the collegiate level, Albert served as the assistant defensive line coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2010 where he coached Temple alumnus and 3rd round draft pick DT Terrance Knighton (2005-08).

Albert previously served as associate head coach/linebackers at the University of Delaware from 2006-09. He helped the Blue Hens to the FCS title game in 2007.

The 39-year old Albert began his coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Massachusetts, in 1995 and worked two years there as defensive line coach and academic resource coordinator. He served as defensive line/linebackers coach at the University of Richmond from 1997-2000, helping the Spiders to two Atlantic 10 titles (1998, 2000). He returned to Richmond in 2004 as defensive line coach and special teams coordinator. He moved to the NCAA I-A level in 2001 where he served as defensive line coach at Rutgers University under head coach Greg Schiano.

A native of Paterson, N.J., Albert returned to his alma mater from 2002-03 where he served as inside linebackers coach and special teams coordinator. In addition to his coaching career, he worked as a minority fellowship intern with the Oakland Raiders in the summer of 1999.

Albert played nose guard and defensive tackle at Massachusetts from 1990-94, leading the Minutemen to the Yankee Conference title in 1990 as a freshman. A team captain, he earned first-team All-Yankee Conference and All-East honors as a senior in 1994 and led a defense that ranked 13th nationally in total defense. He earned a bachelor's degree in political science and sociology in 1995 and a master's degree in education in 1997.

Albert and his wife, Lisa, have a daughter, Maya (4), and son, Elijah (2).

Defensive Line

First Season at Temple • Georgetown (Ky.) '03

Sean Cronin, who has played on or coached for four national championship teams, is in his first season as the defensive line coach at Temple.

Cronin spent the 2010 season as the defensive line coach at Marshall University.

He joined the Thundering Herd staff after spending the 2009 season as the defensive line coach at The Citadel. Prior to The Citadel, Cronin spent three years as a graduate assistant defensive coach at the University of Florida, working with NFL draft selections Jermaine Cunningham (2nd rd., New England), Carlos Dunlap (2nd rd., Cincinnati), Derrick Harvey (1st rd., Jacksonville), Jarvis Moss (1st rd., Denver), and Ray McDonald (3rd rd., San Francisco).

Cronin has played on or coached for four national championship teams. He won two national titles as a player at Georgetown (Ky.) and helped the University of Florida to national championships in his first and third seasons as a graduate assistant in Gainesville. Cronin went to UF after spending the 2005 season at Marshall, where he served as the offensive and special teams quality control assistant. In that role, Cronin performed multiple duties, including film break down and statistical analysis.

Following graduation, Cronin spent two seasons as the linebackers coach at Division II Clarion University.

Cronin went to Moeller High School in Cincinnati and attended the University of Cincinnati, where he was a defensive end before transferring to Georgetown College (Ky.), where he played defensive end his first season and defensive tackle during his final two years. As a player, Cronin was part of three teams that played for the national championship and two that won the title. In 2002, he was an All-American and All-Conference selection. Upon graduation from Georgetown (Ky.) College, Cronin spent the spring semester of his senior year interning at his alma mater assisting with the defensive line and in strength and conditioning efforts.

In 2003, Cronin earned his B.A. in history with a minor in coaching from Georgetown (Ky.) College. In 2005, he completed work for a master's in rehabilitative science at Clarion University.

Cronin is married to the former Emily Heater. The couple has a daughter Grace (1).

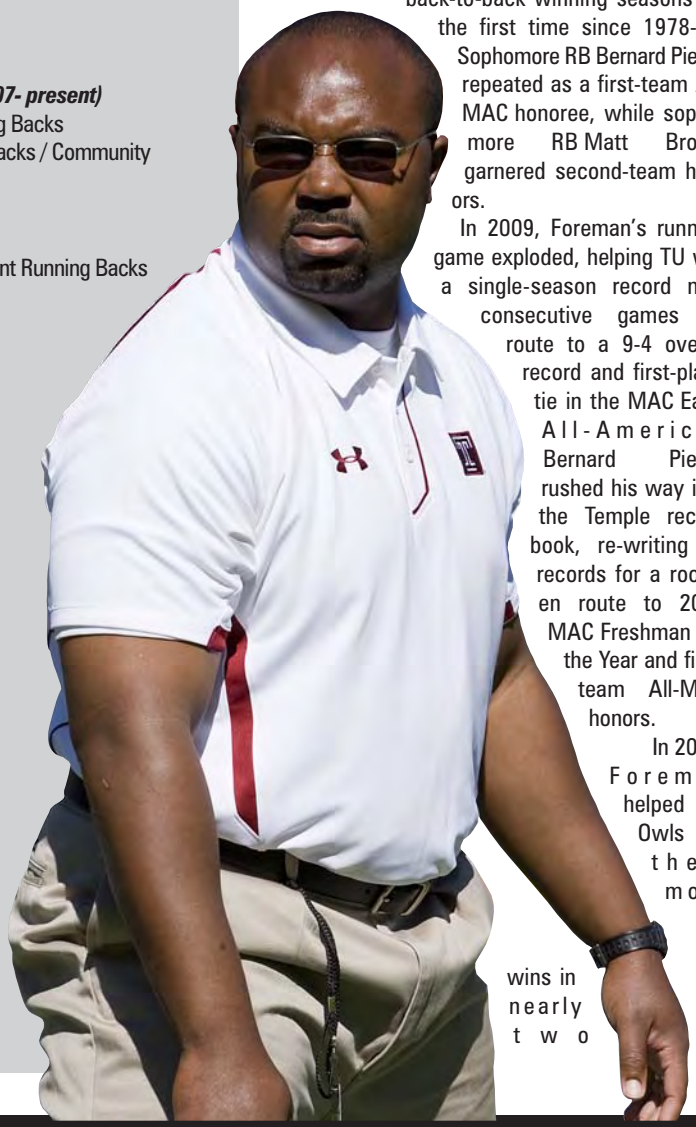
Running Backs

Fifth Season at Temple • Virginia '01



Tyree Foreman, who spent three seasons as the assistant running backs coach at Army, is in his fifth season as running backs coach at Temple.

In 2010, the running backs helped the team to an 8-4 regular-season record. The Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79. Sophomore RB Bernard Pierce repeated as a first-team All-MAC honoree, while sophomore RB Matt Brown garnered second-team honors.

In 2009, Foreman's running game exploded, helping TU win a single-season record nine consecutive games en route to a 9-4 overall record and first-place tie in the MAC East. All-American Bernard Pierce rushed his way into the Temple record book, re-writing all records for a rookie en route to 2009 MAC Freshman of the Year and first-team All-MAC honors.

In 2008, Foreman helped the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades. The Owls out-scored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990. Foreman also coached true freshman Kee-ayre Griffin, who switched to running back mid-season and went on to score a touchdown in his first five games. He led the Owls on the ground.

Foreman played his collegiate ball at Virginia, where former Temple coach Al Golden served as the Cavaliers' defensive coordinator during his senior season in 2001.

Foreman arrived at West Point in March 2004 and helped make an immediate impact on the Black Knights' rushing attack under head coach Bobby Ross. After finishing last in the nation in team rushing in 2003, Army concluded the 2004 campaign ranked 36th. The team also boasted the 13th leading rusher in the nation, Carlton Jones, who averaged 115.36 yards on the ground per game. Jones' production continued with Foreman's assistance in 2005, when he ranked 29th in the country in rushing with a 102.40 yards-per-game average.

In addition to coaching ball-carriers during his tenure at Army, Foreman also worked with special teams, assisting with punt, kickoff return and punt return, as well as field goal and extra point units. He recruited in Maryland, Washington D.C., Virginia, Delaware, West Virginia, and Ohio for the Black Knights.

A three-year letterwinner in the backfield at Virginia from 1999 to 2001, Foreman rushed for 636 yards and 11 touchdowns during his career in Charlottesville, averaging 5.0 yards per carry. He started at both the fullback and tailback positions, closing his tenure with 34 receptions for 387 yards (11.4 avg.) and five receiving scores.

After departing Virginia, the Sandy Spring, Md., native, signed a rookie, free-agent contract with the San Diego Chargers in April, 2002. He was released at the end of training camp, but was signed to the Chicago practice squad in August 2002. He remained with the Bears throughout the season and was a teammate of former Temple signal caller Henry Burris. Foreman was allocated to NFL Europe during the spring of 2003 and spent the season as the starting fullback for the Barcelona Dragons.

Born November 6, 1979, Foreman earned a bachelor's degree in religious studies, with concentrations in Christianity and Buddhism, from Virginia in May 2001. He left professional football during the summer of 2003 and returned to the gridiron with his initial coaching assignment at West Point.

Foreman is married to the former Shakeya Currie. The couple has an infant daughter Cassidy.

Offensive Line

First Season at Temple • Indiana '06

Justin Frye, who has worked with head football coach Steve Addazio as a player at Indiana and as a coach at Florida, enters his first season as the offensive line coach at Temple University.

Serving as the offensive line graduate assistant, Frye worked with Addazio for two seasons at the University of Florida.

In 2010, the Gator offensive unit paved the way for four players to rush for over 300 yards, one of only six BCS teams to accomplish the feat. The offensive line, which allowed only 24 sacks, had a Sporting News Freshman All-American in guard Jon Halapio and an Associated Press second-team All-SEC performer in center Mike Pouncey. Following a win in the Outback Bowl, tackle Marcus Gilbert and Pouncey were selected to play in the 2011 Senior Bowl.

The 2009 offensive line led the Southeastern Conference in rushing and total offense while finishing second in scoring offense. Frye helped tutor Maurkice Pouncey in 2009 when Pouncey won the Rimington Award, given annually to college football's most outstanding center.

Frye was also a graduate assistant at Indiana for two seasons before joining the Florida staff, working with the offensive line and tight ends.

Playing for offensive coordinator Addazio, Frye set the Indiana record for most consecutive starts (45), playing as an offensive lineman for the Hoosiers from 2002-06. As a senior, he was a team captain and voted the team's "Most Outstanding Offensive Lineman." The Elwood, Ind., native earned a bachelor's degree in sports communications from Indiana University in December 2006.

Prior to Frye's career at Indiana, he played for Elwood High School where he was a first-team All-State performer. He also played basketball and golf and ran track.

Frye earned Academic All-State honors and was the Marine Corps Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

Frye's father, the late Kevin Frye, was a fullback and tight end for the Hoosiers from 1977-81 and played in the 1979 Holiday Bowl.

Frye is married to the former Lauren Torpey. The couple has an infant son Kevin.

Inside Linebackers

First Season at Temple •
Fordham '08

Sean McGowan, who has served the last four years as the defensive coordinator at the University of New Hampshire, is in his first season as the inside linebackers coach at Temple University.

McGowan worked at New Hampshire for seven years overall, including four seasons as the defensive coordinator. In 2010, the Wildcats advanced to the NCAA quarterfinals. The 2010 season marked McGowan's second consecutive year – five years total – as coach of the defensive backs. He also coached the DBs for three seasons (2004-06) before serving as mentor of the linebackers for two years (2007-08).

McGowan was instrumental in helping the Wildcat defense lead the nation in fumble recoveries, interceptions, and turnover margin in 2005. McGowan mentored Jeff Pammer who earned All-America honors. McGowan worked closely with Buck Buchanan Award candidate Corey Graham, who was drafted in the fifth round of the NFL draft in 2007 by the Chicago Bears. Although he didn't have the official title, McGowan served in a defensive coordinator capacity in 2006.

Prior to joining the UNH staff, McGowan worked at the University of New Haven before the school discontinued its football program. He spent the 2003 season as the defensive coordinator at West Virginia Tech.

McGowan began his coaching career at Division III Occidental College where he served as the quarterbacks coach (1998). He then moved on to the University of Pittsburgh as a graduate assistant for three seasons (1999-2001). McGowan spent his first season in recruiting before moving to defense, where he worked with the secondary. McGowan then took over as defensive coordinator at Duquesne University (2002), where the defense ranked first in total defense in I-AA.

He was a two-year letterwinner at Fordham as he started out as quarterback before moving to safety his final two seasons. McGowan received a bachelor's degree in business from Fordham in 1998.

He is married to the former Ashley Mussig. The couple has an infant son Liam.

Zach SMITH

Special Teams Coordinator / Wide Receivers • First Season at Temple • Florida '07

Zach Smith, who was a part of two National Championships at the University of Florida, enters his first season as the wide receivers and special teams coach at Temple University.

Smith served as the wide receivers and special teams coach at Marshall University during the 2010 season.

Prior to joining the Thundering Herd, Smith spent five years at the University of Florida. He served as an offensive and special teams graduate assistant for the Gators from 2007 to 2009. He also worked as an offensive and special teams quality control assistant and in recruiting evaluation for UF from 2006 to 2007.

During his time in Gainesville, Florida won two national championships (2006 and 2008) and produced some of the most prolific offenses, not only the Southeastern Conference but in the nation, in terms of scoring offense, yardage per game, and passing efficiency. The Gators also produced some of the top punt team and punt return units in the nation over this period. Florida blocked an impressive 22 kicks since 2006 - the most in college football over that span.

Smith's duties at Florida included game planning and all opponent breakdowns and tendencies, working with wide receivers (2007-08) and quarterbacks (2008-09), assisting with special teams game plan input and all breakdowns (2005-07), evaluating prospective student-athletes, creating and designing a recruiting action plan, in addition to game prep tests and quality control.

A native of Dublin, Ohio, walked on the football team at Bowling Green under coach Urban Meyer in 2002. He transferred to Kentucky and then to Florida in 2005 to work with Meyer as a quality control assistant. Smith earned a bachelor's of science degree in sports management from Florida in 2007. He is the grandson of College Football Hall of Fame coach Earle Bruce.

Smith is married to the former Courtney Carano. The couple has a son Cameron (1).

Ed FOLEY

Director of Football Operations

Fourth Season at Temple • Bucknell '89

Ed Foley enters his fourth season with Temple University and his first as the Director of Football Operations. Previously he served as the Owls' recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach/assistant offensive line coach for three seasons.

In 2010, his 22nd season as a coach, Foley's tight ends and offensive line helped the team to an 8-4 regular-season record. The Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79. A school record six offensive players earned All-MAC accolades, including first-team honorees TE Evan Rodriguez, OL Colin Madison, and OL Darius Morris. Madison and Morris became the first repeat first-team All-MAC recipients in school history.

In 2009, the tight ends and offensive line helped TU win a single-season record nine consecutive games en route to a 9-4 overall record and first-place tie in the MAC East. A school record five offensive players were named All-MAC, including senior TE Steve Maneri and four linemen. Juniors Colin Madison and Darius Morris earned First Team accolades.

In his first season with the Owls in 2008, Foley helped the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades. The Owls out-scored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990. Foley also helped Temple bring in its fourth highly touted recruiting class during the Golden Era.

A native of Cherry Hill, N.J., Foley returned to the City of Brotherly Love after spending three seasons at Hofstra as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator, and offensive line coach. The Pride offense blossomed under Foley in his first year as coordinator, increasing its yardage total from 269 to 388 yards per contest from the previous year. The Pride's scoring output also increased from 16.8 to 26.9 points per game. Foley also brought balance to the Pride attack as Hofstra's rushing total was its' highest since 2000 (145 yards/game) and its passing attack netted 243 yards per contest. Charles Sullivan left as the all-time leader in receptions and yards after catching 86 balls for 991 yards under Foley's tutelage.

Prior to joining the Pride, Foley served seven years at Fordham University, including two seasons as head coach (2004, 2005). After a 5-6 record in 2004, a season in which the Rams dropped four games by a touchdown or less, Fordham slipped to a 2-9 mark in 2005. As Fordham's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach from 1999 through 2003, Foley helped rejuvenate a program that rose to the top of the Patriot League in 2002, when it won its first-ever league title with a 10-3 record. In 2003, the Rams compiled a 9-3 overall record and had 12 players named to the All-Patriot League Team, including six members of the offense, four of whom were named to the first team.

Under Foley's guidance, the Fordham offense set numerous team and individual records. The Rams set a team record for most rushing yards in a season in 2003, gaining 1,657 yards, while also setting a school record for most pass completions in a season with 255. In 2002, Fordham led the Patriot League in passing offense and scoring offense, while finishing second in total offense and setting a team record for most points in a season. In addition to winning the Patriot League title that season, the Rams advanced to the NCAA I-AA Playoffs, where they defeated Northeastern University in the first round.

In 2001, Foley helped the Fordham offense develop its first 1,000-yard rusher on the NCAA Division I-AA level, as well as the first-ever 1,000-yard receiver in Fordham's history. The Rams had the second-ranked passing offense in the Patriot League in 2001 as well as the second-best scoring offense. In 2000, Foley's offense established a running game that generated 1,635 yards (an average of 148.6 per game), the most for a Fordham team on the I-AA level until the 2003 team gained 1,657.

Foley arrived at Fordham after spending the 1998 season as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Jacksonville University, which sponsored a football team that year for the first time in the school's history. Foley helped lead the Dolphins to a 4-5 record during their inaugural season, as the offense scored 271 points in nine games (30.1 ppg). The Dolphin attack averaged 380 yards per game, a perfectly balanced 190 yards rushing and passing per game.

Foley also served as an assistant coach at the University of Pennsylvania from 1991 to 1993, and again from 1995 to 1997, spending the 1994 season as an assistant at Williams College. At Penn, Foley coached the tight ends and tackles for five years and helped the Quakers to a perfect 10-0 record in 1993, when they also won the Ivy League Championship. Prior to his stint at Penn, Foley served as the offensive line coach at the State University of New York (SUNY) at Albany for two years.

Foley was a three-year starter at Bucknell University, playing offensive guard for one season and center for two. During his junior year, he was named the team's top lineman, and he served as a captain during his senior year. He earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from Bucknell in 1989 and a master's degree in educational psychology at SUNY Albany in 1991.

Born Sept. 26, 1967, Foley and his wife Rebecca have two sons, Charlie (11) and Luke (4), and a daughter Sara (2). His brother Glenn was a seven-year NFL veteran quarterback, playing with the New York Jets and Seattle Seahawks from 1993 to 2000.

GA / Offense

First Season at Temple

• Iowa '09

Chris TRIFONE

GA / Defense

First Season at Temple

• Endicott '10

Mark DeLeone begins his first season at Temple University as a graduate assistant.

Before joining the Owls, DeLone worked as a quality control coach at the University of Florida with head coach Urban Meyer during the 2010 season. DeLone coached the wide receivers in the spring, and worked with the offensive line, under Steve Addazio, and tight ends in the fall. The Gators produced seven All-SEC performers en route to their Outback Bowl victory.

DeLeone has worked with two 2011 first round NFL Draft picks in OL Mike Pouncey (Florida) and Adrian Clayborn (Iowa).

In 2009, DeLeone served as the Director of Football Operations and assistant offensive line coach at New Hampshire under coach Sean McDonnell. The Wildcats went 10-3 en route to the Colonial Athletic Association North championship and a quarterfinal showing in the Football Championship Subdivision.

A 2009 graduate of the University of Iowa with a bachelor's degree in liberal arts and sciences, DeLeone served as a defensive student assistant coach for the Hawkeyes during the 2007 and 2008 seasons under coach Kirk Ferentz. In 2007, he worked with the linebackers, while switching to the defensive line in 2008. During his tenure, the Hawkeyes won the 2009 Outback Bowl and produced 14 All-Big Ten selections and 22 NFL players.

Throughout his career, DeLeone has been heavily involved with recruiting. Additionally he has worked at several different football camps as a guest coach.

DeLeone is the son of George DeLeone, the former NFL and Temple offensive coordinator who currently coaches at Connecticut.

Chris Trifone begins his first season at Temple University as a graduate assistant.

During the 2010 season, Trifone worked as an assistant coach at Worcester Polytechnic Institute. He coached the Engineers' wide receivers and recruited the New England area.

Trifone has also worked as a counselor at the Northeast Clinic football camp for quarterbacks and wide receivers.

A 2010 graduate of Endicott College in Beverly, Mass., Trifone was a four-year student-athlete for the Gulls. Earning a bachelor's degree in physical education, Trifone earned 2009 NEFC Academic All-Conference as a senior. Versatility was an asset for the Cheshire, Conn. native as he played multiple positions for Endicott, including quarterback, wide receiver, cornerback, and defensive end.

Frank PIRAINO

Head Strength & Conditioning Coach

• First Season at Temple • Akron '02

Frank Piraino enters his first season as the head strength and conditioning coach for football at Temple University.

Piraino spent 2010 as the head strength and conditioning coach for football at Marshall University. Prior to joining the Marshall staff, he served on the strength and conditioning staff at the University of Florida for five years.

Piraino served as the strength and conditioning coordinator for Florida baseball in 2008. Additionally, Piraino assisted in all aspects of the Gator football strength and conditioning program from January 2005 to January 2010. During his tenure, the Orange and Blue captured a pair of National Championships and Southeastern Conference titles in both 2006 and 2008, under the direction of head coach Urban Meyer.

Piraino also was the director of the University of Florida's Speed and Agility Camp and its annual Strength and Conditioning Coaches' Clinic. He provided outreach education to high school and small college coaches and was responsible for hands-on training of all injured student-athletes.

Piraino is officially certified through the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) as a strength and conditioning specialist and is recognized by USA Weightlifting as a club coach. Piraino is a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches association (CSCCa) and has passed the Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified (SCCC) certification examination.

"Frank is one of the most respected strength and conditioning coaches in the country. His knowledge and techniques in developing college athletes are on the cutting edge."

– Steve Addazio

In addition, Piraino has completed American Red Cross CPR training and earned his Automated External Defibrillator (AED) certification.

Prior to his arrival at Florida, Piraino was a strength and conditioning assistant at the University of Notre Dame from May 2004 until January 2005. He worked primarily with the Fighting Irish football squad, coached by Tyrone Willingham, that played in the Insight Bowl against Oregon State.

Between January 2003 and May 2004, Piraino was a graduate assistant at Michigan State University, where he assisted in the design, organization and execution of strength and conditioning programs for the Spartan men's and women's basketball, football, and ice hockey teams. He organized and administrated weight room operations, including scheduling, purchasing, and budgeting of needed equipment and supplements and also helped with the maintenance of the facility.

The Cleveland, Ohio, native was an assistant football coach at Walsh Jesuit High School in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, from August 2000 to January 2003. He coached defensive ends and oversaw the scout team defense, as well as coordinating pregame and pre-practice warm-up and assisting in scouting opponents. Piraino completed an internship with the Cleveland Indians in which he assisted in the physical conditioning of the Tribe's major and minor league baseball players between July 2000 and January 2001.

Born January 26, 1980, Piraino earned a bachelor's degree in sport and exercise science from the University of Akron in 2002 and a master's degree in sport administration from Michigan State University in 2004.

Dwight STANSBURY

Head Athletic Trainer

18th Season at Temple
• Oregon St. '83

The athletic health and welfare of Temple athletes in all sports—over 500 athletes in all—is the ultimate responsibility of Dwight Stansbury, who will make the 2011-12 academic year his 18th in the position of head trainer at Temple University.

The St. Helen's, Ore., native manages a staff of four assistant athletic trainers, five graduate extern trainers, and 26 student athletic trainers. During the course of a typical football season, Stansbury and his staff will use over 250 cases of athletic tape preparing the Cherry and White for the gridiron.

Not only is Stansbury the head trainer for Temple's 24-sport athletic program, he is also in charge of overseeing the entire athletic medicine department and supervising students in the undergraduate sports medicine program. His domain is Temple's state-of-the-art 990-square-foot football physical training facility, located within Edberg-Olson Hall. Stansbury also has the use of a 3,800-square-foot training room in McGonigle Hall to ensure the well-being of Temple student-athletes.

Prior to his appointment at Temple, Stansbury served for five years as assistant football and head men's track and field trainer at the University of Tennessee. During his tenure in Knoxville, he treated the Volunteer football players that won the 1990 Cotton Bowl, 1991 Sugar Bowl and 1993 Hall of Fame Bowl and participated in the 1992 Fiesta Bowl. The men's track and field team won the SEC Championship in each of his years on the staff and captured a national title in 1991.

Stansbury served as head football trainer at Lamar University, in Beaumont, Texas, from 1986-87. Before that, he spent 18 months as an athletic trainer at the Physical Therapy and Rehab Center in Gainesville, Fla. Stansbury also worked with the NFL's Atlanta Falcons as a training camp intern while pursuing his master's degree.

Joseph V. Labolito

A 1983 graduate of Oregon State University with a degree in physical education and athletic training, Stansbury received his master's degree from the University of Florida in 1984.

Born February 9, 1953, he and his wife Jody reside in South Jersey with daughters Amy (21), Cindy (18), and Emily (13). Amy runs cross country and track at Temple.

Paul KELLEY

Athletic Equipment Supervisor

21st Season • Temple '96

Paul Kelley is in his 12th season as the athletic equipment supervisor at Temple University. The 2011 season marks his 21st year of service to the Athletic Department and, more specifically, the football program.

As athletic equipment supervisor, Kelley is responsible for equipment operation of all Temple varsity sports. His duties include the acquisition, distribution, collection and maintenance of all practice and game day uniforms and equipment. Kelley organizes field setup for practice and game day. Primarily tending to the needs of the football program, he works with its coaches and players to provide appropriate practice and game day settings. He also executes the athletic program's contractual agreement with Under Armour.

Kelley began working with the Owls football team in 1991 as a student manager. He remained in that capacity until 1996 when he graduated from the University with a bachelor's of science degree in physical education and exercise science, and was hired as a part-time assistant. A year later, Kelley's efforts were recognized, as he was hired as the full-time assistant equipment manager in charge of the football team's needs.

Kelley resides in Delaware County, Pa., where he lives with his wife Kathleen and sons John (25) and Will (9). He is an active member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA), serving as a district officer.

Kelley is on the Marple Township Little League Board and handles its equipment needs in addition to coaching its in-house and tournament teams.

Justin MILLER

Director, Academic Advising

2nd Season • Muhlenberg '01

Justin Miller enters his second season on the Temple University Athletics staff as the Director of Student-Athlete Academic Advising & Support Center.

Milleris responsible for providing leadership for the SAAASC staff, which consists of six academic advisors, two learning specialists, six graduate externs, and over 50 tutors. Reporting to the Office of the Senior Vice Provost for Undergraduate Studies, the goal of the SAAASC is to provide comprehensive academic support services to all student-athletes throughout their career as Temple Owls.

Miller came to Temple from the University of South Florida, where he served as the Assistant Athletic Director for Academics & Student-Athlete Development since 2005.

In his previous role, Miller was responsible for overseeing the academic support services for USF's student-athletes, as well as the day-to-day operations of the Academic Enrichment Center (AEC). Under his leadership, USF's Athletics Department cumulative grade point average was over 3.0 for two consecutive academic years – the first time in the USF history.

Miller successfully improved the technology in the AEC by creating comprehensive student-athlete tracking software to streamline the efficiency and effectiveness of USF's AEC Staff. Miller also served as the academic advisor for women's basketball, men's soccer and baseball, while coordinating the development and facilitation of USF's CHAMPS/Life Skills programming.

A native of Buffalo, N.Y., Miller attended Muhlenberg College in Allentown, Pa. Upon completion of his undergraduate degree in 2001, he worked with the National Consortium for Academics and Sports in Orlando, Fla., and subsequently enrolled in the DeVos Sport Business Management Program at the University of Central Florida.

While pursuing his master of business administration and master of sport business management degrees, Miller served as the Research Coordinator for the 2004-05 Racial Gender Report Card and worked with the National Football League's Players' Association in Washington, D.C. Miller has also worked with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, the Cleveland Cavaliers and Emmanuel College in Boston, Mass.

Miller lives in Philadelphia with his wife Mary.

Herb HOPKINSON

Academic Advisor for Football

First Season • Florida '07

Herb Hopkinson enters his first season as academic advisor for football.

The New Port Richey, Fla., native came to Temple after serving as the tutor coordinator and assistant learning specialist at Texas Tech. During his tenure, he was charged with developing a comprehensive tutorial support program and managing over 100 tutors and academic coaches to serve the needs of over 400 student-athletes.

Since 2008, Hopkinson has served as a facilitator for the National Consortium for Academics and Sports in Orlando, integrating technology into presentations.

While earning his master's degree at South Florida in 2009, Hopkinson worked with USF's baseball team and ensured the team's academic success through mentoring and a structured study program. As result of his efforts, the team earned the Provost's Trophy for Most Improved Team GPA in fall of 2009. Hopkinson earned a bachelor's of science degree in sport management from Florida in 2007.

He is a member of the National Association for Academic Advisors in Athletics.

Nilzarrel TOWNSEND

Learning Specialist for Football

Fourth Season • Urbana '05

Nilzarrel Townsend enters his fourth season as an academic learning specialist for the Student Athlete Academic Advising & Support Center. The Columbus, Ohio, native is responsible for working closely with students who have a variety of learning styles and creating effective learning strategies to foster their academic success.

Townsend previously served as the evening operations coordinator at Temple's Campus Recreation Department from August 2007 to November 2008. In 2006-07, Townsend was the assistant center director for Columbus Parks and Recreation prior to moving to Pennsylvania.

Townsend earned a bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in sports management from Urbana (Ohio) University in 2003. The Dean's List student and Scholar Athlete was also a member of the men's basketball team and served as team captain.

Following graduation, Townsend played semi-professional basketball for the American Basketball Association (ABA), before receiving his master's degree in education from Urbana in 2005.

Townsend has taught Temple's First Year Seminar to the university's newcomers since 2009. He has been a professional member of the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics (N4A) since 2009.

Townsend and his wife Alexis reside in Macungie, Pa.

Travis MANGER

Graduate Extern for Academics

Third Season • Temple '08

Travis Manger is in his third season with the program as graduate extern for academics.

A native of Newtown, Pa., he coordinates study hall and works with football student-athletes for any and all academic needs, including tutoring and advisement.

Manger played tight end for the Owls for two seasons as a Local 215 member. He earned his degree in journalism in 2008 and was cited on the Athletic Director's Honor Roll. Manger is pursuing a master's degree in exercise and sport psychology. He was a student assistant coach with the Owls from the spring of 2008 to the spring of 2009.

A 2004 graduate of Council Rock North HS, Manger passed for 3,445 yards and 23 TDs in two seasons to earn first-team Bucks County Courier Times and first-team All-Suburban One honors twice at quarterback. He also earned first-team honors from the Trentonian in 2003 after passing for 1,855 yards and 10 TDs and was named the team MVP as a senior. He played in the 2004 Bucks County Lions All-Star Game. His third cousin is former Major League pitcher and Ball Four author Jim Bouton.

James MANGIERO

Graduate Extern for Strength & Cond.

First Season • Hofstra '09

James Mangiero begins in his first season at Temple University as the graduate extern for strength and conditioning.

During the 2010 season, Mangiero was the tight ends' coach at Susquehanna University, guiding junior Matt Knouse to All-Centennial Conference Honorable Mention recognition.

A four-year center at Hofstra, Mangiero received his bachelor's degree in sociology in 2009. The Bloomington, Ind., native is pursuing a master's degree in liberal arts at Temple.

His father Dino was formerly an assistant football coach at Indiana University and also played in the NFL. Mangiero's two brothers— Danny (DT at Richmond) and Chris (center at Indiana)— also played collegiate football.

Nadia HARVIN

Admin. Specialist to Head Coach

26th Season • Temple '06

Nadia Harvin is in her 26th year at Temple, including 11 1/2 years in Football, and eight years as the Administrative Specialist for the Head Football Coach. She has worked with six head coaches, beginning with Bruce Arians.

She started her career at Temple as a temp for Associate Athletic Director Earl Cleghorn before becoming a fulltime employee in Paley Library catalog services. She has worked for Tuttleman Counseling Services, Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs, and the Office of Business Services.

Harvin earned her bachelor's degree in organizational studies from Temple in 2006.

Harvin and her husband Allen have a son Ramish Jordan.

Cathy BONGIOVI

Athletic Communications for Football

Fifth Season • Penn State '87

Cathy Bongiovi is in her fifth season as the associate director of athletic communications at Temple University. She serves as the primary media contact for the football team, making her one of just five women nationally to serve in that capacity on the Division I-A level at the time of her hire.

During her time at Temple, Bongiovi has worked with numerous National Football League (NFL) Draft picks, including DT Terrance Knighton (Jacksonville Jaguars), DT Muhammad Wilkerson (New York Jets), and DB Jaiquawn Jarrett (Philadelphia Eagles). Her marketing and promotional materials have helped propel collegiate athletics teams into the national limelight, as well as highlighting several athletes for prestigious national All-America honors and Heisman Trophy campaigns.

In 2009, Bongiovi advanced with the Owls to the EagleBank Bowl, just the third bowl appearance in school history. Temple finished with a 9-4 overall record and a MAC East championship.

Bongiovi returned to Philadelphia after six seasons at the University of Virginia where she served as the assistant media relations director. She worked with the football, women's basketball, and rowing teams. Bongiovi worked with NFL Draft picks QB Matt Schaub (Houston Texans), TE Heath Miller (Pittsburgh Steelers), OT D'Brickashaw Ferguson (New York Jets), and DE Chris Long (St. Louis Rams).

Prior to her stint at Virginia, Bongiovi spent four years at Penn State. In March 2000, Bongiovi advanced with Penn State to the NCAA Women's Final Four, making the prestigious trip for the third time in her career. She also handled publicity for the PSU women's soccer team which also advanced to the final four in the fall of 1999.

A 1987 Penn State graduate in broadcast journalism, Bongiovi joined her alma mater in the fall of 1997 after serving two years as the assistant director of communications at the Atlantic 10 Conference in Philadelphia.

Following graduation, Bongiovi spent three seasons as a member of the Philadelphia 76ers public relations staff. She then served as an athletic communications assistant at the University of Connecticut, where she handled all publicity for the women's basketball team during its inaugural Final Four appearance in March 1991.

In August 1991, Bongiovi was named the assistant sports information director with the University of Iowa women's athletic department, and two years later she was promoted to sports information director for the Hawkeyes' 12 varsity women's sports, including Final Four women's basketball and World Series softball.

A member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) and Female Athletic Media Relations Executives (FAME), Bongiovi has earned numerous citations from CoSIDA for excellence in publication design. In 2005, Bongiovi was named the Chair of the CoSIDA Publications Committee. She also served as a member of the NCAA Women's Final Four media coordination staff from 1997 to 2001.

Bongiovi is a distant cousin to musician and film star Jon Bon Jovi.

The 2010 Season Review

Temple football finished the 2010 campaign at 8-4 overall and 5-3 in the Mid-American Conference, under the direction of fifth-year head coach Al Golden.

Recording its first back-to-back winning seasons since 1978-79, Temple became bowl eligible for the second consecutive year for the first time in program history and just the fifth time in school history. However, despite a winning record, the Owls did not receive an at-large bowl invitation. TU was also shutout from a bowl in 1990 after posting a 7-4 record.

The 2010 squad won eight games for the second consecutive year and tied the school records for the most wins in two consecutive seasons (17) and three consecutive seasons (22). Playing just five true freshmen, the Owls also tied the school record with 10 consecutive wins at home at Lincoln Financial Field.

Individually, the Owls set the school record for rushing touchdowns in a game with four by Matt Brown at Army, while Brown and Bernard Pierce each rushed for more than 100 yards in the win at Buffalo.

Temple faced seven opponents that went onto postseason play—including 2009 FCS national champion Villanova— while out-scoring its opponents for the third consecutive season.

The Owls were well-represented in the All-Mid-American Conference honors. For the second consecutive year, a school record eight Temple Owls earned first-team All-MAC honors— DB Jaiquawn Jarrett, NT Elisha Joseph, OL Colin Madison, OL Darius Morris, RB Bernard Pierce, DE Adrian Robinson, TE Evan Rodriguez, and DT Muhammad Wilkerson— while RB Matt Brown and LB Elijah "Peanut" Joseph garnered second-team recognition. Senior WR Michael Campbell was a third-team selection. The 11 All-MAC honorees are the second-most for the Owls since joining the MAC in 2007. In 2009, Temple also had eight first-team honorees and a school record 15 All-MAC honorees overall.

A school record eight Temple Owls — TE Vaughn Charlton, DB Justin Gildea, DB Jaiquawn Jarrett, NT Elisha Joseph, PK Brandon McManus, WR Rod Streater, OL Martin Wallace, and OL Stephen Yuan— were named to the 2010 Philadelphia Inquirer Academic All-Area Football Team.

Joseph was TU's only repeat recipient. He also was honored in 2009. The eight honored Owls are the most since the Academic Team began in 2005. Temple's previous high was seven honorees in 2006.

Senior NT Elisha Joseph was named to the 2010 Academic All-Mid-American Conference Football Team. Earning Honorable Mention honors were senior TE Vaughn Charlton, sophomore OL Martin Wallace, and sophomore OL Stephen Yuan.

Juniors TE Evan Rodriguez and DT Muhammad Wilkerson were named 2010 Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Football Bowl Subdivision All-Stars, while senior Jaiquawn Jarrett was selected to play in the 2011 Under Armour Senior Bowl in Mobile, Ala. Jarrett became the seventh Temple Owl to participate in the prestigious bowl since 1972 and the first since RB Stacey Mack's appearance in 1998.

Predicted to finish first in the MAC's East Division and claim the 2010 MAC championship, the Owls started the 2010 season off with a bang with a perfect 3-0 record.

In the season opener, sophomore Brandon McManus connected on his career-high fourth field goal of the game, a 43-yarder with three seconds remaining, and Justin Gildea took a Villanova forward lateral into the end zone, to cap a Temple 31-24 come-from-behind win in the 2010 Mayor's Cup on a Friday evening at Lincoln Financial Field. The crowd of 32,193, the second largest to watch a Temple game at Lincoln Financial Field, was treated to a true nail-biter as the lead changed hands twice in the final two minutes. Junior QB Chester Stewart went 16-27-0 for a career-high 200 passing yards and a touchdown.

Six days later, McManus drilled the game-winning field goal to lead Temple to a thrilling 13-10 overtime win over visiting Central Michigan on a Thursday night at Lincoln Financial Field. McManus' 30-yard kick gave the Owls' their first overtime win in school history and moved Temple to 2-0 for the first time since 1981. Temple also snapped the defending MAC champion's 18-game win streak against East Division foes which dated back to the 2004 season. Junior CB Kee-Ayre Griffin intercepted Central Michigan QB Ryan Radcliffe's pass in the end zone to thwart the Chippewas overtime possession.

Heisman trophy candidate Bernard Pierce rushed for 169 yards and scored three touchdowns to lead Temple to a 30-16 win over visiting Connecticut at Lincoln Financial Field. With the win, the Owls opened the season at 3-0 for the first time since 1979 and set a new school record with their eighth straight home win at the stadium. It also marked the first win over a

BCS school since a 34-24 victory over Syracuse in 2004. The victory did not come easy for the Owls, as Temple trailed 16-14 with under 10 minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. Junior DE Adrian Robinson made the play of the day, stripping the ball and running down the right sideline for a 24-yard touchdown.

For the first time in three decades Temple held its own with Penn State, leading the #23/20 Nittany Lions for 37 minutes before falling 22-13 in front of 104,840 fans at Beaver Stadium. Bernard Pierce scored two first quarter touchdowns to give the Owls a 13-6 lead at the end of the quarter before leaving the game with an injury. The Temple defense played exceptionally well all afternoon, not allowing Penn State to find the end zone until the waning minutes of the game. Senior FS Jaiquawn Jarrett had game-high 11 tackles.

A 29-point comeback, capped by sophomore RB Matt Brown's career-high four touchdowns of the day, silenced a Homecoming crowd of 33,065 at Michie Stadium, as the Temple football team took down Army, 42-35. Brown had the first 200-yard game of his career and fourth 100-yard game. He had two TDs and 108 yards on seven carries in the first quarter alone. He finished the game with a career-high 226 yards and a school record and career-high four rushing TDs on a career-high 28 carries. Senior WR Michael Campbell scored a career-high two receiving touchdowns. He let the Owls with 124 yards on five receptions, while senior LB Elijah "Peanut" Joseph led TU with a career-high 12 tackles.

Next Temple traveled to West Division leader Northern Illinois. The Huskies claimed a 31-17 win over the Owls in the battle between the MAC preseason favorites. Matt Brown ran 25 yards to give Temple an early 7-0 lead. He also eclipsed 1,000 yards for his career in the game as he ended up with 93 yards on 13 carries. QB Chester Stewart went 13-of-27 for 148 yards and a touchdown. Jaiquawn Jarrett led all tacklers with a career-high 13 stops.

The Owls had to work hard for their Homecoming win. Ahead 14-6 at intermission, Bowling Green scored a TD to come within one as time expired. Senior CB Marquise Liverpool broke up a two-point conversion attempt in the end zone with no time on the clock to preserve a 28-27 Temple win over the Falcons in front of a Homecoming crowd of 23,045 fans at Lincoln Financial Field. Sophomore QB Mike Gerardi, who took over for Chester Stewart after a costly first quarter interception, saw the first action behind center of his Temple career, connected with junior WR Rod Streater on an 80-yard touchdown on the first play of his second possession. He finished 9-of-15 for 163 yards and two TDs. He followed with a 49-yard touchdown pass to junior TE Evan Rodriguez on the Owls' next possession. Bernard Pierce had his second 100-yard game of the season, finishing with 106 yards and a touchdown on 15 carries. DB Kee-ayre Griffin led the TU defense with a career-high 12 tackles, including 10 solo stops, the most by a Temple defender this season.

Temple showed how dominant a football team it can be when it clicks on all cylinders in a 42-0 rout of host Buffalo in front of 13,371 fans celebrating homecoming at UB Stadium. With the win, the Owls moved to 6-2 and became bowl eligible for the second straight season and fifth time in the program's history. Offensively the sophomore tandem of Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown both rushed for over 100 yards, marking the first time two TU running backs accomplished the feat in the same game since 1997. Mike Gerardi passed for 131 yards and three touchdowns in his first collegiate start. Junior DT Muhammad Wilkerson had a career-high 2.5 sacks.

Temple's defense posted consecutive shutouts for the first time since 1971, and the Owls offense scored 24 second-half points in a 30-0 victory over visiting Akron on Breast Cancer Awareness Day at Lincoln Financial Field. Temple also tied the school record with its 10th consecutive home win. The Owls also won 10 consecutive MAC wins at home, the best in league play. It was a total team effort on the defensive front with two players – DE Sean Daniels and CB Maurice Jones – contributing two sacks each. Three players – Daniels, Jones and LB Tahir Whitehead – had two tackles for loss. Whitehead also forced a key fumble, while SS Kevin Kroboth made his first interception of the season. Mike Gerardi ended the day with career highs in attempts (22), completions (15), and yards (209).

Mike Gerardi passed for 368 yards and two touchdowns and ran for another score in leading Temple to a 28-10 win over host Kent State in a key MAC battle at Dix Stadium. With the victory, Temple tied the school records for most wins in two consecutive seasons (17) and the most wins in three consecutive seasons (22). The last time the Owls won 17 games in consecutive seasons was in 1978-79 and in 1973-74. The last time TU won 22 games in three consecutive seasons was in 1977-78-79 and 1972-73-74. Gerardi, who looked like a three-year starter rather than a three-game one, set the Temple record for most passing yards by a first-year starter at quarterback. His 368 yards are the fourth-highest in Temple history. Senior WR Michael Campbell, who caught a 63-yard reception to the one yard-line to set up the Owls' third score, had a career-high 137 yards on five receptions. He also eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark for his career. Junior DT Muhammad Wilkerson led the Owl defense with six tackles, including a career-high three sacks for minus 21 yards.

In the home finale and perhaps the biggest game of the year, two key turnovers, coupled with two key injuries, proved to be too much to overcome as Temple fell to Ohio, 31-23, in a MAC East showdown on a Tuesday evening at Lincoln Financial Field. The game, televised nationally on ESPN2, was played in sloppy conditions due to a torrential rainstorm. The loss snapped a 10-game home win streak and eliminated the Owls from any chance of playing in the Mid-American Conference championship game. Bernard Pierce, who missed last year's game, was on the field for one play before leaving due to another injury. The Heisman hopeful broke the first play of the game for a 67-yard rush before pulling up lame before being tackled. Insult was added to the injury as the play was called back on a holding call. On the other side of the ball senior LB Peanut Joseph left the field, being carted off with 2:21 left in the half. Joseph, who was among 17 seniors playing in their final home game, was leading the Owl defense at the time with six solo tackles. With Pierce sidelined, the Temple running game was held to a mere 81 yards with sophomore RB Matt Brown accounting for 72 yards on 20 carries. Mike Gerardi went 28-of-42, career highs for completions and attempts, for for 311 yards and two touchdowns. Senior WR Michael Campbell had a career-high 11 receptions for 137 yards and two touchdowns.

The Miami RedHawks clinched a share of the MAC East title with a 23-3 win over the visiting Temple Owls on a Tuesday evening at Yager Stadium in a nationally televised conference showdown on ESPN2. Miami posted its fourth straight win, improving to 8-4 overall and 7-1 in league play, while the Owls dropped their second straight to fall to 8-4 overall and 5-3 in the MAC. Temple played the game without two of its top players, LB Elijah "Peanut" Joseph and RB Bernard Pierce. Joseph suffered a season-ending knee injury against Ohio, while Pierce was still out with a hamstring injury incurred in the same contest. Temple jumped out to an early 3-0 lead on a 23-yard Brandon McManus field goal.

On Sunday, Dec. 5, the Owls received disappointing news. Despite back-to-back winning seasons and an 8-4 overall record, they were not selected for a bowl. They would not become the first back-to-back bowl participants in school history.

A week later, coach Golden resigned to accept the head coaching position at the University of Miami. In five seasons on North Broad Street, he finished with a 27-34 overall record while breathing life back into the Temple football program.

For the second consecutive year, a school record eight Temple Owls earned first-team All-Mid-

Game Recaps

Game 1: Temple 31, Villanova 24

Sept. 3, 2010 — Lincoln Financial Field

Villanova	0	14	0	10	-	24
Temple	7	3	3	18	-	31

Sophomore Brandon McManus connected on his career-high fourth field goal of the game, a 43-yarder with three seconds remaining, and Justin Gildea took a Villanova forward lateral into the end zone to cap a Temple 31-24 come-from-behind win in the 2010 Mayor's Cup Friday evening at Lincoln Financial Field. The crowd of 32,193, the second largest to watch a Temple game at the Lincoln Financial Field, was treated to a true nail-biter as the lead changed hands twice in the final two minutes.

It looked like deja vu just two minutes earlier when Villanova PK Nick Yako drilled a 41-yard field goal to give the Wildcats a 24-22 lead with 2:17 to play. Yako had hit a game-winning 32-yard field goal in the first Mayor's Cup as time expired.

Temple QB Chester Stewart, who had career-highs in completions (16) and yards (200), was not done yet. The redshirt junior marched the Owls down to the Villanova 26 on 10 plays. Stewart hit his favorite target on the night, senior WR Michael Campbell, for 11 yards to open the drive. Following a Bernard Pierce first down run, Stewart scrambled for 13 yards to the Wildcat 34. He then hit Campbell again for three yards, and followed with a quick out to sophomore RB Matt Brown for five yards, stopping the clock with nine seconds remaining.

McManus, who had already connected on field goals of 53 (career high), 44 and 40 yards, calmly walked out on the field to attempt to win the game for the Owls. The snap, however, was high, but redshirt senior TE Vaughn Charlton pulled it down and set it perfectly for McManus, who drilled it through the uprights.

Villanova took the ensuing kickoff with three seconds remaining and proceeded to lateral it back and forth in hopes of a miracle play. On the second illegal forward lateral, Gildea intercepted it and ran it into the end zone to account for the final score.

Temple's defense was led by senior FS Jaiquawn Jarrett with a team-high seven tackles.

Pierce did not start, but finished with 75 yards on 20 carries.

Central Mich.	0	0	7	3	-0-	10
Temple	0	7	3	0	-3-	13

Sophomore Brandon McManus drilled a game-winning field goal for the second straight week to lead Temple to a thrilling 13-10 overtime win over visiting Central Michigan Thursday night at Lincoln Financial Field. McManus' 30-yard kick gave the Owls' their first overtime win in school history and moved Temple to 2-0 for the first time since 1981. Temple also snapped the defending Mid-American Conference champions 18-game win streak against East Division foes which dated back to the 2004 season.

Junior CB Kee-Ayre Griffin intercepted Central Michigan QB Ryan Radcliffe's pass in the end zone to thwart the Chippewas overtime possession. Griffin also forced a fumble on CMU's final drive at the end of the first half that enable Temple to go into the locker room leading 7-0.

McManus, who booted a career-high four field goals in TU's season-opening win over Villanova, had missed his first two field goal attempts in the game. He then was perfect from 31 yards out to give the Cherry and White a 10-7 lead with 2:17 remaining in the third quarter.

Sophomore RB Matt Brown did the bulk of the work on that go-ahead drive, including a 22-yard carry that put the ball on the CMU 42. Two plays later Brown, who ended the day with 48 yards on 16 carries, was stopped for no gain, but a face mask penalty moved the ball to the 15.

Brown was the featured back for most of the second half and overtime as sophomore Heisman hopeful Bernard Pierce left the game with a hand injury in the third quarter. Pierce accumulated 47 of his 57 yards in the first half, including the only score in the opening 30 minutes - a four-yard touchdown run with 1:33 remaining in the half. Pierce also had another touchdown run called back due to a penalty.

The Owls defense led the way, holding the MAC's top offense from 2009 in check. For the second straight week it was a team effort with no one player hitting double-figures in tackles. Red-shirt junior MLB Stephen Johnson, who on forced a fumble and intercepted a pass on consecutive first quarter plays, led the Owls with eight tackles. Junior DT Muhammad Wilkerson had two sacks, three tackles for loss of 24 yards and six total tackles.

QB Chester Stewart connected with Rod Streater on a 56-yard pass play, and ended with 16-of-22 passing for 151 yards.

Game 3: Temple 30, UConn 16

Sept. 18, 2010 — Lincoln Financial Field

UConn	3	3	10	0	-	16
Temple	0	7	7	16	-	30

Heisman trophy candidate Bernard Pierce rushed for 169 yards and scored three touchdowns to lead Temple to a 30-16 win over visiting Connecticut Saturday afternoon at Lincoln Financial Field. With the win, the Owls opened the season at 3-0 for the first time since 1979 and set a new school record with their eighth straight home win at the stadium. It also marked the first win over a BCS school since a 34-24 victory over Syracuse in 2004.

The victory did not come easy for the Owls, as Temple trailed 16-14 with under 10 minutes remaining in the fourth quarter. UConn RB Jordan Todman, who rushed for a career-high 192 yards on 26 carries, was stopped short on a third down play by senior LB Elijah Joseph. While Joseph, a Hartford, CT native, held Todman, junior DE Adrian Robinson made the play of the day, taking the ball out of Todman's hands and running down the right sideline for a 24-yard touchdown. The Owls two-point conversion attempt was unsuccessful, making the score 20-16 with 8:28 to play.

Temple's defense, which was strong for most of the game against the Huskie team projected as a Top 25 program by many preseason publications, forced a UConn punt four plays later, and senior PR Delano Green returned it 47 yards to the UConn 4.

Pierce, who rushed for 140 of his season-high 169 yards in the second half, ran it in from two yards out for his career-high tying third TD of the afternoon. That gave Temple a 27-16 lead with 5:54 remaining.

Again, the Owls defense shut down the Huskie offense, but Green fumbled the ensuing punt with UConn's Mike Lang recovering at the Temple 29.

For the third consecutive series the Cherry and White defense held UConn without a first down and Dave Teggart's 38-yard field goal attempt went wide left.

Pierce broke two long runs, first a 38-yarder to move the ball into Huskie territory and then a 37-yarder which fell one shy of the end zone. The Owls had to settle for a 32-yard field goal by sophomore Brandon McManus, his seventh of the season, to account for the final score.

Game 4: Penn State 22, Temple 13

Sept. 25, 2010 — Beaver Stadium

Temple	13	0	0	0	-	13
#23/20 PSU	6	3	6	7	-	22

For the first time in three decades Temple held its own with Penn State, leading the #23/20 Nittany Lions for 37 minutes before falling 22-13 in front of 104,840 fans at Beaver Stadium. Senior PK Collin Wagner made a career-high and school-record-tying five field goals, and senior RB Evan Royster rushed for a career-high 187 yards to propel PSU's come-from behind win.

It was the closest game in the series since then #11 Penn State toppled Temple, 27-25, in 1985. It also marked the first time Temple led at any point in a game against its in-state rivals during the Nittany Lions' Big Ten era (since 1993).

Penn State jumped out to a quick 3-0 lead on Wagner's first field goal from 45 yards out.

Bernard Pierce then scored two first quarter touchdowns – sandwiching another Wagner field goal - to give the Owls a 13-6 lead at the end of the quarter. The sophomore left the game with an injury in the third quarter.

The Temple defense played exceptional all afternoon, not allowing Penn State to find the end zone until the waning minutes of the game. Senior LB Elijah "Peanut" Joseph made the unit's first huge play, stripping Royster with junior DE Adrian Robinson recovering at the Penn State 28. That set up Pierce's first touchdown run, stunning the raucous home crowd.

Junior DB James Nixon then made the play of the day – on offense. The return specialist entered as a wide receiver and took a reverse down the right sideline for a 51-yard play to the Penn State four. Pierce went around the right end for his second touchdown. A bad snap on the point after conversion led to former QB Vaughn Charlton attempting a two-point conversion. Charlton's pass missed the mark, leaving the score 13-6 with 10 seconds to play in the opening quarter.

Junior LB Tahir Whitehead made the play on the defense to derail the Nittany Lions drive, sacking freshman QB Rob Bolden – his first sack of the season – and forcing a fumble that resulted in a 19-yard loss to the Temple 46. Bolden hit Garry Gilliam on a 19-yard reception on the next play, setting up a 42-yard field goal by Wagner that made it 13-9.

Senior NT Eli Joseph had a career high10 tackles.

Senior punter Jeff Wathne also had a superb game, punting seven times for a 44.7 yard average. He also had three inside the 20, including a 57-yarder that pinned Penn State at its own four yard-line.

Game 5: Temple 42, Army 35

Oct. 2, 2010 — Michie Stadium

Temple	13	0	8	21	-	42
Army	7	14	7	7	-	35

A 29-point comeback capped by sophomore RB Matt Brown's career-high third and fourth touchdowns of the day silenced a Homecoming crowd of 33,065 at Michie Stadium, as the Temple football team took down Army, 42-35. It was a career day for Brown, who also ran for a personal-best 226 yards on 28 carries.

Brown became just the fourth Temple RB to rush for four scores in a single game. The last time an Owl met that mark was in 2003, when QB Walter Washington accomplished the feat against West Virginia. It also tied a Michie Stadium record originally set by Tony Dorsett in 1975.

The game began much the way Temple did not anticipate. The opening kickoff was returned 23-yards by TU junior WR James Nixon, but a forced fumble by Army senior L.B. Brown at the end of the play gave the Black Knights promising field position on the Owls' 27 yard line. Army found the end zone four plays later thanks to a 19-yard scamper and two-yard touchdown run from sophomore QB Trent Steelman.

Brown, who ran for 108 yards and two touchdowns in the first quarter alone, was the workhorse on the ensuing possession as he rushed four times for 55 yards. A clutch third down conversion on a 16-yard pass from r-junior QB Chester Stewart (7-16, 127 yds, 1 TD) to senior WR Michael Campbell kept the drive alive, leading to a three-yard dive for Brown. A botched snap on the extra point try left the lead still in Army's hands at 7-6.

The Owls got the ball back with good field position after a 50-yard field goal attempt from junior K Alex Carlton went wide left.

Five plays - three of which were for seven yards - brought Temple to its 49 yard line. Brown eclipsed the century-mark on the next play, ripping off a 42-yard run to the right for his second touchdown of the game. A successfully converted extra point attempt gave the Owls a 13-7 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Army answered to retake the lead on the continuation of its first quarter drive nine minutes into the second. Making their way down the field on all but one rushing play, the Black Knights' Steelman dove to the goal line on a seven yard run to regain the lead at 14-13.

Game 6: No. Illinois 31, Temple 17

Oct. 9, 2010 — Huskie Stadium

Temple	7	10	0	0	-	17
NIU	7	10	7	7	-	31

Redshirt junior QB Chandler Harnish passed for 211 yards and two touchdowns, and senior RB Chad Spann rushed 24 times for 100 yards and a score to lead host Northern Illinois to a 31-17 win over Temple in a battle of the Mid-American Conference preseason favorites at Huskie Stadium.

Harnish completed 20 of 25 passes while also rushing for 65 yards on 12 carries. Spann, the conference's leading rusher (114.5 ypg.), reached the century mark for the third time this season.

The first half was all about offense as neither team would punt in the opening 30 minutes. Senior FS Jaiquawn Jarrett drilled Spann forcing a fumble that was recovered by senior CB Marquise Liverpool. Jarrett led all tacklers with a career-high 13 stops.

Two plays later, sophomore RB Matt Brown ran 25 yards around right end to paydirt, to give Temple an early 7-0 lead. It was Brown's sixth rushing TD of the season, tops on the team. He also would eclipse 1000 yards for his career in the game as he ended up with 93 yards on 13 carries.

NIU answered right back as Harnish led the Huskies down the field. Harnish completed all seven of his passes for 55 yards in the 15-play drive that was capped when Akeem Daniels scored from nine-yards out to tie the game.

The Owls regained the lead as Stewart led TU down the field on its own 15-play drive. Following consecutive first down runs, first a 12 –yard reverse by James Nixon and then and 11-yarder by Brown, the Owls drive stalled in the red zone. Sophomore Brandon McManus converted a 33-yard field goal to put the Owls in front, 10-7.

Harnish again went to work for NIU, engineering an 18-play drive that ended with a Michael Cklamovski 28-yard field goal.

Brown returned the kickoff 55 yards, a career best.

Following a Brown seven-yard run, Stewart hit a streaking TE Evan Rodriguez down the right sideline for a 31-yard touchdown to make it 17-10.

After a first half dominated by both offenses ended with a 17-17 tie, the Owls were unable to keep it going in the final 30 minutes.

Game 7: Temple 28, Bowling Green 27

Oct. 16, 2010 — Lincoln Financial Field

Bowling Gr.	6	0	8	13	-	27
Temple	0	14	14	0	-	28

Senior CB Marquise Liverpool broke up a two-point conversion attempt in the end zone with no time on the clock to preserve a 28-27 Temple win over visiting Bowling Green in front of a Homecoming crowd of 23,045 fans at Lincoln Financial Field.

The dramatic ending was set up when junior WR Kamer Jorden hauled in a hail-mary pass from r-freshman QB Matt Schliz at the four yard-line on a fourth-and-16 play from the Temple 33 with 11 seconds remaining. Two plays later Schliz found Calvin Wiley in the back of the end zone for the touchdown that brought the Falcons to within one as time expired.

Bowling Green coach Dave Clawson then elected to go for the win on the road instead of kicking the extra point to send the game into overtime. Liverpool, who leads the team with five breakups, then made the play of the day, breaking up the pass intended for Wiley in the end zone to salvage the win for Temple.

The Owls seemed to have the game under control midway after scoring two touchdowns in the final six minutes of the third quarter to take a 28-14 lead.

After Bowling Green had tied the game at 14, Temple caught a break on a bad snap on a punt attempt by Bryan White. White recovered the snap near his goal line, but junior James Nixon forced a fumble and junior LB Quinten White, Jr. fell on it in the end zone to put the Cherry and White ahead 21-14.

On the Owls' next possession it was all Bernard Pierce. The Heisman Trophy hopeful looked back to his old form, carrying the ball six times for 62 yards on the drive, the last going for six yards and a touchdown. Pierce rushed 15 times for 106 yards on the day.

Game 8: Temple 42, Buffalo 0

Oct. 23, 2010 — UB Stadium

Temple	21	7	7	7	-	42
Buffalo	0	0	0	0	-	0

Temple showed how dominant a football team it can be when it clicks on all cylinders in a 42-0 rout of host Buffalo in front of 13,371 fans celebrating homecoming at UB Stadium Saturday afternoon. With the win, the Owls move to 6-2, 3-1 in Mid-American Conference play, and became Bowl eligible for the second straight season and fifth time in the program's history.

Offensively the Owls sophomore tandem of Bernard Pierce (23 rushes, 106 yds) and Matt Brown (20, 109 yds) both rushed for over 100 yards, marking the first time two TU running backs accomplished the feat in the same game since Stacey Mack (164) and Elmarko Jackson (101) did it against Rutgers in 1997.

R-sophomore QB Mike Gerardi passed for 131 yards and three touchdowns in his first collegiate start. He also led Temple, which entered the game last in the MAC in third down conversion percentage (29.1%), to seven of 11 conversions while in the contest.

Defensively, Temple forced four turnovers while holding Buffalo to a mere 99 yards on 65 plays in posting its first shutout since a 35-0 blanking of Boston University at Hershey Stadium on September 5, 1992. It was the first shutout of a BCS opponent since a 17-0 win at East Carolina on Sept. 8, 1984. Individually, senior LB Peanut Joseph, senior DB Jaiquawn Jarrett, and sophomore DB Maurice Jones all had interceptions, while junior DB Kee-ayre Griffin recovered a fumble. Junior DT Muhammad Wilkerson also made a career-high 2.5 sacks.

The last time these teams met at UB Stadium the game was decided on the last play, a Hail Mary pass that gave Buffalo a 30-28 win. This time, the contest was decided on the first play as freshman DB Tomas Cabrera, making the first appearance of his career, forced a fumble on the opening kickoff that was recovered by Griffin at the Buffalo 23. Under the direction of Gerardi, the Owls took just six plays, all rushes, before Pierce found paydirt from two yards out to make it 7-0. Gerardi made the big play on the drive, cutting inside on an option for a seven-yard rush on a third-and-six play from the nine.

The only thing remaining was to see if the defense could hold on for the shutout. Buffalo had its best chance to tack on points when Terrel Jackson returned a Brandon McManus punt 58 yards to the TU 12 before being hauled down by Marcus Green. The defense held strong, and forced the Bulls to turn it over on downs for the fourth time in the contest.

Game 9: Temple 30, Akron 0

Oct. 30, 2010 — Lincoln Financial Field

Akron	0	0	0	0	-	0
Temple	3	3	10	14	-	30

Temple's defense posted consecutive shutouts for the first time since 1971, and the Owls offense scored 24 second half points in a 30-0 victory over visiting Akron on Breast Cancer Awareness Day at Lincoln Financial Field.

Temple tied its school record with its 10th consecutive home win. The Owls have also won 10 consecutive MAC wins at home, the best in league play, and their 13-2 home record in league play since joining the conference in 2007 is also the best in the MAC.

It was a total team effort on the defensive front with two players – DE Sean Daniels and CB Maurice Jones – contributing two sacks each. Three players – Daniels, Jones and LB Tahir Whitehead – had two tackles for loss. Whitehead also forced a key fumble while SS Kevin Kroboth made his first interception of the season.

The Cherry and White held the Zips to just 154 yards of total offense, including a mere 28 yards on 20 carries. Akron only had the ball across midfield twice, and one came on a Temple fumble. Temple also limited Akron to eight first downs. The total offense and first downs for an opponent were season bests for the Owl defense.

Temple had trouble getting its offense in gear against winless Akron. The Zips, who entered play allowing 40.1 points per game, limited the Cherry and White offense to just two Brandon McManus field goals in the first half in trailing 6-0 at intermission.

Making his second straight start, r-sophomore QB Mike Gerardi used his arm to set up both Owl field goals. In his second drive of the game, Gerardi connected with Michael Campbell on a 35-yard pass play to move the chains to the TU 40. The southpaw signal-caller added first down passes to tight ends Matt Balasavage and Alex Jackson, the latter giving the Owls a first and goal at the nine.

After settling for field goals in the first half, Gerardi found Jackson in the back of the end zone for a 10-yard TD.

Temple tacked on two more touchdowns, both in the fourth quarter, to break open the contest. First Gerardi led the Owls on a 64-yard, six play drive, hitting Streater on consecutive short passes, and then following a 20-yard Pierce run, Streater picked up his first rushing touchdown, a 24-yard reverse that made it 23-0 with 9:03 remaining.

On the Owls' next possession, Pierce capped a nine-play drive with an eight-yard gallop for the final points.

Gerardi ended the day with career highs in attempts (22), completions (15) and yards (209). Streater made a career high five catches while also adding a career best 46 yards on three rushes.

Game 10: Temple 28, Kent State 10

Nov. 6, 2010 — Dix Stadium

Temple	0	14	7	7	-	28
Kent State	3	0	0	7	-	10

Redshirt sophomore QB Mike Gerardi passed for 368 yards and two touchdowns and ran for another score in leading Temple to a 28-10 win over host Kent State in a key Mid-American Conference battle at Dix Stadium.

With the victory, Temple tied the school records for most wins in two consecutive seasons (17) and the most wins in three consecutive seasons (22). The last time the Owls won 17 games in consecutive seasons was in 1978-79 and in 1973-74. The last time TU won 22 games in three consecutive seasons was in 1977-78-79 and 1972-73-74.

Gerardi, who looked like a three-year starter rather than a three-game one, set the Temple record for most passing yards by a first-year starter at quarterback. His 368 yards are the fourth-highest in Temple history.

Senior WR Michael Campbell, who caught a 63-yard reception to the one yard-line to set up the Owls' third score, had a career-high 137 yards on five receptions. He also eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark for his career.

Junior DT Muhammad Wilkerson led the Owl defense with six tackles, including a career-high three sacks.

The Owls looked sluggish to start the game against the nation's top-ranked rush defense. Temple was able to amass only four yards on the ground in the opening 15 minutes and was forced to punt on each of its first two possessions. Senior Jeff Wathne's first punt was blocked by Sam Kirkland which set up a Freddy Cortez 32-yard field goal. It marked the first points given up by Temple and gave the Golden Flash a short-lived 3-0 lead.

Gerardi was the Owls' main spark in the first quarter, passing for 91 yards in the frame. He used his legs in the opening of the second quarter, diving in from nine yards out for his first career touchdown to cap a 14-play, 80-yard drive to put Temple ahead, 7-3. On that drive, Gerardi overcame a 1st and 30, following consecutive holding calls, with passes to junior WR Rod Streater (23 yds) and redshirt junior TE Evan Rodriguez (10 yds).

On the ensuing kickoff, freshman WR Tomas Cabrera then made his second forced fumble on a kickoff return, stripping Kirkland with the ball being recovered by Temple PK Brandon McManus at the Kent State 26.

This time it took Gerardi just five plays to find Streater in the back of the end zone for a 14-3 lead with 9:53 remaining in the half.

2010 Season Review

Game 11: Ohio 31, Temple 23

Nov. 16, 2010 — Lincoln Financial Field

Ohio	7	10	0	14	-	31
Temple	0	10	0	13	-	23

Two key turnovers, coupled with two key injuries, proved to be too much to overcome for Temple as Ohio defeated the Owls 31-23 in a MAC East showdown Tuesday evening at Lincoln Financial Field. The game, televised nationally on ESPN2, was played in sloppy conditions due to a torrential rainstorm.

The loss snapped a 10-game home win streak and eliminated the Owls (8-3, 5-2) from any chance of playing in the Mid-American Conference championship game.

Sophomore RB Bernard Pierce, who missed last year's game, was on the field for one play before leaving due to another injury. The Heisman hopeful broke the first play of the game for a 67-yard rush before pulling up lame before being tackled. Insult was added to the injury as the play was called back to a holding call.

On the other side of the ball senior MLB Peanut Joseph would leave the field, being carted off with 2:21 left in the half. Joseph, who was among 17 seniors playing in their final home game, was leading the Owl defense at the time with six solo tackles.

With Pierce sidelined, the Temple running game was held to a mere 81 yards with sophomore RB Matt Brown accounting for 72 yards on 20 carries.

However it was turnovers that proved costly for the Owls. Ohio CB Tavis Carrie stripped senior WR Michael Campbell at midfield on the Owls' second drive, and senior DE Dak Noteestine recovered for the visitors at the Temple 47.

Ohio QB Boo Jackson made a big third down and 16 completion, hitting WR Terrence McCrae on a 33-yard pass play to the Temple four. Two plays later RB Vince Davidson plowed in from five yards out to make it 7-0 Ohio.

Temple evened the score at the start of the second quarter. Sophomore QB Mike Gerardi hit junior WR Rod Streater for 22 and 19 yards, the last giving the Owls a first and goal on the one. Brown then bullied his way in for the tying score.

Jackson then answered with his arm, finding a wide-open Riley Dunlop in the end zone for a 16-yard touchdown.

Sophomore PK Brandon McManus cut the margin to 14-10 on the next possession with a 45-yard field goal.

Neither team was able to mount much offense the rest of the third quarter as the conditions continued to deteriorate.

Game 12: Miami [OH] 23, Temple 3

Nov. 23, 2010 — Yager Stadium

Temple	3	0	0	0	-	3
Miami	6	7	3	7	-	23

The Miami RedHawks clinched a share of the Mid-American Conference East title with a 23-3 win over the visiting Temple Owls Tuesday evening at Yager Stadium in a nationally televised conference showdown on ESPN2.

Temple played the game without two of its top players, senior MLB Elijah "Peanut" Joseph and sophomore RB Bernard Pierce, who suffered injuries against Ohio.

The Owls were not able to mount anything offensively, accumulating just 201 total yards while turning the ball over four times. Temple was only able to amass 55 yards ad four first downs after intermission as the Miami defense turned up its intensity in the second half.

The Cherry and White defense allowed 408 yards with 96 coming on a fourth quarter touchdown gallop by senior Thomas Merriweather to account for the final points in the contest with 9:08 remaining.

Besides Merriweather, who rushed for a career-high 182 yards on 22 carries, redshirt freshman QB Austin Boucher had a solid game in his second start in place of the injured Zac Dysert. Boucher completed 15 of 28 passes for 155 yards and two touchdowns.

Redshirt sophomore QB Mike Gerardi, the recipient of those sacks, struggled all night. He completed 11 of 27 passes for 108 yards and two interceptions. Sophomore RB Matt Brown accounted for 56 yards on 14 carries while junior WR Rod Streater had 76 total yards (43 receiving, 33 rushing).

Temple jumped out to an early 3-0 lead on a 23-yard Brandon McManus field goal.

Miami immediately answered as Boucher connected with classmate Nick Harwell on a 34-yard touchdown. Harwell caught the ball at the 20, then made a nifty cut back outside to paydirt. senior PK Trevor Cook, however, failed on the extra point, making the score 6-3 in the RedHawks' favor.

That would be all of the scoring until late in the second quarter. Harris picked off Gerardi at midfield and returned it to the Temple 31. Boucher then hit Armand Robinson on two successive pass, the second for an eight-yard TD to give MU a 13-3 lead with 1:39 remaining in the half.

Junior OLB Tahir Whitehead thwarted Miami's first drive of the second half with his first career interception, but the Owls ended up turning the ball over on downs wen their drive stalled deep in RedHawk territory.

A Look Back at Temple Football [1894-2010]

Grover Wearshing & Head Coach Henry Miller

The Early Years

The Temple University football program will play its 113th season in 2011. For more than 35 years, the Owls have been the only major college football team in the Philadelphia region. That was not the case at the turn of the century.

Football at Temple first planted its roots in 1894, a decade after Russell Conwell founded the night school on North Broad Street. Nearly every college in and around Philadelphia had some sort of football squad at that time, though it may be a stretch to call them organized. The serious football powers of the east included Pennsylvania, Princeton, Harvard and Yale.

Temple's 11-man squad was technically a part of the school's Physical Education Department. The 1894 team was organized by physical education instructor Charles M. Williams, who also coached the basketball team. The Owls won their first game that fall against Philadelphia Dental College, 14-6.

There is almost no record of the first two decades of Temple football. The games were rarely reported in the newspapers, and the opposition usually consisted of small schools such as Pratt Institute or Pennsylvania Military College (now Widener University). After the turn of the century, the Owls began playing regularly against city schools La Salle and Saint Joseph's.

The school mascot had already been established though, along with the school colors—Cherry and White. For many years, the football team had no official home field. Eventually it settled into Vernon Park, a spacious green located on the city limits beyond Germantown.

The most notable person associated with the Temple football program prior to World War I was Elwood Geiges, who was supposed to coach the varsity team in 1917. But the Owls forfeited every regular game on the schedule that season because of the war. Late that fall, the varsity squad matched up with the freshman squad in a game to benefit the war effort. The contest finished in a 6-6 tie.

Geiges began his career as a college football official the following season. He officiated games for 27 years, advancing to the head of the profession. Geiges is credited with inventing the signals for holding, offsides, illegal shift and timeout. He was elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1984.

The Temple football program was administered by the Physical Education Department until well into the 20th century. For many years, the department was headed by Dr. Charles Prohaska, who was largely responsible for the expansion of the intercollegiate athletic program following World War I.

The Owls did not field a varsity football team between 1918 and 1921 due to the war. In the years that followed, Temple grew to have the second largest enrollment in the Philadelphia area. University President Charles F. Beury made a strong commitment at that time to greater success in intercollegiate athletics.

The Modern Era

What might be called the modern era of Temple football began in 1925 with the hiring of Henry J. Miller as head coach. "Heinie" Miller had been a star player at Penn, earning All-America honors in 1917. His much-hailed arrival promised great success against a much tougher level of competition.

Miller's Owls did well in 1925 and 1926, compiling a record of 10-5-2, the best two-year stretch in the school's short history. Things were about to get much better. Several outstanding players joined the roster in 1927, including future Temple Hall of Famers Tucker "Swede" Hanson, Grover Wearshing and Jack Bonner.

The Owls opened the season with a home game against Blue Ridge College, a small school located in New Windsor, Md. The mismatch was apparent from the opening kickoff. Temple held a 27-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, and then scored eight touchdowns in the second quarter to establish a 78-0 lead at the half. Unable to move the ball on offense, Blue Ridge actually began punting on first down. The coaches agreed at halftime to shorten the third quarter to eight minutes and later shortened the fourth quarter to six minutes. By the end of the game, three Temple players had switched jerseys to fill in for Blue Ridge. The Owls won by a final score of 110-0. Hanson scored five touchdowns and Wearshing scored three.

Franklin Field, November 19, 1927:
The first game of a 44-year series between the schools and the battle for the "Old Shoe" trophy (right).

Several other one-sided results from the 1927 campaign, against Juniata (58-0), Gallaudet (62-0) and Washington College (75-0), indicated that the Owls were ready for a new level of competition. That competition came from Dartmouth, Brown and Bucknell.

Temple finished 7-1 that season, losing only to Dartmouth, while posting notable victories against Brown (7-0) and Bucknell (19-13). The Bucknell game marked the beginning of a long rivalry with the school located in Lewisburg, Pa. The Owls and the Bison played every year for the next 44 years, often in the last game of the season. Some years later, "The Old Shoe" was dedicated as a prize for the winner of the Temple-Bucknell contest. The bronze statue of a football shoe was awarded to the winning school, which held it until the following year's game.

The 1927 season finale against Bucknell was played at Franklin Field, marking Temple's first appearance on the home field of the Pennsylvania Quakers. The Owls would not need to borrow the facility the following season.

In December of 1927, President Beury announced that the University had received a gift of $100,000 from Philadelphia land developer Charles G. Erny for the construction of a football stadium at Vernon Park. The stadium was to seat between 20,000 and 25,000 and was to be completed in time for the 1928 football season.

Temple Stadium was first referred to as Beury Stadium, and for many years was known as Owl Stadium. The structure was designed by Philadelphia architect Clarence E. Wunder and was built by Erny's development firm. The total cost of construction was $350,000, with a seating capacity of 34,200, including mobile field seats.

The Owls made their debut in the new stadium on Sept. 29, 1928, against St. Thomas College of Scranton. Team captain Howard "Barney" Gugel made it a successful debut, scoring on a 66-yard fumble recovery and a 38-yard interception return for a 12-0 Temple victory witnessed by 10,000 fans.

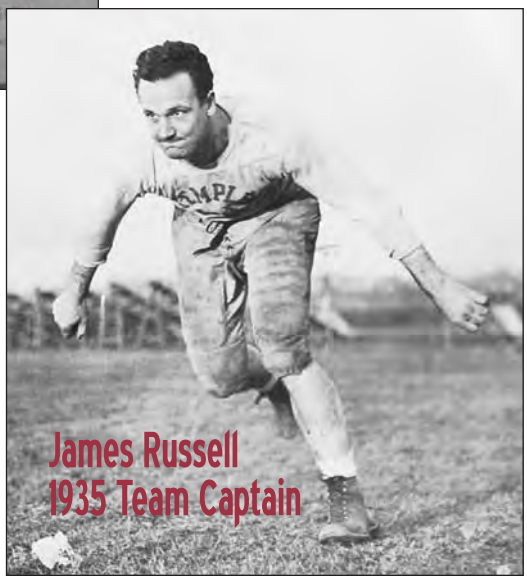
The stadium's official dedication game came two weeks later against Eastern power Western Maryland. The Owls won that game, 7-0, thanks to a touchdown pass from Wearshing to Hanson. The contest drew 25,000 fans, including several dignitaries from the city of Philadelphia.

The 1928 campaign was another great success, as the Owls finished 7-1-2, losing only to Schuylkill College and posting ties against Bucknell and Villanova. Temple was dominant in the new stadium, winning its first six games by shutout. The only team to score against the Owls was Washington College, which managed a single touchdown in a 73-7 rout. Wearshing and Hanson scored three times apiece in that contest.

The battle against Villanova—a scoreless tie—also marked the beginning of a long rivalry (though the teams had played one another in 1908). The Owls and the Wildcats were both developing strong national reputations, and this was the big game on their schedules for the next 15 years.

Miller continued to field successful teams through the Depression Era, tutoring a new set of future Hall of Famers in Hank Reese, Tony Dougal and Leon Whittock. All three played key roles in 1931, another milestone year for the program.

The Owls finished with a record of 8-1-1 that season, setting a school record for wins that stood for 42 years. Along the way, Temple recorded a 12-0 victory over developing regional power Penn State. It was considered the school's most notable victory to date. The Owls also scored their first-ever victory over Villanova by the score of 13-7. Reese had an 80-yard interception return for a touchdown and Cornelius Bonner scored on a five-yard run to secure the victory. The Wildcats were coached by Harry Stuhldreher, who had gained fame as one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."



Temple closed the 1931 campaign with its first extended road trip, traveling by train across the Midwest and the Plains to face Denver College and the University of Missouri. The Owls built their national reputation with an 18-0 victory over Denver and a 38-6 triumph over Missouri.

By this time, the University's athletic programs had grown out of their Physical Education Department beginnings. The Owls were administered by Earl Yeomans, Graduate Manager of Athletics, who had replaced James R. Clovis in that position in the mid-1920s. Yeomans would oversee the athletic programs at Temple until 1952. College football continued to grow by leaps and bounds despite the Depression.

The 1930s saw the establishment of several bowl games and the first Associated Press national poll to determine the best teams in the country. The Temple football program continued to grow as well, making a huge national splash with the hiring of college coaching legend Glenn S. Warner.

The Pop Warner Years

"Pop" Warner was one of football's great innovators. He pioneered the use of several offensive formations (the single wing, the double wing, the unbalanced line) while building powerful programs at Pittsburgh and Stanford. After carrying his legend from the East Coast to the West Coast, Warner was lured away from Stanford by Temple in December 1932.

"The Old Fox"—another one of Warner's many nicknames—had a successful 1933 debut at Owl Stadium against South Carolina, a dangerous opponent from the south. Edward Zukas had an 80-yard punt return for a touchdown in the first quarter to send the Owls on their way to a 26-6 triumph.

Another round of Hall of Famers took their place under Warner's guidance, most notably Pete Stevens, Dave Smukler, Stan Grayson and Chet Messervey. Stevens joined the team in 1933 and was named team captain in 1934. Smukler was a game-breaking running back who made an immediate impact on the team in 1934.

The Owls won their first two games that season against Virginia Tech (34-0) and Texas A&M (40-6). After a 6-6 tie against Indiana, Warner's squad won five straight against tough competition that included West Virginia, Holy Cross and Carnegie Tech. Temple finished the run with a 22-0 rout of Villanova, and then played Bucknell to a scoreless tie in the regular season finale.

The 1934 backfield quartet of Smukler, quarterback Glenn Frey and running backs Danny Testa and Wilfred H. Longsderff was one of the best in the nation. Their exploits (and the team's 7-0-2 record) drew the attention of the Mid-Winter Sports Association of New Orleans, which was busy planning the first Sugar Bowl. Warner's Owls were invited to play unbeaten Tulane in that contest on Jan. 1, 1935.

Smukler was a one-man show in the first half of the Sugar Bowl, tossing a touchdown pass to Danny Testa and running the ball in for another score. He also converted both extra points to give the Owls a 14-0 lead. Tulane responded to the second touchdown with a huge play from its star, Claude "Monk" Simons, who took a lateral on the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown. The Green Wave knotted the score at 14-14 in the third quarter and it seemed for a while that the game would end in a tie. With less than three minutes remaining, though, Tulane scored on a pass that had been deflected by a Temple defender. The Owls blocked the extra point and mounted one last offensive drive, but they could not put the ball in the end zone. They lost, 20-14.

Warner guided the Temple program for the next four years against the nation's toughest competition. The Owls beat tough southern schools Texas A&M and Vanderbilt in 1935 and began a series of games against Michigan State. The 1938 squad played three teams that finished the season in the nation's Top 10 (Pittsburgh, Holy Cross and eventual national champion, Texas Christian).

Head Coach Glenn "Pop" Warner

Temple was a heavy underdog in what would turn out to be Warner's finale, a contest at Florida on Dec. 3, 1938. Florida was coached by Josh Cody, who was just a couple years away from beginning a 15-year career at Temple. Playing in 80-degree heat, the Owls upset the Gators, 20-12, thanks in large part to a 102-yard kickoff return by Jimmy Powers. After missing the entire 1939 season due to injury, Powers returned the opening kickoff against Michigan State 105 yards for a touchdown in 1940. The returns remain the two longest plays in Temple football history.

The careers and accomplishments of 50 distinguished Temple players and coaches have been recognized by their induction into the Hall of Fame.

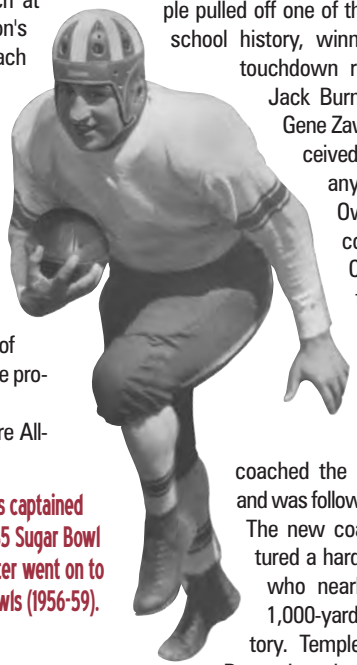
The Post-Warner Years

Warner's top assistant, Fred H. Swan, took over as head coach in 1939. His tenure may have been doomed from the start. The Owls lost his debut game against Georgetown, 3-2, on a field goal with 25 seconds to go. The field goal had been preceded by a controversial pass interference penalty against the Owls.

The following season, Temple hired Ray Morrison as head coach. Morrison had gained fame as an All-American player at Vanderbilt and head coach at Southern Methodist University. One of Morrison's top assistants was Josh Cody. The new coach promised a wide-open offensive attack that he had developed in the south.

The high-scoring offense was on display in the first game of the 1940 season, a 64-7 victory over Muhlenberg. The Owls jumped to a 45-0 halftime lead in the contest and never looked back. Running back "Handy" Andy Tomasic had a 73-yard touchdown run. Tomasic, nicknamed "The Hokendauqua Hurricane" for his hometown near Allentown, Pa., was one of several Temple Hall of Famers that maintained the program's level of national success in the 1940s.

Tackles Chuck Drulis and Bucko Kilroy were All-East selections and Kilroy was Temple's first Honorable Mention All-American. Running back Phil Slosburg was an All-East pick and was chosen to play in the Blue-Gray All-Star Game. Other stars for the Cherry and White included Mike Jarmoluk, Joe Nejman and John Rogers.



Pete Stevens captained Temple's 1935 Sugar Bowl team and later went on to coach the Owls (1956-59).

The Owls fielded particularly strong teams in 1941 and 1945. The team got off to a 6-1 start in 1941, beating rivals Penn State, Bucknell and Villanova. That marks the only time in school history that all three foes were beaten in the same season. Hopes for a bowl bid were dashed though, with a 46-0 loss at Michigan State in the next-to-last game of the season. The following week, the Owls were heavy underdogs on a trip to Eastern power Holy Cross. They responded with a 31-13 upset victory to finish the season at 7-2.

The 1945 campaign held similar promise as Temple defeated Eastern powers Syracuse (7-6) and Pittsburgh (6-0) on the way to a 6-0 start. The Owls were among the favorites to receive an Orange Bowl bid until suffering a 27-0 loss at Penn State. History repeated itself with a visit to heavily favored Holy Cross the following week. Holy Cross was undefeated at the time and had become the Orange Bowl favorite. Temple pulled off one of the greatest upsets in school history, winning 14-6 thanks to touchdown runs by quarterback Jack Burns and running back Gene Zawolski. Holy Cross received the Orange Bowl bid anyway, though the Owls received strong consideration for the Cotton Bowl—partially thanks to Morrison's ties with SMU. Temple's 7-1 squad of 1945 ranks as one of its best ever.

Morrison coached the Owls through 1948, and was followed by Albert P. Kawal. The new coach's first team featured a hard-nosed running back who nearly became the first 1,000-yard rusher in school history. Temple Hall of Famer Bill Bernardo gained 994 yards on the ground in 1949, a school record that stood until 1973. The roster also included Hall of Famer Gavin White, who would later enjoy a successful coaching career and would serve as Temple's director of athletics in the 1980s.

Cody replaced Yeomans as Temple's athletic director in 1952, as the University was entering the first few years of an "administrative de-emphasis" of inter-

Tulane Stadium, New Orleans, La.
Tulane 20, Temple 14

The Mid-Winter Sports Association of New Orleans was formed in 1934 to formulate plans for an annual New Year's Day football classic. On Dec. 2, 1934, the Association's executive board selected Tulane (9-1), unbeaten in the South, and unbeaten Temple (7-0-2), coached by Glenn "Pop" Warner, to play in the first game.

The game was a financial and artistic success; however, the final 20–14 result was a heartbreaker for Temple fans. The Owls built up a 14-point lead only to see Tulane score touchdowns in the second, third, and fourth quarters to win the game.

The inaugural Sugar Bowl turned into a contest between two All-Americans—Temple's Dave Smukler (who played all 60 minutes) and Tulane's Claude "Monk" Simons. After the Owls' Danny Testa scored the first touchdown in Sugar Bowl history with a seven-yard TD reception from Smukler. Smukler rushed for second score. With Smukler converting both extra points, the Owls were up 14–0.

On the next kickoff, Johnny McDaniel received the ball and lateraled to Simons, who scampered 85 yards for a touchdown. The Owls held a 14-7 edge at halftime.

Dick Hardy scored the tying touchdown in the third quarter on an 11-yard pass from Bucky Bryan.

With less than three minutes left, Hardy notched the game-winning score on a 43-yard reception in the end zone. Temple blocked the extra point attempt, but was unable to score on its final drive. The hometown team would go on to win the first Sugar Bowl.

collegiate athletics. By the mid-1950s, the Owls were no longer playing a national schedule, replacing the likes of Michigan State and West Virginia with Lafayette and Gettysburg. Bucknell remained a yearly foe, though Villanova had been dropped from the schedule in 1944.

Kawal coached the Owls through 1954, and then Cody took over for the 1955 campaign. The Owls went 0-8 that season, their first winless mark since 1923, and Cody hired 1934 team captain Pete Stevens to coach the team in 1956. Stevens remains the only former Temple player to have coached the team in the modern era.

Temple went 3-5 in 1956 and opened the 1957 season with two losses. The Owls then beat Lafayette, 13-12, at Temple Stadium. They would not win another game for nearly three years. The Owls lost their final four games of the 1957 campaign and finished 0-8 in 1958 and 0-9 in 1959. The 21-game losing streak is the longest in school history.

Ernie Casale took over as Temple's athletic director in 1959. Years later, he recalled a 12-8 loss that season against Drexel that attracted just 200 fans on a rainy Halloween night in Philadelphia. The Owls had just 24 players in uniform for their 1959 season finale at Gettysburg.

"Handy" Andy Tomasic (lower left) established several Temple football records from 1939-41.

The following year brought a new head coach, George Makris, to North Broad Street. Makris had established a fine coaching reputation at Bolling Air Force Base in Washington, D.C. The 21-game losing streak came to an end in the 1960 season opener against Kings Point.

The Owls trailed 13-0 in the first half of the contest, but then started their comeback, eventually taking an 18-13 lead on Charlie Lotson's 86-yard interception return for a touchdown. Lotson later recovered a fumble that set up the game-clinching touchdown. Running back Ernie Wayland scored two touchdowns as the Cherry and White posted a 26-13 victory. Many of the 10,000 fans in attendance stormed the field and tore down the goalposts in celebration.

The Middle Atlantic Conference

Temple continued to re-establish itself in the 1960s, playing in the University Division of the Middle Atlantic States Conference. The other losing streak that had to be brought to an end was a long skid against conference rival Bucknell. While the Owls dominated the series from 1938 to 1949, compiling a record of 9-1-2 during that stretch, they had not beaten the Bison since 1953. The losing streak had reached eight by 1962.

The game was up for grabs that year. Bucknell took a 7-0 lead, but the Owls responded with a one-yard touchdown run by running back Bill Cosby (who would eventually gain greater fame). The Owls then jumped ahead, 14-7, on a 38-yard interception return for a touchdown by Joe Morelli. Late in the contest, Bucknell went ahead again, 15-14, scoring a TD and converting a two-point play. The Owls came back with a drive to the Bucknell one-yard line, but fumbled the ball away. Temple got one last chance on offense and advanced the ball deep into Bucknell territory. With 15 seconds left, the Owls lined up for a game-winning field goal attempt. It missed, and the Bison kept possession of "The Old Shoe."

Things got significantly better for the Cherry and White though, as the team posted a 5-3-1 mark in 1963, the school's first winning record since 1951. The Owls finished second in the league standings in 1964 and challenged for the Middle Atlantic title in 1965 and 1966. The 1966 campaign also brought "The Old Shoe" back to North Broad Street.

That season's battle with Bucknell was a blowout from the beginning. Temple held a 20-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, and it was 41-7 by halftime. Late in the first half, sophomore quarterback John Waller was substituted in place of starter Tom DeFelice.

Waller connected with wide receiver Jim Callahan for a couple of touchdowns, and then a couple more. Entering the fourth quarter, the Owls held a 75-14 lead and Waller had thrown five touchdowns, four of them to Callahan. One more Waller-to-Callahan TD pass set the school's single-game record for touchdown passes and receptions. The Owls won, 82-28, posting the second-highest point total in school history.

"The Old Shoe" stayed in Philadelphia the next season as the Owls beat Bucknell and every other Middle Atlantic Conference foe to win the 1967 league title. Another school record was broken against the Bison, this time as running back Mike Busch carried the ball a record 38 times for a record 176 yards in a 13-8 victory that clinched a tie for the league title. DeFelice guided the squad to a 45-27 victory over Gettysburg the following week to clinch the crown outright. Temple received strong consideration for the Tangerine Bowl that year but was not selected.

Records continued to fall in 1968, especially passing records, as Waller-to-Callahan became one of the most dangerous pass-and-catch duos in the country. Waller set school marks with 35 completions, 62 attempts and 440 yards passing in a 50-40 loss to Buffalo. He finished the year as the first 2,000-yard passer in Temple history and set just about every other single-season and career passing record for the Owls. Callahan's total of 14 TD receptions in 1968 went unmatched until 2008 [by Bruce Francis]. Amazingly, Callahan's first 10 receptions were all for TDs.

The Owls left the Middle Atlantic Conference after the 1969 season so they could return to playing a full Division I-A schedule. Makris was replaced by Wayne Hardin, a well-known coach who had had six successful seasons at Navy. Hardin's Midshipmen had beaten Army in five of their six meetings. His tenure on North Broad Street did not have such an auspicious beginning.

The Hardin Years

The opponent was Akron in the 1970 season opener. The Zips scored on their first three possessions and never looked back in a 21-0 victory over the Owls. Hardin's team bounced back the following week and beat Bucknell, 10-3, in the last meeting between the two schools. Temple now had possession of "The Old Shoe" for good. The winning ways continued through the 1970 campaign, though the Owls lost their season finale against Villanova, 31-26. It was the first meeting between the two teams since 1943, and it was closely contested from start to finish. Temple-Villanova was the closing game of the regular season every year from 1970 to 1980.

In 1974, QB Steve Joachim capped a brilliant two-year career by winning the Maxwell Award as college football's Player of the Year (left: pictured with Coach Wayne Hardin).

The Owls compiled a record of 18-9-1 during Hardin's first three years as head coach and rolled on from there. Temple beat Villanova, 12-10, in the 1972 season finale. Temple Hall of Fame kicker Nick Mike-Mayer booted two field goals and the game-clinching touchdown was set up on a fumble recovery by Bob Bernardo, the son of Temple Hall of Famer Bill Bernardo. Wide receiver Clint Graves set a school record in 1972 with 63 receptions, and he set the single-game mark with 15 catches against Rhode Island.

Hardin's first few teams featured several other stars, including quarterback Doug Shobert, an Honorable Mention All-American in 1971; tight end Randy Grossman, a Third Team All-American in 1972; and offensive guard Bill Singletary, a First Team All-American in 1972. Singletary is the only football player in Temple history to have his number (64) retired.

The Owls re-established themselves as one of the dominant programs in the East in 1973, finishing the season at 9-1 to set a school record for wins. The team won its final eight games of the season, including a 34-0 shutout of Villanova in which the defense forced 10 turnovers. Hardin's veer offense was almost impossible to stop, as the team surpassed the 30-point mark in eight of 10 games. The backfield tandem of Tom Sloan and Henry Hynoski keyed a powerful rushing attack, and the passing game was left in the capable hands of Steve Joachim. Sloan became the first 1,000-yard rusher in school history, finishing the year with 1,036 yards. Hynoski surpassed the 1,000-yard mark in 1974.

The Temple offense was just as tough to stop that season, and the defense was downright stingy. The Owls won their first six games of 1974, running their win streak to 14 games. It was the longest streak in the nation and it still stands as the longest in school history. In a nine-game stretch that spanned two seasons, Temple outscored its opponents, 361-58. The 14th victim of Hardin's Owls was Delaware, which battled hard before losing a 21-17 contest at Veterans Stadium. That marked Temple's first game at the South Philadelphia venue. The win streak was snapped the following week by Cincinnati, 22-20. The Owls finished the season with a record of 8-2, winning their finale against Villanova, 17-7, in another game played at The Vet.

The awards came piling in after the season. Joachim received numerous All-American honors, offensive guard Pat Staub was an All-East choice and defensive tackle Joe Klecko was an Honorable Mention All-American. The accolades culminated in Joachim being selected the Maxwell Award winner as National Player of the Year.

The 1975 season opener provided another milestone for the Owls, as the team faced Penn State for the first time since 1952. Running back Bob Harris shocked the Nittany Lions by breaking through the middle for a 76-yard touchdown on the first play from scrimmage. The up-and-back contest tilted toward the Owls in the fourth quarter when Anthony Anderson ran for a touchdown that gave Temple a 23-18 lead. But Penn State would score the last touchdown after a long punt return and win the game, 26-25.

The teams played another one-point game the following year at Veterans Stadium. Beginning in 1976, The Vet became the new home of the Temple football team. Early in the season, the stadium hosted the first meeting between Temple and Grambling, which was coached by the legendary Eddie Robinson. The Owls won the contest, 31-30. That score was reversed when Penn State returned to town in October. Temple scored on the last play of the game to make the score 31-30, and Hardin opted for a two-point conversion attempt to beat the Nittany Lions. The conversion attempt failed.

Klecko ranked as the top tackler in school history following the 1976 season. Another group of stars then arrived on campus that would eventually produce the most successful season in school history. Temple Hall of Famers Anthony Anderson and Steve Watson built toward that success in 1977 and 1978. The Owls wrapped up both years with a trip to Japan to play in the Mirage Bowl. Tokyo's Korakeun Stadium hosted Temple-Grambling in 1977 and Temple-Boston College in 1978. Running back Zachary Dixon set a single-season school rushing record in the BC game. He finished the year with 1,153 yards on the ground, and the Owls finished with a record of 7-3-1.

The 1979 Season

The 1979 campaign opened with three straight victories before Hardin's squad lost to Pittsburgh, 10-9. The Owls bounced back to rout Rutgers and Syracuse on the way to five straight wins. The 8-1 start had the Owls thinking about a postseason bowl bid in November. A loss to Penn State was followed by a 42-10 rout of Villanova, giving the team a record of 9-2 and securing a berth in the Garden State Bowl. Temple's offense was led by quarterback Brian Broomell, and his top receiving target was Gerald "Sweet Feet" Lucear, who set several records that year. The defense featured record-setting linebacker Steve Conjar, who had 163 tackles that season and surpassed that mark with 174 stops in 1980.

Wayne Hardin

The Garden State Bowl opponent was California and the matchup painted Temple as the defender of Eastern football. The Owls jumped on the Golden Bears for three touchdowns in the first quarter, with running back Kevin Duckett scoring a pair of touchdowns. California chipped away at the 21-0 lead in the second quarter, scoring a pair of touchdowns to make it 21-14 at the half. A field goal early in the fourth quarter cut the lead to 21-17. Broomell then led the Owls on a 14-play, 78-yard drive that culminated with a five-yard TD pass to Lucear. Significant credit for Temple's offensive success went to running back Mark Bright, who totaled 112 yards rushing on 19 carries. The Owls won the game, 28-17, and Bright was voted the game's Most Valuable Player. Temple's 10-2 finish to the 1979 season marks the highest single-season win total in school history.

Temple ended its most successful season with its first-ever bowl victory. It was the Owls' 10th win of the year (a team record) and earned Wayne Hardin's team a spot in the AP and UPI Top 20 as Temple was ranked 17th in both polls, the first time the Temple football team was nationally ranked in the final wire service polls. The Owls jumped out to a quick 21–0 lead in the first quarter and then withstood a 17-point California rally before clinching the game with a 14-play, 78-yard scoring drive in the fourth quarter. The telling statistic in this game was the rushing totals, with Temple gaining 300 yards on the ground while holding the Golden Bears to only 23.

The game's Most Valuable Player, Temple's Mark Bright, gained 112 of those yards on 19 carries while backfield teammate Kevin Duckett ran for 92 more and two touchdowns. Temple quarterback Brian Broomell joined in the act by tossing touchdown strikes to Wiley Pitts and Gerald Lucear.

Hardin coached the Owls through the 1982 season, compiling 80 wins in his 13 seasons on North Broad Street. He had the most wins and the longest tenure of any Temple football coach. Bruce Arians took over as head coach in 1983. Arians had been tutored by Alabama coaching legend Paul "Bear" Bryant.

Loranzo Square made 315 career tackles at Temple from 1986-89.

John Rienstra was introduced as part of the AP All-America team on Bob Hope's 1985 Christmas Special.

The 1980s and Bruce Arians

The Owls produced some notable wins and notable players in the 1980s. They beat Pittsburgh three times in a four-year span, including one year (1987) in which the Panthers were invited to a bowl game. They also scored victories against bowl-bound squads West Virginia (1984) and Virginia Tech (1986).

Arians also coached Paul Palmer, the most prolific running back in school history. Palmer broke onto the national scene with a 206-yard rushing effort against Penn State in his junior year and continued to break records throughout the season. He holds virtually every Temple rushing record, including those for career rushing yards (4,895), 100-yard rushing games (21) and rushing touchdowns (39).

Palmer couldn't have set all those records without a solid group of teammates. Temple players who earned All-American mention during the 1980s included fellow running back Todd McNair, wide receiver Willie Marshall, tight end Mike Hinnant, defensive back Todd Bowles, linebacker Loranzo Square and offensive linemen Kevin Jones and John Rienstra, who garnered First Team All-America honors in 1985.

The Big East

Jerry Berndt followed Arians as head coach, taking over in 1989. The Owls struggled to a 1-10 finish that season, but then recorded the biggest turnaround in college football and went 7-4 in 1990. Berndt's squad received consideration for the Independence Bowl while putting together the school's best record since the Garden State Bowl season. The following year, Temple helped found the Big East Football Conference, putting the Owls in league competition for the second time in school history.

Ron Dickerson followed Berndt as head coach in 1993. At the time he was hired, Dickerson was the only African-American head football coach of a Division I-A school. Dickerson coached two of the leading tacklers-linebackers Lance Johnstone and Alshermond Singleton, along with the most prolific passer in school history. Henry Burris set more than a dozen records between 1993 and 1996, including a single-game-best Dan Klecko and Raheem Brock led a defense that ranked 19th nationally in 2001.

445 yards passing against Pittsburgh in 1996, and he holds nearly every single-season and career passing mark.

On December 23, 1997, Temple University named Bobby Wallace its 23rd head football coach. The Mississippi native arrived on North Broad Street as the winningest coach in NCAA Division II playoff history after capturing three consecutive national titles at the University of North Alabama from 1993-95. In his first season, Wallace assembled a staff collectively holding 18 national championship rings and persevered through an injury-plagued season with 25 first-year players in the lineup en route to a 2-9 finish.

One of those victories occurred on October 17, 1998, and is arguably one of the greatest upsets in college football history. Before a homecoming crowd the 0-6 Owls traveled to No. 10/14 Virginia Tech to take on the Hokies' top ranked defense. Substituting for 12 defensive players who exited the game due to injury and with 20 first-year players on the field, Temple overcame a 17-0 deficit en route to a 28-24 win. The victory marked the Owls' first-ever Big East road win and first triumph over a ranked opponent in 11 years. Two games later the Owls proved the win was not an aberration. Trailing 20-0 at Pittsburgh, Temple ground out a 34-33 victory to ensure the program's largest comeback win in the modern era.

With a new, pass-oriented offense, the 1999 team posted a 2-9 record and finished tied for sixth in the Big East. The Owls struggled early with a schedule that allowed only two home dates in the first seven games and ranked 13th in difficulty. A come-from-behind, 17-14, homecoming win against then undefeated Boston College and a 56-28 offensive explosion over Rutgers were the highlights. Devin Scott completed 36 of 45 passes versus Rutgers to set both school and Big East records for completions in a game. Defensively, true freshman Dan Klecko earned All-America honors from various publications while linebackers Taylor Suman and LeVar Talley ranked second and fifth, respectively, in the conference in tackles.

The 2000 season began with much anticipation. With its new state-of-the-art practice facility under construction, Temple began the campaign with a 3-1 mark, its best start in 10 years. For the first time in a long time, the Owls had something to play for in November. Unfortunately, Temple lost many tight contests and could muster only one conference victory. Although the goal of a bowl game was not reached, the Owls finished with a 4-7 mark, the program's best since 1990. Sophomore running back Tanardo Sharps became the first Owl since 1987 to rush for over 1,000 yards, accumulating 1,038.

In 2001, Temple battled through a tough schedule en route to its second straight 4-7 record and a 2-5 Big East mark to finish in sixth place. All seven of the Owls' losses were to teams that ended their respective seasons bowl eligible, with a combined .750 (63-21) winning percentage. The strength of the 2001 squad was on defense, where Temple limited opponents to 312.64 yards per game to finish 19th nationally in total defense. The Owls concluded the season with two consecutive wins, including a 17-14 win in Morgantown, W.V., to break a 10-game drought against the Mountaineers. Juniors Dan Klecko and Sean Dillard earned first and second team All-Big East honors, respectively. Klecko was a unanimous choice, becoming Temple's first unanimous All-Big East honoree since the school joined the league as a charter member in 1991.

The 2002 Temple football team was composed entirely of players recruited during Wallace's tenure at Temple University. The Owls concluded the campaign with a 4-8 record, including a 2-5 mark in Big East play to finish tied for sixth place. Seven of Temple's eight losses were against opponents that concluded their respective seasons by playing in bowl games.

Once again, the defense paved the way, leading the Big East and placing 15th nationally in run defense, allowing just 108.3 yards on the ground per game. Temple also made its mark in total defense, placing 18th among all Division I programs by allowing just 315.67 yards per contest. Defensive tackle Dan Klecko was a major cog in TU's defensive machine and capped

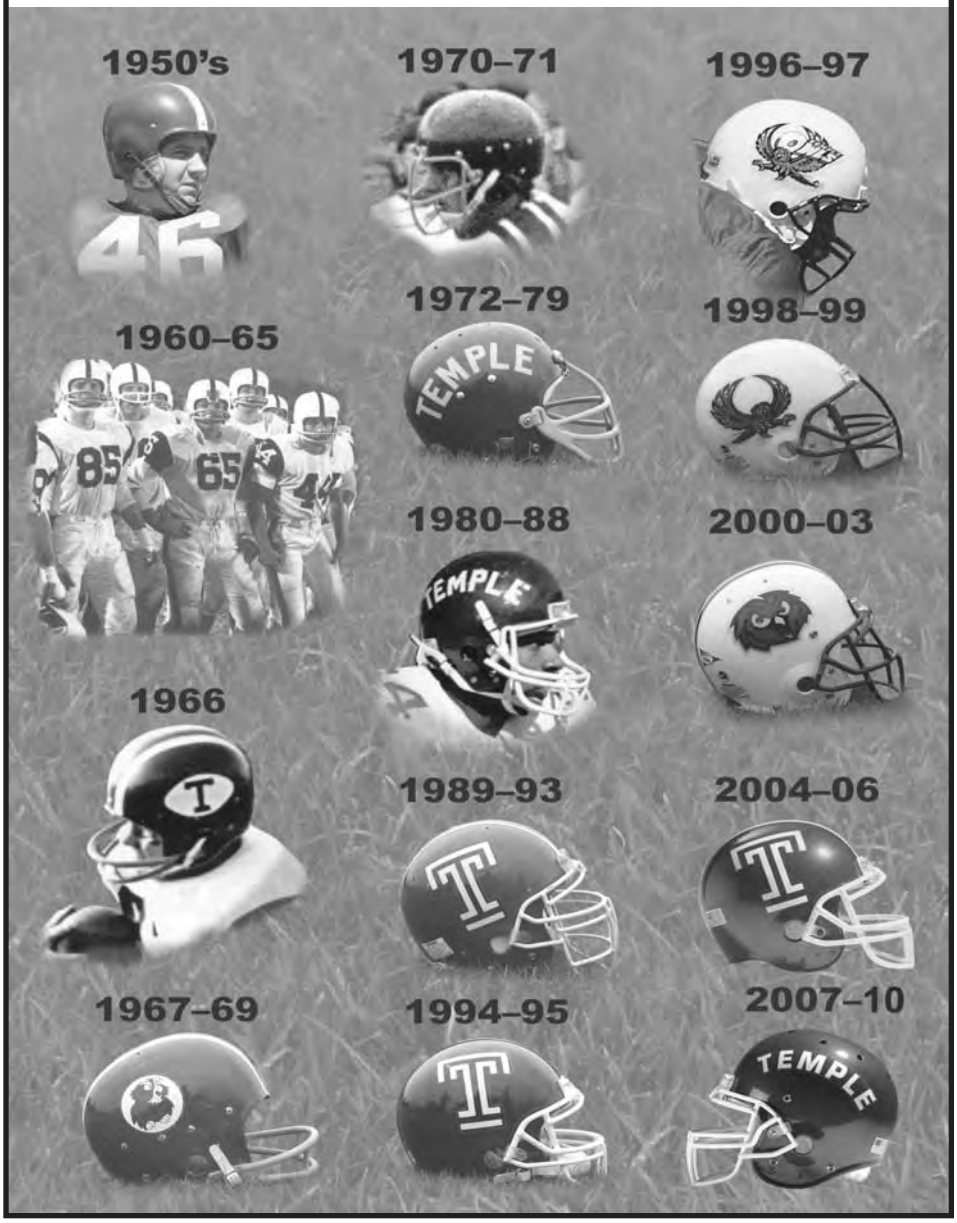
Evolution of the Helmet

The Temple"T" once again adorns the football team's helmets, beginning in 2011. The helmet features a white "T" and a white face mask on a cherry shell. The helmet is strikingly similar to the one the team wore from 1989-95 and 2004-06, except there is no longer a white stripe down the middle. The true shade of the "Temple cherry red" color was adopted by the Department of Athletics in 1996.

For 30 straight seasons, from 1966 to 1995, the Owls' helmets consisted of cherry shells. Temple switched to a white shell in 1996, sporting a helmet adorned with the flying "dominant owl" logo and featuring a black face mask. The program has worn helmets featuring both white and cherry shells with various stripes, lettering, face masks and logos since its inaugural season in 1894.



his senior campaign by being named the Big East Conference Defensive Player of the Year and an AP Second Team All-American.

Tanardo Sharps gained 1,267 yards on the ground to conclude his career ranked second to Paul Palmer in virtually every Temple rushing category while Sean Dillard exited Owl Country as the team's all-time reception leader.

Despite one victory, there were many positives to the 2003 campaign under Wallace. First and foremost was the University's agreement with the Philadelphia Eagles for Temple to play its home games at Lincoln Financial Field. It marked the first time since 1991 the Owls played all their home games at the same site. Temple's five games at the venue drew an average 24,147 fans, a 21 percent increase from the prior season's average.

After battling through a school-record three overtime defeats in the early season, the Owls concluded the year with three, hard-fought losses to nationally-ranked opponents. Highlighting the final trio of games was the performance of sophomore quarterback Walter Washington, who averaged 315 yards of total offense and was responsible for eight touchdowns.

Along the way, Washington tied the school record for rushing scores with four at West Virginia and also set the Big East mark for total plays with 69 against the Mountaineers. He also became the first Temple signal caller to rush for over 100 yards in a game, eclipsing the mark versus Virginia Tech and at WVU.

Among the postseason honors to come to North Broad Street was a Second Team All-America citation for sophomore linebacker Rian Wallace from CollegeFootballNews.com. The Pottstown, Pa., native had the sixth-best single-season tackle output in Temple history, posting 148 tackles (97 solo) while also registering 19.5 TFLs.

Wallace was also a Second Team All-Big East honoree and was joined by senior wide receiver Zamir Cobb, who was a first team selection. Cobb, the Owls' all-time reception leader with 165 career catches, set the school's single-season reception mark with 74 catches for 866 yards and five TDs in 2003.

Temple concluded its 2004 campaign with a 2-9 mark, including a 1-5 league record in its final season as a member of the Big East Conference. Final NCAA rankings rated the Owls' schedule the 16th toughest in major football (60-43, .583). Six of 11 opponents were nationally-ranked at some point during the season and 10 were at least in the "receiving votes" category. Eight opponents concluded their 2004 campaigns by playing in bowl games.

Despite a multitude of adversity, Temple gave its fans reason to cheer. Many of those cheers were in response to performances turned-in by QB Walter Washington. The junior was the top scorer among Division I-A QBs with an 8.36 scoring average and led the nation in rushing TDs by a signal-caller during the regular season with 15, setting the Big East record for a QB and tying the Temple mark for total scores in a season.

Washington led the Big East with a 281.5 total yards-per-game average (3,096 total), to become Temple's first 3,000-yard player. He set a Big East and Temple record for yards rushing by a QB in a season with 889 net yards (1,104 total) and was responsible for the Owls' final 16 TDs, while accounting for 25 of 29 (86%) overall. Washington led the Big East and ranked 11th nationally in total offense (281.5), 22nd in point responsibility (13.82) and 21st in scoring. He set the Big East and Temple record for total plays with 554.

Washington, the Big East 2004 Player of the Year by CollegeFootballNews.com, was named to the All-Big East Second Team in a vote by the league's head coaches. He was joined on the all-conference squad by fellow juniors Rian "Goo" Wallace and Mike Mendenhall, who earned first and second team honors, respectively. After the season, Washington and Wallace both decided to forgo their senior seasons and enter the 2005 NFL Draft.

Temple alumnus Bill Cosby helped to unveil the Owls' new uniforms prior to the 2007 season.

A Difficult Independence

Temple faced the 11th most difficult schedule in Division I-A in 2005 according to the NCAA statistical rankings, and was winless for the first time since 1959 (0-9) with a 0-11 record. It marked the final season at the helm for head coach Bobby Wallace, who concluded his eight-year Temple tenure with a 19-71 overall mark. The Owls played as a I-A independent.

Prior to the start of the season, the Owls' schedule was recognized for its degree of difficulty on a national scale in the pages of Sports Illustrated. A four-page spread penned by Franz Lidz deemed the docket as "arguably the most brutal in the country." Unfortunately for the Cherry & White faithful, the proclamation held true. The combined record of Temple's 11 opponents was 83-46 and seven played in postseason bowls, with six earning victories. Ten opponents concluded their regular season bowl eligible. The only Temple foe to post a losing record was ACC member Maryland at 5-6.

Al Golden

The Golden Era

Temple named Al Golden the 24th head coach in the history of the program on December 6, 2005. A Colts Neck, N.J., native and Penn State gridiron alumnus, Golden arrived on North Broad Street after having spent the previous five seasons as defensive coordinator at Virginia. At age 37, he entered his first season on the Cherry & White sideline as the fourth-youngest head coach in Division I-A football.

The 2006 season was difficult but beneficial. The team played the most true freshmen in the nation, with 22 taking the field. In total, 39 players saw their first major college football action, including 27 freshmen overall. These rookies did so against an ambitious schedule that ranked as the third toughest in the nation, with eight foes earning bowl invitations.

The first win of the Golden Era happened on Saturday, October 28 against Bowling Green at Lincoln Financial Field. The 28-14 victory earned Temple runner-up for Tostitos Fiesta Bowl National Team of the Week honors behind Oregon State. The Owls snapped a 20-game game losing streak with a gutsy performance highlighted by a multitude of big plays.

EagleBank Bowl

December 29, 2009
RFK Stadium, Washington, D.C.
UCLA 30, Temple 21

UCLA scored 23 unanswered points to pull off a come-from-behind win over Temple, 30-21, in the EagleBank Bowl. The Bruins (7-6) spoiled the Owls' (9-4) first appearance in a bowl since 1979, but not a remarkable season that included a school-record nine-game win streak and a co-regular season Mid-American Conference East Division Championship.

A crowd of 23,072, with more than half donning Cherry and White, braved the frigid weather and blustery winds. The Owl s had plenty to cheer about in the first half as the offense, directed by junior QB Vaughn Charlton and featuring the freshman backfield combination of Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown, found the end zone three times in building a 21-7 lead.

Charlton (13-23, 159 yds., 1 TD) completed seven of his first eight passes for 95 yards, none bigger than the 26-yard TD to senior TE Steve Maneri that capped the Owls six-play, 80-yard opening drive.

Temple, which controlled the ball on offense for 21:27 of the 30 minutes of the opening half, started to get its running on track with Pierce and Brown playing tag-team to combine for 94 yards, 61 coming in the second quarter.

Playing his first game since suffering a shoulder injury on the first play of the Kent State game, Pierce gained 86 total yards, 53 rushing on 12 carries and 33 on three receptions. He looked like his old self, especially on the Owls' second scoring drive. He barreled 13 yards up the middle for a first down to midfield and capped it with an 11-yard TD run around right end.

With Temple leading 14-7, junior DB Marquise Liverpool picked off Kevin Prince at midfield and returned the ball 21 yards before being pulled down by his facemask.

Starting at its own 15, Temple quickly marched it in with Pierce moving the ball five yards before giving way to Brown, who made three straight rushes, the last up the middle for a two-yard touchdown to give Temple a 21-7 lead with 1:25 remaining in the half.

The Mid-American Conference

In his second season in 2007, Golden once again played the nation's most freshmen while guiding the Owls to four wins on the season, all in conference play, during their inaugural season of Mid-American Conference play. Temple won four games, the most wins since the 2002 season and equal to the wins from the prior four seasons combined. The four league wins were the most for Temple in 40 years. The Owls finished the 2007 campaign at 4-8 overall and 4-4 in MAC play.

Led by All-MAC honorees Andre Neblett and Dominque Harris, the Temple defense ranked atop the MAC in five statistical categories, including total defense, and finished ranked No. 1 nationally in red zone defense.

In 2008, Golden led the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades, finishing at 5-7 overall and 4-4 in the MAC to tie for second in the East Division. Temple out-scored its opponents for the season for the first time since 1990 and was so close to eight wins, falling in three games on the very last play.

The Owls led nation in kickoff returns as a team, and senior All-MAC KOR Travis Shelton was the national leader individually.

Under the direction of fourth-year head coach Al Golden, Temple recorded one of the best seasons in school history in 2009. The Owls finished 9-4 overall while tying for first place in the Mid-American Conference East Division at 7-1. TU advanced to the 2009 EagleBank Bowl against UCLA.

TU made school history with nine consecutive wins in a single season.

Recording its first winning season since 1990 and becoming bowl eligible for the first time since 1990, Temple made its third bowl appearance in school history and first in 30 years.

The 2009 squad, featuring Golden's first recruiting class as seniors, set the school record for rushing touchdowns in a season with 29, surpassing 26 rushing TDs by the 1973 and 1979 teams. In all, Temple re-wrote 18 school season records and 11 game records in 2009.

Rookie RB Bernard Pierce earned several All-America honors during his freshman campaign, including CollegeFootballNews.com Honorable Mention All-American and CollegeFootballNews.com Freshman All-American.

Joseph V. Labolito

RB Bernard Pierce earned All-America honors as a true freshman in 2009.

The Owls swept the Mid-American Conference honors as well. Pierce was named the Freshman of the Year, sophomore DE Adrian Robinson was named the Defensive Player of the Year, and head coach Al Golden was named the Coach of the Year. A school record 15 Temple football players were named to the All-MAC, including a school record eight first-team honorees.

In his fifth and final season with the Owls, Al Golden guided Temple to an 8-4 overall and 5-3 in the MAC in 2010. Recording its first back-to-back winning seasons since 1978-79, Temple became bowl eligible for the second consecutive year for the first time in program history. However, despite a winning record, the Owls did not receive an at-large bowl invitation.

The Owls' 10-game home win streak at Lincoln Financial Field was the longest since the stadium opened in 2003 and tied the longest home win streak in school history of 10 games from the 1972-74 seasons at Temple and Veterans Stadiums.

For the second consecutive year, a school record eight Temple Owls earned first-team All-Mid-American Conference honors.

Following the season, Golden was named the head coach at the University of Miami.

On December 23, 2010, Steve Addazio was named Temple University's 25th head football coach.

TEMPLE TRADITIONS

The traditional symbol of the University is the Temple T. Early in the administration of former president Peter J. Liacouras, he chose this particular version of a representational T which was created by students at the Tyler School of Art.

The T is stylized, geometric and logo-like and yet maintains a basic, identifiable form—a simple T, but one which is at the same time both simple and complex. It is really a kind of optical illusion.

RUSSELL'S ROCK

When Temple football players exit the locker room for practice or on game days, they place their hands upon a large lump of coal referred to as "Russell's Rock." This tradition is linked to Temple founder Russell H. Conwell and his famous "Acres of Diamonds" lecture.

THE OWL

The owl is the symbol and mascot for Temple University and has been since its founding in the 1880s. Temple was the first school in the United States to adopt the owl as its symbol. Not as popular a mascot as the eagle or hawk, the owl nevertheless has special meaning for students at a dozen other four-year colleges and seven two-year colleges as well. However, only Rice and Florida Atlantic play football at the Division I-A level.

Story has it that the owl, a nocturnal hunter, was initially adopted as a symbol, because Temple University began as a night school for ambitious young people of limited means. Russell Conwell, Temple's founder, encouraged these students with the remark: "The owl of the night makes the eagle of the day."

CHERRY & WHITE

Well known is the fact that the official colors of Temple University are cherry and white. Temple University was the first school in the nation officially to use cherry as one of its colors, certainly by the year 1888. The combination of red with white is quite common, but cherry with white is almost unique. Only one other school now uses cherry and white: Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, N.Y.

FLAGS IN FLIGHT

When Temple takes the field, it does so behind a trio of flags. Prior to each game, the coaching staff selects players to carry the United States, City of Philadelphia, and Temple University flags. The player selected to carrry the City of Philadelphia flag is from the City or surrounding area. The player selected to carr the University flag is one that best represents what the ideal Temple player is— tough and dedicated with a workman-like mentality. A trio leads the Owls onto the gridiron prior to every contest.

ALMA MATER

Onward with Temple,
Banners all unfurled;
Wide flung out standards,
To the winds they're hurled.
Following our Founder
To immortal Fame;
Making true his vision,
Of a deathless name.

Hail! Alma Mater,
Honor, praise to Thee;
We pledge our lives,
Our hearts in loyalty.
Wisdom, Truth and Virture
Built our Tempke great;
Perseverence conquers;
Higher to create.

FIGHT SONG

"T" for Temple "U"
U-ni-versity!
Fight, fight, fight!
For the Cherry and the White,
For the Cherry and the White,
We'll fight, fight, fight!

NEW ORLEANS, La. — The Mid-Winter Sports Association of New Orleans was formed in 1934 to formulate plans for an annual New Year's Day football classic. On Dec. 2, 1934, the Association's executive board selected Tulane (9-1), unbeaten in the South, and unbeaten Temple (7-0-2), coached by Glenn "Pop" Warner, to play in the first game.

The game was a financial and artistic success; however, the final 20–14 result was a heartbreaker for Temple fans. The Owls built up a 14-point lead only to see Tulane score touchdowns in the second, third, and fourth quarters to win the game.

The inaugural Sugar Bowl turned into a contest between two All-Americans—Temple's Dave Smukler (who played all 60 minutes) and Tulane's Claude "Monk" Simons. After the Owls' Danny Testa scored the first touchdown in Sugar Bowl history with a seven-yard TD reception from Smukler. Smukler rushed for second score. With Smukler converting both extra points, the Owls were up 14–0.

On the next kickoff, Johnny McDaniel received the ball and lateraled to Simons, who scampered 85 yards for a touchdown. The Owls held a 14-7 edge at halftime.

Dick Hardy scored the tying touchdown in the third quarter on an 11-yard pass from Bucky Bryan.

With less than three minutes left, Hardy notched the game-winning score on a 43-yard reception in the end zone. Temple blocked the extra point attempt, but was unable to score on its final drive. The hometown team would go on to win the first Sugar Bowl.

Tulane Stadium served as home for the Sugar Bowl until 1975 when it moved to its present site— the Louisiana Superdome.

Temple Notables

- Team captain— Pete Stevens
- Temple took the train from Philadelphia to Baton Rouge, La., a three-day ride.
- During a stop in Atlanta, Ga., the Owls stretched their legs on the station platform and held a 10-minute "workout" with a loaf of bread as a football.
- Six players were ill with the grip ("flu") but made the trip.
- Halfback Horace Mowry, who fractured his wrist against Bucknell in the regular-season finale, was fitted with a special cast for the bowl game. However, he did not start the game.
- The following players saw action in the game: LE Lloyd Wise (60 mins.), LT William Doherty (60), LG John Boyd (28), C Peter Stevens (60), RG Stanley Gurzynski (60), RT James Russell (60), RE Elmer Anderson (45), QB Glenn Frey (60), RHB John Stonik (18), LHB Daniel Testa (35), FB David Smukler (60), LG Thomas Miller (32), RE Joseph Zanin (15), RHB Horace Mowrey (42), LHB Wilfred Longsderff (25).
- Temple and Tulane each received $27,800 from the gate receipts, almost double their guarantee. Admission prices were $1.50 and $3.50.

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J.— Temple ended its most successful season with its first-ever bowl victory. It was the Owls' 10th win of the year (a team record) and earned Wayne Hardin's team a spot in the AP and UPI Top 20. Temple was ranked 17th in both polls, the first time the Temple football team was nationally ranked in the final wire service polls.

Appearing in their first bowl game in 45 years, the Owls jumped out to a quick 21–0 lead in the first quarter, scoring on their first three possessions. Kevin Duckett scored the first two TDs on eight and four-yard runs. QB Brian Broomell connected on a seven-yard pass to Wiley Pitts for the third score. TU had 193 yards of total offense, including 150 yards rushing, in the opening stanza.

Temple then withstood a 17-point California rally before clinching the game with a 14-play, 78-yard scoring drive over 5:58 in the fourth quarter. Broomell tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to Gerald "Sweet Feet" Lucear for the win.

The telling statistic of the game was the rushing total, with Temple gaining 300 yards on the ground while holding the Golden Bears to only 23 yards.

The game's Most Valuable Player, Temple's Mark Bright, gained 112 of those yards on 19 carries, while backfield teammate Kevin Duckett ran for 92 yards and two touchdowns. Temple quarterback Brian Broomell joined in the act by tossing touchdown strikes to Wiley Pitts and Gerald Lucear.

Tackles (UA-A): Cal— Greg Bracelin 4-11, Pat Graham 3-9, Ron Coccimiglio 4-6, Ron Hill 3-7, Rich Dixon 2-7, Stan Holloway 5-3, George Moskowite 1-5, Kirk Karacozoff 1-4, Darnell Chapman 1-2, Fred Williams 0-3, Pat Turner 0-2, Ulysses Madison 0-2, Ahmad Anderson 0-1, Dupre Marshall 0-1, Reggie Camp 0-1. Temple Notables

- Team captains— Brian Broomell, Mike Curcio, Casey Murphy
- Temple was ranked No. 17 in the United Press International and the Associated Press final polls.
- Eight members of the 1935 Sugar Bowl team attended the game as guests of Temple President Marvin Wachman.
- During their bowl trip, the Owls toured New York City, eating at Mama Leone's and attending the musical The 1940s Radio Hour on Broadway.
- Temple received a $225,000 payout from the gate receipts. Admission prices were $5 and $12.
- After four years (1978-81), the Garden State Bowl was discontinued. That led to the formation of the Kickoff Classic, held at Giants Stadium to begin the football season.

Temple	7	14	0	0	-	21

WASHINGTON, D.C. – UCLA scored 23 unanswered points to pull off a come-from-behind win over Temple, 30-21, Tuesday evening in the EagleBank Bowl. The Bruins (7-6) spoiled the Owls' (9-4) first appearance in a bowl since 1979, but not a remarkable season that included a school-record nine-game win streak and a co-regular season Mid-American Conference East Division Championship.

"We are obviously disappointed in the outcome, but I don't want to diminish what these seniors have accomplished in their careers," Temple head coach Al Golden aid. "Unfortunate ending but definitely have to give credit to how UCLA finished the game. We had an excellent game plan. I thought we came out with a lot of energy and a lot of passion…We went after them. I was proud of our kids for doing that, but we made too many mistakes."

A crowd of 23,072, with more than half donning Cherry and White, braved the frigid weather and blustery winds. The Owls had plenty to cheer about in the first half as the offense, directed by junior QB Vaughn Charlton and featuring the freshman backfield combination of Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown, found the end zone three times in building a 21-7 lead.

Making his first start since the Navy win on Oct. 31, Charlton (13-23, 159 yds., 1 TD) completed seven of his first eight passes for 95 yards, none bigger than the 26-yard TD to senior TE Steve Maneri that capped the Owls six-play, 80-yard opening drive.

"He had 15 great practices leading up to the game and he played really well tonight. I was very pleased with how he conducted the game," Golden said about Charlton.

UCLA answered two possessions later. After Terrence Austin returned a Jake Brownell punt 47 yards to the TU 46, freshman QB Kevin Prince (16-31, 222 yds, 2 TDs) found sophomore SE Nelson Rosario streaking down the left sidelines on the first play for a 46-yard score to tie the game, 7-7.

Temple, which controlled the ball on offense for 21:27 of the 30 minutes of the opening half, started to get its running on track with Pierce and Brown playing tag-team to combine for 94 yards, 61 coming in the second quarter.

Playing his first game since suffering a shoulder injury on the first play of the Kent State game, Pierce gained 86 total yards, 53 rushing on 12 carries and 33 on three receptions. He looked like his old self, especially on the Owls' second scoring drive. He barreled 13 yards up the middle for a first down to midfield and capped it with an 11-yard TD run around right end.

With Temple leading 14-7, junior DB Marquise Liverpool picked off Prince at midfield and returned the ball 21 yards before being pulled down by his facemask.

Starting at their own 15, Temple quickly marched it in with Pierce moving the ball five yards before giving way to Brown, who made three straight rushes, the last up the middle for a two-yard touchdown to give Temple a 21-7 lead with 1:25 remaining in the half.

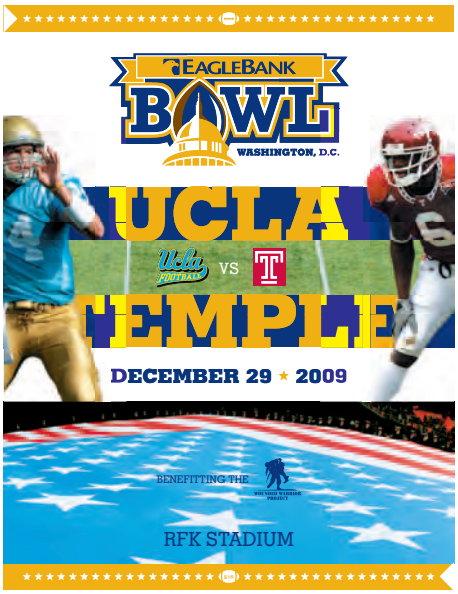
Both teams exchanged three-and-out possessions that gave the Bruins the ball with 17 seconds left and at their own 47. Prince made two quick first down strikes, the second for 19 yards to Chane Moline, who went out-of-bounds at the Temple 22 with one second on the clock.

Junior PK Kai Forbath, the 2009 Groza Award winner given to the nation's top kicker, converted his 36th straight field goal from within 50 yards to cut the margin to 21-10 at intermission.

Senior Terrence Austin returned the opening kickoff 30 yards to the UCLA 47 and then he capped a six-play Bruin scoring drive with a 32-yard TD reception to cut the margin to 21-17.

When the Owls took the field for their first possession of the second half, Pierce was not with them. Instead he was standing on the sideline in a Temple parka, as he injured his left shoulder and would sit out the half.

Temple had its only real opportunity to score in the half on its opening possession. Two big plays, the first was by Charlton – a 21-yard first down scramble, and the second by Brown, who broke a 29-yarder to the UCLA 18. Three straight rushes by Brown made it fourth-and-one at the UCLA 9. The Owls elected to go for it, but with their big back sidelined, Brown was stopped short, ending the drive.



After that, the Bruins defense, which featured three Associated Press All-Americans, was able to put the clamps on the Owl attack. After gaining 242 yards of total offense and 12 first downs in the first half, Temple managed just four first downs and 40 yards of offense over the final 30 minutes.

The Owls only first down the remainder of the contest came on a roughing the kicker penalty that gave TU the ball at UCLA 40. Charlton then was picked off by first team All-America sophomore FS Rahim Moore, who recorded his nation's leading 10th interception on an acrobatic play defending junior WR Michael Campbell down the right sidelines.

Still, the Cherry and White defense, led by all-MAC performers Dominique Harris, Andre Neblett and Jaiquawn Jarrett, kept the Owls in the contest.

Temple held UCLA without a first down the remainder of the third quarter, and bent at the start of the fourth, before holding the Bruins to a 42-yard field goal by Forbath to make it 21-20 with 12:31 remaining to play.

The Owls defense stopped UCLA on its next possession as Alex Joseph and Muhammad Wilkerson corralled Prince in the backfield on a third and long at midfield. Temple took the ball at its own 18 and after Brown was stopped for a three-yard loss, Charlton was called for intentional grounding setting up a third and 20 from the TU 8. Charlton then was picked off at the line of scrimmage while looking for a short pass on the flat to Joe Jones by Akeem Ayers. Ayers, who would be named the MVP of the game, ran it in from two-yards out to give UCLA its first lead, 28-21.

"I didn't see him in the whole play," Charlton said. "Kid came out of nowhere; actually he has done that twice this year."

Things went from bad to worse on Temple's next possession. James Nixon was tackled for a nine-yard loss on the first play. Brown, who finished with a game-high 83 yards on 20 carries, picked up three yards on the next play. Following an incomplete pass Brownell went back to punt, but the ball from center sailed over his head for a safety, making the score 30-21.

UCLA ran out the clock on the ensuing punt to end Temple's best season in three decades.

"We only started six seniors and some of our best players are young players," Golden said. "I am excited for the direction of the program. Our guys will get confidence from this game, which will carry over into next year."

Pierce, who set the school record for touchdowns in a season (16) with his TD run tonight, and freshman Brandon McManus, who had three extra points, tied for the school single season scoring record with 96 points. They eclipsed the previous mark of 95 points set by PK Don Bitterlich in 1975.

Dr. Ann Weaver HART

President

Ann Weaver Hart was elected the ninth president of Temple University on May 4, 2006. She is the first female president in the University's 125-year history.

Since assuming the presidency on July 1, 2006, Dr. Hart has undertaken an ambitious agenda that builds upon Temple's many areas of excellence to position it as a national and global leader in higher education, research and service. Foremost is her commitment to preserving and expanding Temple's mission to provide access to excellence for talented and highly motivated students regardless of status or station in life, and to strengthen ties to Temple's communities by creating a culture of engagement at all levels.

Dr. Hart's agenda for Temple also calls for strengthening Temple's leadership in research, innovation and entrepreneurship, advancing the ambitious capital improvements underway through the Temple 20/20 framework plan and creating a culture of philanthropy to ensure a secure financial future. At the same time, she is expanding and strengthening Temple's international mission in teaching and research, and reinforcing the university's role in the global community by working to expand and strengthen Temple University Japan, Temple Rome and other international initiatives.

Dr. Hart previously served as president of the University of New Hampshire and provost and vice president for Academic Affairs at Claremont Graduate University, in Claremont, California. Her prior appointments include professor of educational leadership, dean of the Graduate School and special assistant to the president at the University of Utah.

She received B.S., M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Utah. Her research interests include leadership succession and development, work redesign and organizational behavior in educational organizations, and academic freedom. She has published more than 85 articles and book chapters, and five books and edited volumes.

Throughout her career, Dr. Hart has been actively involved in leadership roles in numerous professional and service organizations. She has served as a member of the Board of Directors of the Association of Public and Land-Grant Universities (APLU) and as chair of APLU's Commission on International Programs. She currently serves on the executive committee of the Board of Directors of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and as a member of the Chamber's CEO Council for Growth. She is a member of the boards of Philadelphia's Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts, where she serves as chair of the Human Resource and Compensation Committee; the Philadelphia African American Museum; the Avenue of the Arts, Inc.; and the Pennsylvania Women's Forum. Dr. Hart co-chairs Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter's Council for College and Career Success.

In addition to her academic and administrative work, Dr. Hart has been a consultant to many educational institutions, universities and nonprofit organizations both nationally and internationally. She is the recipient of a number of professional and community service awards, including the Jack Culbertson Award in Educational Administration from the University Council for Educational Administration; the Outstanding Professional Award from the Business and Professional Women's Foundation; the PoWeR Award from the Professional Women's Roundtable; the 2009 Champion of Diversity and Access Award from the Urban STEM Strategy Group; and the Outstanding Community Service Award from the Network for Teaching Entrepreneurship.

Athletic Facilities

Joseph V. Labolito

The Liacouras Center has been the home of the Temple men's and women's basketball teams—along with concerts, commencement, and other events— since 1997.

The Liacouras Center

The Liacouras Center is a four-building complex that includes a Convocation Center, the Independence Blue Cross Student Recreation Center, 1700 North Broad Street and the Entertainment Community Center with retail shops, a 1,200-car parking garage, and a live-music restaurant. The Center has been designed as a venue for culture, sports, entertainment, commerce and education.

The Convocation Center seats 11,000 for convocations, commencements and concerts; 10,206 for basketball games; and up to 3,500 for theater and dance. The theater configuration is named for benefactress Esther Boyer Griswold.

Rededicated on February 13, 2000, and named in honor of former Temple President Peter J. Liacouras, The Liacouras Center, the home of Temple basketball, is one of the premier on-campus arenas in the country.

Already the site of some exciting events in its history, the Temple venue has hosted such sold-out concerts as Bob Dylan, along with the NBA Players Party prior to the 2002 NBA All-Star game and the 2002 Atlantic 10 Women's Basketball Championship. The Liacouras Center was also the site of the 2003 NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championships, the 2004 NCAA Women's Basketball First and Second Rounds, and the 2006 and 2011 NCAA Women's Basketball Regionals.

In an historic partnership, the Pennsylvania state legislature provided capital funds - $31.8 million - to build a new multi-use complex, provided the University could raise $28.7 million from private sources. The total cost of the multi-building complex would be $107 million - an investment in Temple's future.

Originally christened The Forum at The Apollo of Temple, the Board of Trustees voted in 2000 to change the building name to The Liacouras Center in honor of President Liacouras' retirement after 18 years as Temple's chief executive.

Lincoln Financial Field

On August 13, 2003, the Philadelphia Eagles and Temple University announced a 15-year pact for the Owls to play their home football games at Lincoln Financial Field. An average of 24,137 fans per game witnessed the Cherry & White in its inaugural season at the venue, a 21 percent increase from the prior year's average.

Lincoln Financial Field, familiarly known as The Linc, is the home stadium of the National Football League's Philadelphia Eagles. It has a seating capacity of 68,532 (69,032 with Standing Room Only tickets). The stadium was named in June 2002 when the Lincoln Financial Group paid $139.6 million for naming rights over the next 21 years. It is located in South Philadelphia on Pattison Avenue between 11th and 10th Streets, closer to the area's stretch of Interstate 95 than to Pattison.

Beginning in 2011, the stadium will be powered with a combination of onsite wind, solar, and dual-fuel generated electricity, making it the world's first major sports stadium to convert to self-generated renewable energy. Approximately $25 million was invested to build the system, saving the Eagles an estimated $60 million in energy costs.

Edberg-Olson Hall

Edberg-Olson Hall is the home of the Temple University football program. Officially dedicated on December 9, 2000, the facility was designed by AP3C Architects of Philadelphia. The building was engineered to not only support the football team's functional requirements, but to enhance the experience through innovative design concepts.

During the season, approximately 250 people will pass through its doors on a daily basis. The 23,600-square-foot building contains team and coaches locker rooms, a weight room, a training room, equipment facilities, coach's offices, observation balcony, a players' lounge, computer lab, individual position meeting rooms and a theater-style team meeting room. It is the perfect complement to a gridiron landscape outside featuring over 100,000 square feet of Sprinturf and 24,000 square feet of Astroturf. Eight, 85-foot poles providing 85 candles of white rendition light line the perimeter of the complex. Powder-coated cyclone fences provide privacy.

Edberg-Olson Hall will undergo a $10 million upgrade and expansion in 2011.

McGonigle-Pearson Hall Athletic Complex

Summer 1969 marked the first use of Temple University's physical education and athletics building, located in the heart of the Main Campus at Broad Street and Montgomery Avenue. The complex currently houses a weight room and training facilities, as well as facilities for teaching, research, student recreation and athletic competition. The Temple volleyball, fencing and men's and women's gymnastics squads play their home competitions in McGonigle Hall.

Later this year, the University will complete a $48-million renovation and expansion of McGonigle and Pearson Halls, providing additional classrooms, faculty and coaching staff offices as well as new men's and women's basketball practice courts, weight room, and training room.

The Pavilion

The TU Pavilion is the home of the Temple men's and women's tennis teams. The facility has four courts for matches and practices and is located on 15th Street in between Berks and Norris Streets. An indoor structure allows for practice in the winter months and during inclement weather. It is also used by Temple Rec Services.

Ambler Sports Complex

Temple's picturesque Ambler Campus plays host to the University's men's and women's soccer teams as well as baseball and softball. On January 14, 2003, Upper Dublin Township gave final approval to Temple University's plans to construct NCAA-standard soccer, baseball and softball fields at the Ambler Campus. Baseball and softball opened play in the spring of 2004 while the Owl soccer teams started in the fall of 2004.

"We are very pleased to provide our student-athletes with a first-class facility at the Ambler Campus," said Temple director of athletics Bill Bradshaw. "Our coaches are very excited to bring their teams to Montgomery County to expose the suburban audience to NCAA Division I athletics."

Bill BRADSHAW

Director of Athletics

Since 2005 arguably no athletic department in Division 1-A has gone through more transition than Temple University. The Owls have moved into a new football conference, and hired new coaches in nine sports, including football, men's basketball, and women's basketball.

Thankfully, Temple has had one of the most respected and experienced administrators in college athletics at the helm in Bill Bradshaw.

Appointed the University's eighth Director of Athletics on June 27, 2002, the NACDA Past President begins his 34th year as a Division I athletics director. Bradshaw was named the 2011 Under Armour FBS Director of Athletics of the Year.

Prior to his arrival in Owl Country he spent 16 years as Director of Athletics at DePaul University in Chicago and nine years in the same position at his alma mater, La Salle University ('69).

"At Temple, we believe that Intercollegiate Athletics should play an integral part in the educational mission of the University. In this light, we look to keep pace with the unprecedented growth and commitment to excellence of the University ," said Bradshaw. "We strive to be nationally-competitive at the highest level of Division I athletics, and believe that our success will be directly related to the quality of our coaches and staff, combined with our ability to dramatically increase and create sources of revenue to support our vision.

"We have many things in place now as we move forward. An unwavering University commitment as evidenced by the recent support of 1-A football, state-of-the-art facilities; and one of the most diverse, dedicated staffs in all of intercollegiate athletics have given Temple University athletics a solid foundation for future success."

Bradshaw's nine years at Temple have produced numerous highlights, most notably the announcement on May 17, 2005 that the University would join the Mid-American Conference as a football-only member and the recent hirings of Al Golden, Fran Dunphy, Tonya Cardoza, and Steve Addazio, as well as eight senior staffers, among several prominent hires. The Black Coaches' Association gave Temple a grade of "A" for the search process of the four coaching hires.

Thirty-four Temple teams have advanced to NCAA Tournament play during his tenure.

Joseph V. Labolito

In 2011, Temple became one of only six NCAA Division I institutions to have its men's and women's basketball teams compete in each of the last four NCAA Championships. Temple became the only Philadelphia school and Big 5 member to achieve this feat. Of those six, Temple is one of only two schools (Texas A&M) to have its men's and women's basketball teams compete in the last four NCAA Tournaments and its football team be bowl-eligible each season. In combined wins by its men's and women's basketball and football programs over the last two years, Temple ranks fifth with 121 wins, behind only Connecticut (141), Duke (137), Notre Dame (125), West Virginia (123), and ahead of Ohio State (120), Florida State (115) and North Carolina (109).

The athletic department has enhanced efficiency, productivity and strategic planning through organizational efforts under Bradshaw that added eight new senior staff members. A comprehensive operations and procedures manual has been developed, and athletics has exceeded its revenue budget in each of the past eight years. During the 2010-11 academic year, Temple Athletics had record numbers in fundraising, corporate sponsorships, and ticket sales, exceeding expectations by $1.6 million.

To continue this revenue growth, Bradshaw instituted a new ticket team ticket. Beginning in July 2010, Temple began a five-year, all-sport footwear/apparel agreement with Under Armour.

Recognizing the accomplishments of Temple's student-athletes is a point of emphasis under Bradshaw. The department of athletics holds its annual "Breakfast of Champions" to honor those who have excelled both athletically and academically by "committing to excellence" in April.

In 2006, Temple was one of 10 Division 1-A institutions to earn the Overall Excellence in Diversity Award bestowed by the Laboratory for Diversity in Sport at Texas A&M University. In 2009, Temple received 11 perfect Academic Progress Rate (APR) scores. Men's basketball and football posted their highest APR scores in school history in school history in 2011. Temple Athletics received full recertification from the NCAA in 2009.

Temple athletics has also undertaken a greater role in community service under Bradshaw. Via the Owl Outreach program, student-athletes have provided volunteer service to numerous community and non-profit organizations, including Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Temple Children's Medical Center and the School District of Philadelphia.

Bradshaw has also been responsible for upgrades to Temple's athletic facilities. He supervised the design and construction of the athletic complex on the Ambler Campus, featuring fields and amenities for the men's and women's soccer, baseball and softball teams. He has also overseen the football program's move to Lincoln Financial Field as well as the addition of a new state-of-the-art football practice field at Edberg-Olson Hall, courtesy of a private fund drive.

Later this year, a $48-million renovation and expansion of McGonigle and Pearson Halls, providing additional classrooms, faculty and coaching staff offices as well as new men's and women's basketball practice courts, will be completed. In the next year, football's Edberg-Olson Hall will undergo a renovation and expansion. Future plans include building a state-of-the-art boathouse for the men's and women's crew programs.

Temple athletics has also displayed its hospitality under Bradshaw, hosting the 2005 and 2011 NCAA Women's Basketball Philadelphia Regionals as well as the first and second rounds of the 2004 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament and the 2003 NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championships. Temple has also been selected to host the 2013 NCAA Men's Basketball First and Second Round games at the Wells Fargo Center.

Bradshaw, who also owns a master's degree in guidance and counseling from Niagara University ('72), received a bachelor's in pre-law from LaSalle ('69).

He resides in Radnor, Pa., with his wife, Yvette and three children, Billy (16), Paige (14) and Connor (13).

Eleanor MYERS

NCAA Faculty Representative

Beasley School of Law Associate Professor Eleanor Myers is in her sixth year as Temple University's faculty athletics representative. The NCAA requires each member institution to appoint a faculty athletics representative to represent the institution and its faculty in its relationships with the NCAA and its athletic conferences and to oversee academic integrity and compliance issues on campus. In her role as FAR, she also chairs the President's Advisory Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics. In 2009, Myers was appointed by the NCAA as a member of the Division I Committee on Infractions, which holds hearings on major violations of NCAA rules and imposes penalties.

Myers joined Temple's law faculty in 1993. She specializes in Professional Responsibility and business courses. She has won awards for curriculum design and for teaching. She has also consulted and taught internationally in China, Japan, Rome, and the Philippines. Previously, Myers served as Temple's associate university counsel from 1983 to 1989 with responsibility for technology transfer, business negotiations and health care issues. Prior to joining Temple's faculty, Myers held teaching fellow posts at the University of Pennsylvania and Stanford University and handled securities and antitrust class action litigation for a Philadelphia law firm. Myers holds a bachelor degree and a law degree (magna cum laude) from the University of Pennsylvania.

Eric Roedl is in his ninth year at Temple and fifth as Senior Associate Athletic Director. In his position, Roedl serves as the Chief Financial Officer of the athletic department and is responsible for managing the $30 million athletic department budget, the athletic business office, personnel, information technology, marketing and promotions, ticket sales and operations, and corporate sponsorships.

While at Temple, Roedl has balanced eight consecutive annual athletic department budgets, spearheaded initiatives to grow ticket and corporate sponsorship revenues, negotiated several major contracts, including Temple's five-year all-sport footwear/apparel agreement with Under Armour, and played a lead role in athletic department strategic and financial planning.

Prior to his arrival at Temple, Roedl served as associate director of athletic business affairs at The College of William & Mary from 2000-03. He had previously worked in the accounting firm of Ernst & Young in New York City for two years, where he earned New York State CPA certification.

A former tennis team captain and academic all-Big East selection as a undergraduate at Villanova University ('97), Roedl earned a master of sport administration degree from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill ('01) and a master of business administration degree from William & Mary ('03).

In 2011-12 Roedl will serve as the second vice president of the College Athletic Business Management Association.

Larry DOUGHERTY

Associate AD / Athletic Communications

Larry Dougherty is in his ninth year at Temple and fifh as Associate Athletic Director for Athletic Communications at Temple. In his position, Dougherty oversees the media relations and athletic publications of the University's 24-sport Division I-A athletic program.

Dougherty joined the Owls' staff after serving 15 years in the media relations office at Saint Joseph's, the last eight as the school's assistant athletic director for media relations. Prior to SJU, he served as the SID at Nicholls State for one year and as the information director of the East Coast Conference for two years.

Active in regional and national organizations, Dougherty served as chair of the organizing committee for the 2009 ECAC-SIDA Workshop held in Avalon, N.J., and the 2005 CoSIDA Workshop held in Philadelphia. Dougherty served as the president of CoSIDA during 2010-11. He was the recipient of the ECAC-SIDA's 2011 Irving T. Marsh Award .

He earned both his bachelor's (1982) and executive MBA (1994) degrees from Saint Joseph's. His father, Andy, also served as the SID at SJU from 1972-81.

Kristen FOLEY

Associate AD / Senior Women's Administrator

Kristen Foley returns for her 12th year in Temple administration and 17th overall. She was promoted to Associate Athletic Director in 2005 and oversees the administration of women's basketball, volleyball, women's soccer, cross country and track and field, field hockey, fencing, men's and women's gymnastics, men's and women's tennis, and women's rowing. In addition, Foley provides the color analysis for the women's basketball web stream broadcasts.

Foley was the Tournament Manager for two NCAA Women's Basketball Regional Championships (2011 and 2005) and the 2004 First and Second Rounds. Throughout her tenure, she has served on numerous Atlantic 10 Conference Committees (Administrative, Executive, Volleyball, Softball, and Women's Rowing) and currently is a member of the Officiating Committee and Championship Review Subcommittee. Previously, she chaired the NCAA Fencing Committee (2004-06) and was a member of the NCAA Women's Basketball Rules Committee from 2002-06. In 2005, Foley was honored with the "Outstanding Associate Director Award" presented by the All-American Football Foundation. Foley entered athletic administration with 13 years of Division I women's basketball coaching experience, including a five-year stint as head coach at Temple (1995-00).

Foley earned her bachelor's degree (1986) and a master's degree in Educational Administration (1991) from Rutgers. A standout women's basketball player, she captained the Lady Knights to consecutive NCAA Elite Eight appearances in 1986 and 1987, while being named to the All-East Regional team in 1986. She has also been honored as a member of the Rutgers Basketball Hall of Fame.

John BAUM

Assistant AD / Major Gifts

John Baum, Temple basketball's second all-time leading rebounder and captain of the 1969 NIT Championship team, is in his eighth year as Assistant Athletic Director for Major Gifts. Baum's appointment took him across North Broad Street from the University's Office of Development, where he had worked since 1985, now serving as director of major gifts.

In 2003, Baum raised close to $1 million for the University through endowments and scholarships. He was also instrumental in establishing the John Chaney Endowed Scholarship Fund. The Philadelphia native and Big 5 Hall of Famer also completed his 12th season as color analyst on the Owls' men's basketball broadcasts in 201-11. A three-time all-city selection, he was enshrined in the Temple Hall of Fame in 1979.

Baum was drafted in the second round by the Chicago Bulls (NBA) and the first round by the Los Angeles Stars (ABA) in 1969. He played in the NBA for three seasons with the Chicago Bulls (1969-72) before competing in the ABA for three years with New Jersey (1972-74) and Indiana (1974-75).

Sherryta FREEMAN

Associate AD / Compliance & Student Services

Sherryta Freeman is in her seventh year at Temple and her fifth year as Associate Athletic Director for Compliance and Student Services at Temple.

Freeman oversees all aspects of the department's compliance efforts with conference and NCAA rules and regulations. She works to educate coaches, administrators and student-athletes in regards to new rules and regulations as well as the processing of NCAA and conference waivers on behalf of student-athletes. She also oversees all student-athlete leadership and life skill development programming which includes the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) and the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program.

Prior to arriving at the Temple, Freeman served as the assistant athletic director/compliance at Dartmouth College. The Hillside, N.J., native earned her bachelor's degree in environmental studies from Dartmouth in 2001 and a master's degree in sport management at the University of Massachusetts – Amherst in 2004. Freeman was a member of two Ivy League women's basketball championship teams, making two appearances in the Division I NCAA Tournament.

Lee ROBERTS

Assistant AD / Facilities

Now in his 27th year at Temple, Lee Roberts serves as the Assistant Athletic Director for Facilities and Event Management. In this role, Roberts oversees the maintenance and upkeep of the University's athletic facilities, both on the main and Ambler campuses, as well as serving as the department's liaison with The Liacouras Center and Lincoln Financial Field.

The veteran administrator manages the game operations of all athletic events. He has helped to facilitate numerous conference and national competitions that Temple has hosted during that time, including the 2004 NCAA Women's Basketball first and second rounds and the 2005 NCAA Women's Basketball Philadelphia Regional. In 2011, Temple will once again host the NCAA Women's Basketball Philadelphia Regional.

Roberts, a 1982 graduate of Temple, joined the Owl staff in 1984 as director of football operations, a position he held for 12 years before moving into his current position. His role as director of football operations, which entailed overseeing the Division I-A program's day-to-day operations, helped to groom him for his current post.

Kelli SHEESLEY

Assistant AD / Creative Services

Pennsylvania native Kelli Sheesley is in her third year as the Assistant Athletic Director for Creative Services. Prior to joining the Owls, she spent five years as the Director of Publications at the United States Naval Academy, returning to her home state in 2009.

Sheesley, who grew up in Beavertown, Pa., administers the day-to-day operations of the publications process at Temple, while also serving as the media contact for tennis and softball.

While at Navy, Sheesley was responsible for the design and layout of materials for 31 varsity sport programs, while working closely with the marketing and promotions department, as well as Navy's booster program, the Blue & Gold Club. Her publications have been cited over 20 times in the last six years by CoSIDA in district or national contests. In 2008-09, three of her media guide covers received "Best in the Nation" awards while her 2008 Navy sprint football media guide and 2009 men's lacrosse media guide were ranked first nationally.

Prior to her work at Navy, Sheesley spent six years at Bucknell University as Assistant Director of Athletic Communications. Sheesley is a graduate of Juniata College ('98), where she was a four-year letterwinner in softball and was the team's MVP her senior season.

Scott WALCOFF

Assistant AD / Marketing & Promotions

Scott Walcoff is in his seventh year as Assistant Athletic Director for Marketing and Promotions at Temple University.

Walcoff is responsible for coordinating media buys, placing print advertisements, negotiating radio/television promotional support, and creating group sale and community initiatives to increase ticket sales. He also develops season ticket campaigns, oversees game-day promotions and giveaways, as well as supervises the Temple Spirit Squad.

In his time at Temple, Walcoff has won two National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA) awards; one for his creation of "Hooter the Owl's Birthday Party" theme at a Temple Basketball game; the other for the development of Temple Basketball's "Five Months of Christmas" ticket sales campaign.

Walcoff, a 1997 graduate of the S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications at Syracuse University, previously served as director of marketing and public relations for the Liacouras Center for four years. He also spent time as a marketing coordinator for Comcast-Spectacor, as a promotions coordinator for Ticketmaster, as well as a writer/editor for both the Media Theatre for the Performing Arts and The Sports Network.

Al SHRIER

Special Assistant to the Director of Athletics

Al Shrier is the dean among national college sports information directors with 58 years of service. In 2004, his years of dedication to Temple University were rewarded as he was immortalized with his own bobblehead doll to become the first administrator in the history of NCAA athletics to be so honored.

Shrier officially retired from his position as Temple SID on June 30, 1995, but due to necessity, returned to the post during the 1995-96 academic year. He remains at the University in the role of special assistant to the director of athletics and is in charge of credentials, media services, and hospitality at Temple sporting events.

The 1953 TU grad is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America, Temple University, Philadelphia Big 5, Pennsylvania and Philadelphia Jewish Sports Halls of Fame. He was the 2010 recipient of CoSIDA's Arch Ward Award for outstanding contributions and the 2009 recipient of ECAC's Pete Nevins Award for Distinguished Achievement. Shrier is past president of the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association. The Media Room at The Liacouras Center is named in his honor.

Overview

Temple University's Student-Athlete Academic Advising & Support Center (SAAASC) is responsible for providing comprehensive academic support services for Temple's over 565 student-athletes on 24 intercollegiate sports. Under the guidance of Office of the Senior Vice Provost for Undergraduate Studies, the SAAASC strives to help student-athletes reach their academic potential through efficient degree planning, major exploration, learning support, academic coaching/mentoring and tutorial services. SAAASC staff members collaborate heavily with program/college advisors to ensure graduation, retention and critical NCAA eligibility benchmarks are met.

Mission Statement

The mission of the Student Athlete Academic Advising and Support Center at Temple University is to assist all student athletes in their development as individuals and as active members of the University community. The Center will provide an environment that fosters student athletes' personal, academic, and social growth. The Center will also support student athletes by coordinating and providing the resources and opportunities for them to develop and refine the skills needed to achieve their personal and academic goals.

The Student Athlete Academic Advising and Support Center promotes academic excellence by ensuring student athletes' welfare and by empowering student athletes in their decision-making and development of life skills. Student athletes will be accountable and responsible members of Temple University and the surrounding community.

To achieve this mission, the Student Athlete Academic Advising and Support Center has five major objectives:

- To assist all student athletes in graduating from Temple University
- To protect and maintain academic integrity and to ensure compliance with all NCAA, Conference, and University policies
- To assist student athletes in overcoming individual challenges and to support them as they strive to fulfill their personal and academic potential
- To ensure that student athletes complete their experience at Temple University with enhanced academic, personal, and social skills
- To prepare student athletes to become useful and productive members of their communities

The Certifying Officer is responsible for reviewing all student athletes each semester to certify degree progression, NCAA registration and eligibility. The officer also monitors the degree of accuracy and maintains accurate records of academic requirements. This person also communicates with faculty and administration on behalf of student athletes.

SAAASC Staff Services

Academic advisors work closely with student athletes from the time they arrive at Temple through the completion of their academic careers. Through team, group, and individual meetings, these SAAASC staff members monitor academic and athletic eligibility and encourage students to strive for academic excellence and personal growth. All student athletes meet with the academic advisors to discuss academic and athletic eligibility, changing/declaring a major, faculty issues and course selection.

In addition to advising services, the following support services are provided by the SAAASC staff through regular individual and team meetings:

- Educate student athletes about Temple University resources, opportunities, and services
- Assess transition from high school adjustment, academic progress, and overall academic, personal, and social well being
- Monitor academic performance, including regular contact with faculty and reviewing progress reports
- Assist with all academic matters, focusing on degree completion in four years
- Develop plans to accomplish academic goals
- Refer students to appropriate faculty, academic departments, campus resources, and advisors
- Discuss team travel and academic responsibilities
- Coordinate tutoring services when appropriate

College academic advisors are equally as important as the athletic academic advisors. Often student athletes will need to obtain information from both sources in order to best evaluate degree progress and eligibility.

Temple University is committed to providing student-athletes with the necessary support services to succeed. However, academic success is ultimately the responsibility of each student-athlete.

Radio & Television

Inside Temple Football

Inside Temple Football, a bi-weekly television and web show featuring exclusive behind the scenes access to the Owls' football program, enters its fifth season on Comcast SportsNet. Produced by Temple University Athletics and 20/20 Visual Media, LLC, the 30-minute show will feature six installments with the first airing scheduled for the week of August 29. Check your local listings for dates and times.

The show will also be available OnDemand for Comcast digital cable subscribers.

On the Airwaves

Temple University will once again have 1210 AM WPHT serve as its flagship radio station during the 2011 season. The 50,000-watt Infinity-owned broadcast station has served in that capacity since the 2001 football season. Temple broadcasts are coordinated and produced by the University's Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. For additional information about WPHT and to listen online, log on to the station's website at:

www.thebigtalker1210.com

On the Internet

For the latest info on Owl Football, log on to Temple Athletics' web site, www.OwlSports.com. In addition to live stats and audio of all games, fans can watch video weekly press luncheons. Owl Nation can also listen to audio of the head coach's post-game press conferences.

Harry Donahue— Play-by-Play
17th season

The 2011 season marks Harry Donahue's 17th consecutive year as the voice of Temple University football. A Philadelphia native, he has also served as play-by-play announcer for the Owls' men's basketball program since the 2002-03 campaign.

One of the most recognizable voices in the Delaware Valley, Donahue has worked as a morning news and sports anchor at KYW Newsradio (1060 AM) since 1979. He first joined the station in 1974 as a freelance reporter and anchor. Today, the Infinity Broadcasting radio station is the market leader, with more listeners than any other radio station in the Philadelphia region

Donahue is a well-known broadcaster and an integral part of the Philadelphia sports scene. He has done play-by-play for Eagles pre-season games, 76ers basketball contests and college basketball for ESPN's Atlantic 10 Conference Game of the Week. Every Sunday, NFL fans around the country hear Donahue describe NFL Films' highlights that are displayed on stadium scoreboards. He is the voice of NFL.com's weekly highlights. Donahue also hosted "Temple Sports Now," a bi-weekly TV show that featured Owl athletics.

Donahue was the play-by-play voice for the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL. He has also hosted "Center Court," the pre-game, half-time, and post-game shows for the 76ers' telecasts.

Donahue's reporting has earned him two Pennsylvania Associated Press Awards for his coverage of the Philadelphia Phillies' World Series run in 1980. In May 2000, he was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

Donahue is a graduate of Saint Joseph's University. He and his wife Lynda reside in Montgomery County, Pa., and have three sons and five grandchildren.

Steve Joachim— Color Analyst
12th season

Steve Joachim, Temple's 1974 Maxwell Award winner as college football's player of the year, is in his 12th season as analyst for Owls' football broadcasts.

One of the most honored players in the history of Temple football, he started for two years at quarterback under Wayne Hardin after transferring from Penn State. He led the Owls to 9-1 (1973) and 8-2 (1974) records while accumulating 3,262 yards passing and 31 touchdowns.

A first-team Walter Camp, second-team United Press International and third-team Associated Press All-American as a senior, Joachim played in both the All-American Bowl and Blue-Gray All-Star Classic before being selected by the Baltimore Colts in the 1975 draft. He played three seasons in the NFL and concluded his career with the Lou Holtz-coached New York Jets, backing-up Hall of Fame signal-caller Joe Namath.

Joachim and his wife Barbara reside in Delaware County, Pa. They have three children, Steve Jr., Janeen, Amanda, and one grandchild, Steven III. Steve Jr. played lacrosse at the U.S. Military Academy in West Point before serving as a Captain with the 82nd Airbourne in Iraq.

Mid Week

Interview Requests
All interview requests for players, coaches or staff members should be directed to Athletic Communications. For football coaches and players, please direct your requests to Cathy Bongiovi. For athletics administrators, please direct your requests to Larry Dougherty.

Practice Regulations
Head coach Steve Addazio and select players, depending on pre-practice requirements, will be available for brief television interviews prior to daily practices early in the week. Advance notice is required to the Department of Athletic Communications. Photographers and videographers are then permitted to shoot the first 15 minutes of practice. At the 15-minute mark, practices will be closed to all individuals except Temple football personnel.

For daily practice schedules and to arrange more extensive interviews with coaches and players, contact Cathy Bongiovi at (215) 204-1608 or (215) 778-6814. Please make interview requests by Sunday evenings. Player interviews take place on Mondays & Tuesdays during the season. The Owls practice on Chodoff Field at the Edberg-Olson Hall facility, located at 11th and Diamond Streets.

Weekly Football Release
To access Temple's weekly football release, please log on to www.OwlSports.com. The release will be posted on the web site in Acrobat PDF format. In order to view a PDF file, you must first download Adobe Acrobat Reader to your computer, which is available from www.adobe.com for no cost. The weekly release will include updated game notes, schedule, depth chart, and game-by-game wrap-ups. Team and individual statistics will be posted to the website as well.

Weekly Media Luncheon
Steve Addazio's weekly media luncheon is held each Tuesday at Edberg-Olson Hall on the main campus (10th & Diamond Streets, 2nd floor) starting at Noon. Please check the weekly gamenotes for luncheon schedule relating to non-Saturday games.

Game Day

Credentials
All requests for home games must be made through Athletic Communications. Season credentials should be requested in the preseason and game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to the game. Local media requesting credentials for a road game must have that request into Athletic Communications two weeks prior to the contest (preceding Monday) by submitting in writing on company letterhead by mail (1700 North Broad Street, 4th Floor, Philadelphia, PA 19122), fax [(215) 204-7499] or e-mail (ashrier5@temple.edu).

Media Parking
Media parking at Lincoln Financial Field is available on a limited basis. Please contact Al Shrier in Athletic Communications at (215) 204-2222 for availability.

Media Will-Call / Entrance
Media attending games at Lincoln Financial Field must enter on the west side of the stadium (facing 11th St.) across from the Wells Fargo Center. Credentials left at will-call must be picked up at that entrance only.

Press Box Phone (267) 570-4453

Telephone Services
All seat locations and photographer work areas at Lincoln Financial Field have complimentary lines for high-speed Internet access as well as local and 800 telephone service. Wireless internet access is also available and pool phones will be accessible in the press box for outgoing calls. If you need more services, please contact Athletic Communications.

Statistics
Complete individual and team statistics and play-by-play will be distributed throughout the press box at the conclusion of each quarter.

Locker Room Policy
Temple maintains a closed locker room policy.

Post-Game Interview Procedures
Following games, head coaches and players from both teams are made available to the media. Please take the elevator to the street level and proceed left off the elevator through the double doors. Follow the signs to the media conference rooms, located on the east side of the stadium. Each team will utilize an interview room adjacent to its respective locker room. Please address player requests to Cathy Bongiovi of Temple and the visiting school's sports information representative by the 10-minute mark of the fourth quarter.

Taxi Cabs
For transportation to and from Lincoln Financial Field, it is suggested that you call either Checker Cab Co. at (215) 744-8294 or Olde City Taxi at (215) 338-0838.

2011 MAC Coaches Weekly Teleconference

The Mid-American Conference football coaches will be available each Monday, beginning Aug. 29 and running through Nov. 21 for a weekly teleconference. There will be an additional football championship teleconference Nov. 28 at 10 a.m.

The teleconference will be with questions from the media and will forego any introductory statement from each coach. Should your schedule not permit you to dial in, questions for a coach may be e-mailed to Ken Mather (KMather@mac-sports.com), and he will make every effort to ask the question. Please e-mail your question no later than 8 a.m. (ET) each Monday. Each emailed question must include your name and affiliation.

Postseason Awards

Following the conclusion of the regular season, voting will be conducted on the all-conference team by league coaches, as well as several individual awards by the MAC News Media Association. The MNMA votes on the Offensive Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year, Freshman of the Year, Special Teams Player of the Year and Coach of the Year. The coaches vote on the Vern Smith Leadership Award, honoring the league's top football student-athlete. An Academic All-MAC team is honored in voting by the league's faculty athletic representatives.

MNMA

A media organization supporting the MAC since the 1950s, the MAC News Media Association is a key component to the publicity efforts of league schools and the league office. The MNMA meets three times yearly – at Football Media Day, Basketball Media Day, and the MAC Basketball Tournament.

To join the MNMA, contact Secretary-Treasurer Angie Reninger by phone at (513) 529-6239 or e-mail at renninal@muohio.edu.

MAC Player of the Week

Each week, the MAC office will choose a player of the week on offense, defense and special teams from each division. The player of the week will be announced at approximately 1 p.m. (ET) each Monday and will be posted on the league web site.

The Steve Addazio Football Camp

Mitchell Leff

TUFF
STEVE ADDAZIO
FOOTBALL CAMP

The Steve Addazio Football Camp, LLC, will kickoff the 2012 summer camp circuit for a second consecutive season on the campus of Temple University.

Edberg-Olson Hall, the Owls' training facility, will serve as the central location of all camp activities. The camp objective is to teach the basic fundamentals and skills of the game of football. The Temple coaching staff will be assisted by coaches from major universities and colleges and also premier high school coaches from the Northeast. Though the backgrounds of these coaches differ, they all share one common trait; the love of football. The opportunity to work with some of the best teachers that this great game has to offer will give you the best value (at under $60 per session) of any camp you will attend this summer!

Visit us on the web at www.SteveAddazio.net for more information or contact the football office at 215-204-4694 or via e-mail at football@temple.edu.
